"Britain Has Become A Field Of War." BOASTFUL NAZI BROADCAST. France Predicts Offensive Before February. WEATHER NOW TOO BAD

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received October 31, 2:15 a.m.)

LONDON, Oct. 30. A broadcast in German and English from Berlin declared Britain has now become a field of war. This is only the first of a British war. How long will the Navy be in a position to defend the seas?

A French newspaper says: "It was a quiet night. We reported a military attack."

The "Paris Herald" points out that the weather at the moment is not conducive to offensive operations and aerial activity, and thinks that Germany is unlikely to declare war later than the last month of the year. However, operations would be possible in Holland even during the winter."

The Paris newspaper "Le Temps" says that the British government has decided to send a message to the United States that it is not in a position to make any concessions on the Belgian and Luxembourg frontiers.

It is stated that the British government has decided to send a message to the United States that it is not in a position to make any concessions on the Belgian and Luxembourg frontiers.

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received October 31, 2:30 a.m.)

LONDON, Oct. 30. The Paris radio reports mutinies among the troops in Vienna, Graz and Klagenfurt, which the Nazi authorities are reported to have quashed by shooting 1000 men.

The mutinies, which were those returning from the Polish front, the position is reported to have been particularly serious at Graz.

Quiet has returned in Bohemia, where it was earlier reported that 1000 men were being held and 500 arrested following clashes between Germans and Czechs during the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the foundation of the Czech Republic.

The German troops moved in several sections during the night, the demonstrations lasting until dawn.

"RED TAPE" IN BRITAIN. BUSINESS RECOVERY HAMPERED. MANY COMPLAINTS. Expensive Inactivity On Markets.

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received Oct. 30, 2:30 a.m.) LONDON, Oct. 30. The September trade figures were hampered by the outbreak of war, but the next few weeks of war will be a period of recovery.

'NOT GUILTY' VERDICT RETURNED
Jury Rejects Charges Against Caldwell
THE REICHEL CASE

Verdict of an acquittal in both cases were returned by the jury in the Napier Court at Napier last yesterday afternoon, after a trial which had been held in the Napier District Court.
Headings, who faced two charges in connection with the death of Hastings, returned a verdict of not guilty after the evidence was given by the deceased's mother, Mrs. Justice John Collins.

The hearing, which occupied the attention of the court for three days, attracted a large crowd of people, and throughout the proceedings there was a large crowd in the court.

The charges were that the accused unlawfully inflicted grievous bodily harm on Hastings, and that the accused procured marriage, and that he imperiously interfered with the husband's authority over his wife, namely, that of Mrs. Justice John Collins.

The prosecution was conducted by the Crown Prosecutor (Mr. H. B. Lusk), Mr. C. E. Hester appeared for the defence. A plea of not guilty was entered on both counts.

No witnesses were called for the defence, and in view of the fact that the accused had pleaded not guilty, it was held that the evidence against him was sufficient to justify a trial.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty on both counts, and the court granted judgment in favour of the accused. The judge in the case of Caldwell said: "I am sure that you are all satisfied with the verdict."

Archdeacon Maclean On World Affairs

The sermon at the Napiers Church at Napier yesterday afternoon, when the Rev. Archdeacon Maclean preached on the "Gospel of the Superman," was one of the most interesting and original addresses heard in Hawkes Bay for some time.

Archdeacon Maclean said that the "Gospel of the Superman" was a new gospel which was based on the teachings of the Superman. He said that the Superman was a new type of man who was superior to all other men.
