TAIMAN LUXURY LINER.—A "Daily Mail" picture of the Assuta of her berth in Wellington. She is to go back to Australia for general overhaul. The S.S. Mariposa will in the meantime substitute the service.

THE PANORAMA FROM HOSPITAL HILL, NAPEI.—The extensive view looking over Napier from the height of the Hospital Hill. In this picture can be seen the reconstruction work being done at the South Pier in the foreground. The ridge of spoil gives evidence of the magnitude of the task. The entrance to the Iron Pier is in the background.

AN ENGLISH WEDDING.—An English wedding of Hawke's Bay interest which took place at St. Peter's Church, Old Waiapu, Napier, on July 23, when Miss Mary Rowland, only daughter of Mr and Mrs A. Rowland, Hastings, was married to Mr. Henry Rowland Jackson, "Tom Hill," Clevedon, Woking, England.

GIANT PILE-DRIVER.—A major "bit" of the whole process of the raising of the new Napier Harbour Bridge. The tall structure, the pile "monkey" and the pile are clearly seen.

THE COLONEL-IN-CHIEF ON PARADE.—Sir Maurice the Queen of Tisbury presents a new Standard to the Queen's Regt. of which she is Colonel-in-Chief.

AIR MINISTER'S NARROW ESCAPE.—Left to right, Sir Kenneth Wood, British Air Minister, and Sir Oswald Churchill, Parliamentary Secretary. Both in Britain after their narrow escape there on R.A.F. plane, carrying them to Ireland made a forced landing of Killybegs-Parsons.

THE QUEEN AND SOLDIER'S WIFE.—When the Ministry visited the barracks of Tisbury, she took a lively interest in the wives and children of the soldiers. She is here seen chatting to some of them.

THREAT TO BLOCKADE HONG KONG Britain And Japan Confer DEMARCATION OF THE BOUNDARY Hope Of Avoiding Incidents

Chief Press Association—Copyright. (Received August 22, 1.30 am.) THE British and Japanese officials met on the frontier of the Japanese zone of demarcation of the boundary in order to avoid incidents when the Japanese troops are put into operation. An Independent Cable message from Tokyo says that the Japanese Ambassador (Mr. Robert Cruger) and Lady Closen have left the city for the summer Embassy quarters at Lake Biwako, indicating that resumption of the Anglo-Japanese talks is not expected for some time. A TOKYO message says that the Japanese Foreign Office spokesman said there was nothing in either the British or Japanese statements that the negotiations had ended. He said the British asserted that the Japanese had asked the removal of the silver reserves from Peking, but said he could not guarantee the future. A message says that a "Grand Anti-British Association" has been formed to advise proper Government on methods of enlarging the anti-British campaign throughout Asia. Chinese in future will devote the first quarter of an hour to anti-British exercises. British cars, including those used by the Japanese, will be the subject of the military exercises, have ceased driving the United Kingdom.

At Shanghai a group of Japanese intelligentsia called for a boycott of British goods. The group was headed by a Dr. Chen, who was elected president, but refused the title to the Chinese. The Chinese spokesman at Canton said that the Japanese would be blocked by both land and sea. He said that the Japanese signed a compulsory law to the effect that the Japanese people of expatriating Chinese.
