WAIKURAU: The marked increase in the number of weddings throughout the Dominion during October is reflected in the figures for Waipukurau which show four weddings registered in October of last year. However, it is pointed out that as the percentage were particularly in the towns, so it is anticipated that many more registered at offices in other centres.

There were five births during the month, three boys, one girl, and two deaths (last year four).

Military Wedding in Wanganui

Obj.—Dent

One of the first of the military weddings in New Zealand was celebrated at the Royal Chapel, Wanganui, on the morning of October 25. The bride was the daughter of Mr. D. P. St. John, Esq., of the 2nd Regiment, Canterbury. The bridegroom was Mr. J. H. Berry, an old friend of the family, now a pilot with the Royal Air Force. The ceremony was held in a hall, the first time that a military wedding had ever taken place in Wanganui.
