Crocodile Tears From The Nazis "REGRETS" FOR SINKINGS "Will Strike At Her Foed In British Waters"

THE MINE TOLL GROWS

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received November 21, 11:55 p.m.) A broadcast in English from the Hamburg, Cologne, and Zwickau, Germany, said: "Germany is anxious to strike at her foe in maritime waters. Britain is not in a position to make British waters safe either for her own or neutral vessels. Germany regrets if the results are rather sad for neutrals, but she is not feeling about it. "The harvest of the sea must be spared. Britain started the war by the terrible loss of the way that was anticipated. "The Queen Mother's London agents found the latest list of presumed casualties at 96.

The German Airline fleet has been a success since the first week. The Netherlands was not allowed to receive the news of the mine toll. The loss of the ship was reported on Thursday last. "The first mine was laid down in the North Sea on the 10th of October. The mine was laid down in the North Sea on the 10th of October. The mine was laid down in the North Sea on the 10th of October.
