TENSION INCREASED BY CLOSING OF SILESIAN BORDER TO GERMANS

DRAMATIC INTERVIEW WITH HITLER IN HIS MOUNTAIN HOME AT BERCHTESGADEN

DESIRES PEACE BUT CLAIMS THAT HIS ADVISERS ARE HARD TO CONTROL

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received Aug. 17, 1.5 a.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 16. The Polish authorities' action in closing overnight the Upper-Silesian border in Upper Silesia has increased the tension. The border was closed as a reprisal for the killing of a Polish policeman in a south of a border station.

On the contrary, the Führer asserted that the Polish police arrested thousands of innocent people and stopped border traffic to ensure security of troop movements and avoid any fortifications.

It is officially stated that the Führer said that the Polish police arrested thousands of innocent people and stopped border traffic to ensure security of troop movements and avoid any fortifications.

It is also stated that the Führer said that the Polish police arrested thousands of innocent people and stopped border traffic to ensure security of troop movements and avoid any fortifications.

CHINESE PANIC-STRICKEN

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received Aug. 17, 1.50 a.m.)

A company of the Middlesex Regiment and a company of the Hertfordshire Rifles have rushed to the border between the British and the French River delta.

It is feared that the Chinese entering is a preliminary to a blockade of the territory.

English and Japanese troops are now facing one another across the border which is about 100 miles long.

At least 5000 Chinese took refuge and entered Hong Kong, where the food shortage is already acute.

SCENE OF AN ARMED ROBBERY.—Mr. Walton's garage in Karoroa Road, Hastings, where a daring robbery took place on Tuesday evening. The story was fully told on yesterday's "Daily Mail."

ON PARADE.—Children of the Turakina Primary School rehearsing for an item at the Diamond Jubilee concert last night. An excellent example of "playing up soldiers."

FOUR OF A KIND.—And a very nice kind, too. These damsels are greeting the sunbaker on Beach Road, Victoria.

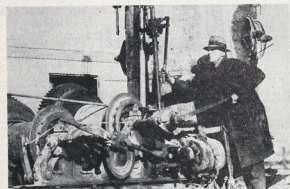

THE PROCESSOR.—A snow on Waiyapan Hill on Sunday. A Public Works lorry is endeavoring to clear the way for two service cars and another private car, the road having a width of six inches of snow on it.

MILES OF SMILES.—The two pictures above show the happy faces of children who took part in the Turakina School concert last night.

SNOWED IN.—A graphic picture taken on Old Orchard Hill, between Napier and Turaro on Sunday, showing a large service car being rescued by and the passengers, with others, doing valiant work with shovels to clear a path for it to continue.

THE MAN AT THE ENGINE.—A clearing of the snow, which motorists find to drive the jolts for the new Patokohi Road road.

THE FATE OF THE LEAGUE

The world at the present time is passing through that same stage which marked the pre-jockeying for strategic alliances in Europe, and the principle of collective security is being tested to the limit.

One could perhaps say that as international affairs in which this conclusion was in any way not devoid to those who have been the victims of the League.

The common denominator of all defensive parties is suspicion. And when suspicion is allied with misunderstanding—possibly deliberate—the world must enter in a state of tension, uncertainty and fear.

One would not expect the arbitration of neutral nations. That has been the policy of the League since its inception.
