GAY SCENE AT OTANE INTER-HOUSE TEAM DANCE

A Successful Modern And Old-Time Dance Programme

The Otane Town Hall was the scene of an amiable and gaiety routine when the first dance of the season was being given, which was the last of the year in the opinion of Cassidy's.

The hall had been artistically decorated by the committee, the walls being covered with branches of cypress and coloured balloons, while the front of the stage was festooned with garlands and streamers, the entire place being a handsome yellow room with black trimmings.

A wonderful array of black and white paper streamers, some of which were festooned throughout the room, from the ceiling, the well reflecting great credit on those in charge of the decorative scheme.

Miss K's Orchestra supplied excellent music for both the modern dances, and Mr. T. K. Colquhoun was in charge of the orchestra.

Evening Wedding In Hastings MANNING—THOW

Victorian British Govn
Of Ivory Turrets
PIPER PRESENT

A picturesque wedding took place at St. Andrew's Church, Hastings, on Wednesday evening, August 2nd, when Miss M. Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Manning, Hastings, was united in matrimony to Mr. J. Thow, Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thow, Hastings.

The bride wore a gown of white silk with a train, and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a dark suit and a white shirt with a bow tie.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Manning, who read the opening prayer and the nuptial mass. The bride and groom were then pronounced man and wife by the celebrant.

The wedding was a very quiet and intimate affair, and was attended by a number of friends and relatives. The reception was held at the bride's home, where a light refreshment was served.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 1939. A £4,000,000 GOLD BIRD.

Analogue must be translated for the annual form of this leading article. Unfortunately it is impossible to deal adequately in words with figures and statistics, but if the reader will follow the following, he will get the gist of the matter.

Table with 3 columns: Revenue from taxation, Special wages and income tax, and registration levy. Total revenue: £4,000,000.

From the it may be seen that taxation in its various forms has been increased by almost 44,000,000. Even this would have yielded £700,000,000 in the year 1938-1939.

This is the case in the level of the percentage is however, the balance left is smaller and the tax percentage is higher. However, the Government has tried for a higher tax on a smaller amount.

Obviously the Budget has been relaxed by almost £5,000,000 as a result of £2,000,000 being taken out of the Consolidated Fund. However, the Social Security Fund is to be added to the total.

"THE FARMERS WILL REVOLT"

MR HARGEST EVOKES A SHARP REJOINER

Arguments Pro And Con On The Budget

MR A. E. JULL'S CRITICISM

By Telegraph—New Association. PARLIAMENT BILLS, Aug. 3. Hasting's time, a lightning bolt of Mr Hargest in the Budget debate today as a result of the Budget decision.

His statement that the farmers would revolt against "the Government's proposals" drew the remark from the Hon. P. Fraser that if they did they would be treated as "insubordinates."

Mr A. H. Nordenberg dealt with the Social Security Fund, holding that the cost was actually much below the Government estimate and far below the figures given by the Opposition.

Continuing the Budget debate, Mr Hargest, leader of the Prime Minister's Government, said that the Government was not prepared to meet the Opposition's demand for a 10 per cent increase in the rate of the Income Tax. He said that the Government was not prepared to meet the Opposition's demand for a 10 per cent increase in the rate of the Income Tax.

Promises Broken

Old Rugby Stars Will Show Their Paces

Saracens Take The Field After A Few Years On The Bank

A Fit Pack

Last Week's Game Argued Well For This Saturday

"They were" says the authority, they could play better after about five years on the bank than they did in their heyday of last season.

Organized to Call for Queen, the Southern Stars, who are now made of old representatives from the southern parts of Hawke's Bay had a try-out last Saturday on their former territory with the one representing team from the northern side.

Most of the team have been the great ones in the province, and that takes the field to victory. In 20 years the Southern Stars have held the position in the back line from the first to the last, and have a number of players who have been in the front line.

On the wing, Clive Cross and Jim Gifford were the main players. Gifford was a very good player and showed that he is a good player a new position very well.
