OUTSTANDING SCREEN PRESENTATION. Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado". From whatever aspect the production is viewed, Confess your admiration in wonderment at the brilliant music upon which the dramatic story is based.

There is no doubt that wherever it is seen, "The Mikado" will be hailed as a production of the highest quality. The music is so beautiful and so full of melody that the film version of "The Mikado" is a masterpiece of dramatic advantage over the original production.

The players, most of whom are well known to the Hastings audience, are uniformly good, and their production is a masterpiece of dramatic advantage over the original production.

"HUCKLEBERRY FINN" ON THE SCREEN. Micky Rooney Brings Role to Life. Dwaney days on the Mississippi river, around a steamboat, with a cast of stars, including Micky Rooney, who brings to life the role of Jim.

The picture has received the full approval of the Hastings audience, and the production is a masterpiece of dramatic advantage over the original production.
