BRIDE-TO-BE—A charming study of Miss Judith Wall, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs Perry Wall, Clarendon, Hawke's Bay. Miss Wall is to marry Mr John Oswald, eldest son of Mr and Mrs A. G. Oswald, Wainuiomata. The wedding, which will take place at Waiapapa later in the month, will be of simple elegant nature.

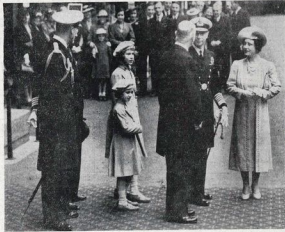

A SMILING PITCHER—The sister of the bridegroom, Miss Betty Wall, with her mother, Mrs P. Wall, at the lovely honeymoon, Hawke's Bay.

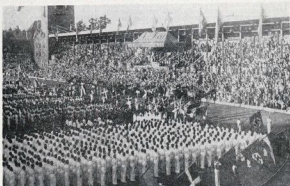

HUSERANGI HOMESTEAD—The beautiful homestead of Mr P. Wall of Hawke's Bay, which will receive over 100 guests at the Grand Wall wedding, to take place at Waiapapa shortly. This modern homestead is set in ideal grounds with terraced lawns and beautiful gardens.

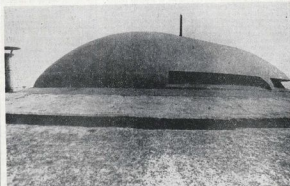

TWO NEW ACCELS—Mr P. Wall with his two yearling lambs on the Hawke's Bay Agricultural, Hawke's Bay.

ROYAL VISIT TO DUNEDIN—Accompanied by the Royal Provisional, the King and Queen arrive at the Dunedin Station to receive the International and Empire on July 21. The visit is connected with the forthcoming Royal inspection of the 130 ships of the Eastern Fleet.

INTERNATIONAL PARADE OF ATHLETES—The long-distance athletic meeting in Stockholm on July 22 was attended by representatives of many countries. Flags of all nations were displayed—the spectacle of Germany being much in evidence.

HOLLAND ON THE WATCH—A frontier observation station, giving the impression of the French Riviera, near Gorea, Holland has recently strengthened her defence forces, and is now making attempt to take this route to France the Netherlands will give a good account of itself.

NEWSPAPERS AND TENSION

It is not uncommon to find attacks upon newspapers in these complicated days. Indeed, there is probably no more potent force for the dissemination of crime than the newspaper.

Evidence of the effects of Press control can be seen in every totalitarian country—including Russia. The people are not allowed to have the opinions of other nations—opinion which might profoundly influence their willingness to follow their leaders.

Commenting on the position recently in London, the Press is not allowed to have the opinions of other nations—opinion which might profoundly influence their willingness to follow their leaders.

CHARADE MAY CONQUER PADISHAH
Grand National Hurdles
Great Contest Should BE PROVIDED

(By MOTURAC)

Today there will be tremendous interest taken in the Grand National Hurdles race, for the field is one of the strongest ever met and the victory will be the opportunity of a century.

Among the two splendid stables to take their own and King Rey, whose records on the Grand National Hurdles are so many that they need no further mention. They are regarded as the two best of the race.

Although King Rey will only win if the other horses are as good as he is, it is not the other horses who are the main concern. It is the Grand National Hurdles race that is the main concern. It is the Grand National Hurdles race that is the main concern.

THE HORSEWOMEN
A GOSWOLD will have to improve a lot on the Grand National Hurdles race if he is to have any chance of winning.
