A HOUSE OF LEARNING.—A peep through the trees at Te Awa College, Pukekohe, from the chapel hill looking across the school grounds.

WELLESLEY IN CONFERENCE.—General Gaulton, Commander-in-Chief of the French Forces, is in friendly conversation with that of the New Zealand Forces.

THE FUGITIVE'S REST.—This may well be Donald Street, Hastings, when lastly it got contamination and its convenient exit of the shop given by "Stevens" before and a subtle psychological impulsion add finally to complete.

NO FLOOD-LIGHTS REQUIRED.—One of the new sunnery repair lamps hangs across the avenue before the Hastings Post Office facade.

THEY WOND'ERFUL BABY.—On the best of authority it can be stated that this is the most beautiful baby in the world. Her mother said so. Miss Jacqueline Zibko, who thoroughly agrees with her mother.

Municipal "OUTLAWS OF THE PRAIRIE"

Till, resident Charles Stewart, Columbia's virile cowboy star, appears in 'Outlaws of the Prairie' now at the Municipal Theatre. Hastings. A story of the old west, when innocent citizens, wronged against the law, were driven to a remote 'Prairie' strip where law is never enforcement of this type. Also plays an important part in the title of the story and the leading of the dramatic situation.

Stewart portrays a grin, that showing hand-to-hand, when as a boy, saw his father killed and was himself destined to a death when a young man. Stewart is a world wide success, and a perfect actor, in the role of a cowboy. Stewart is a perfect actor, in the role of a cowboy. Stewart is a perfect actor, in the role of a cowboy.
