THE SIDEBOW SECTION.—With knapsacks and many-go-rounds in the foreground, the second round of the Spring Show presented an unusual and colourful picture at Taranaki yesterday.

ALL THE DOGS HAD THEIR DAY.—Cute Amalgams on parade in the show at Taranaki yesterday.

"THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH."—Tribular ally at the Spring Show was well patronized yesterday, and many found metaphors, hyperboles and superlatives of the showman quite irresistible.

CHAMPION LEAPER.—Mr. R. R. McClelland guides his new team riding horse to victory in the showman display match.

HE WANTED FIRST TO HIT AND KNEEL THE FOUNTAIN.—Like Ferdinand, the horse had obedient to the show ring, and an attendant had a long time checking his supple new feet from him.

PURE PARTIES AT TONGAREVA.—Yesterday at the Spring Show many great parties were to be seen, including an extremely well attended showman's beautiful surroundings.

RAD LOCKE.—Drops a bit at the show. Miss Joan Bennett's pony riding Pig Five proved second place in the champion jumping match.

Highlights And Sidelights Of The Carnival FRAGMENTS FROM TOMOANA

Apart from the educational and entertainment values of such a gathering as the Spring Show of the Hawke's Bay A. & P. Society, which concluded at the Tomoana Show Grounds, Hastings, yesterday, with Peep's Day, it is possible to find much enjoyment and interest from watching the activities of other people. "All the birds a stage" were William Shakespeare, and where there are people there is comedy and drama.

There were few dramatic incidents at the show yesterday, but the day was not without its highlights and sidelights. There was ample scope for the festive or casual observer to secure a change in entertainment just by watching the activities of other people. Fragments from many activities are frequently enlightening and amusing, and below is an assorted collection of items, featuring some of the highlights and sidelights from the show.

MARKETING AMENDMENT ACT—CLOAKS SOCIALISM

Waikato Farmers Voice Strong Protest: Action Is Demanded

By Telegraph-Press Association HAMILTON, Oct. 19.
The opinion that the emergency marketing amendment Act bore the cloak of socialism was expressed by speakers at a special meeting of farmers held at Morrinsville yesterday. It is a resolution which was carried unanimously, and supported by the 150 delegates, and demanded that at the next session of Parliament the Government should be asked to amend the Act so that it should be approved by 150 farmers attending.
