THE ROSE OF ROSES—At the rose and sunset page about in Herby, the beautiful specimen of a "Rose Belle" was crowned by the charming pageant. It was from the garden of Mrs E. J. Campbell, Wharfedale.

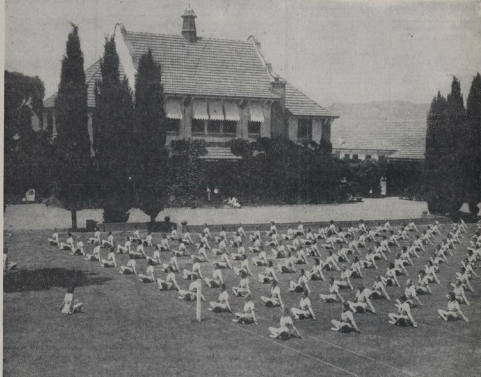

IN PERFECT TRIM.—With their feet planted firmly on the mat of their native soil, with massive legs and steady aloft, three splendid specimens of Hawke's Bay youth go through their paces in the grand, and impressive display of health drill. A striking demonstration of abstinence to command.

HAWKE'S BAY FLOWERS OF PARADE—A glimpse of the rose and sunset page about in the Assembly Hall, Hastings, yesterday. The exhibition was arranged under the auspices of the Hastings Educational Society.

GRACE AND STRENGTH—The girls of the Hastings High School posed for the start of some serious work. A more dramatic and dignified yesterday.

BEAUTY IS BEAUTIFUL, SURROUNDED.—Arrived in their attractive summer costumes of light blue, these girls of the Hastings High School, in perfect alignment, pass a brilliant display of health drill. A striking demonstration of abstinence to command.

Take Care of Your Pipe

How to get the most pleasure from your pipe

Don't knock your pipe on a hard subject to get the ashes out of the bowl. It is much safer and easier—hold the bowl in one hand and gently tap it into the palm of the other hand.

*Bears' Flake Cut smokes to a clean, dry ash that comes out easily.
