NEW ZEALAND MEAT PRICES

"Very Satisfactory Indeed," Says Mr Nash

By Telegraph-Press Association. WELLINGTON, Oct. 27. The prices at which the United Kingdom Government has agreed to purchase quantities of the country's mutton and New Zealand meat are generally considered to be very satisfactory indeed. The Minister said: "We are generally pleased with the results of the negotiations, and we are confident that the prices we have secured will be well paid for the meat at the stage that it was put on board ship."

There was one or two bad bits to be set aside or to be charged from, but the general average was very good. The prices were generally better than those which had been fixed last year, but the price of mutton would be, say, 10 per cent. higher than last year. The price of mutton would be, say, 10 per cent. higher than last year. The price of mutton would be, say, 10 per cent. higher than last year.
