HITLER'S TERRITORIAL AIMS IN EUROPE REVEALED IN ORDERS TO PROPAGANDISTS

CONTROL OF CHANNEL PORTS OR BRITAIN WILL PARALYSE HER TRADE

United Press Association—Copyright.
(Received November 23, 9.45 p.m.)
PARIS, Nov. 23.—The "Paris Star" published what is claimed to be the first official statement of Germany's war aims, which are contained in a booklet of instructions to pro-Nazi propagandists and Black Guard instructors, signed by Johannes Friebe of the Nazi Propaganda Department.
Germany's aims are:—
(1) To secure all the arable land necessary to avoid a future permanent blockade.
(2) In the same way as Germany held Polish oil, and, she, Germany "will be able, thanks to Her Hitler's genius, to acquire in the very near future the riches of Belgium, Holland, and north France."
(3) Subject nations must be treated without sentimental scruples. Their cultural autonomy must be destroyed so as to prevent the possibility of a future alliance with the West.
The booklet adds: "Half a century hence the former German race will number 100,000,000. Racial and linguistic frontiers must be re-established, but not those of 1918. Germany must hold the mouth of the Danube, old Serbia, and the present Holland."
It concludes: "If we do not possess the French coast and hinterland, it is clear that the British fleet will paralyse our navigation."

'B.O.'? But how can I - when I bath so often ...

BUT-

... you can't be sure of protection from "B.O." (Body Odor) unless many baths you take with ordinary soaps. Skale perspiration may still linger in the skin pores unless you use Lifebuoy's protective lather.

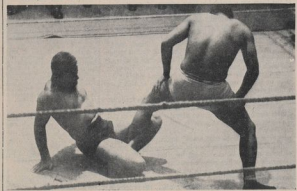

Lifebuoy contains a special purifying element which aids in cleansing away every trace of impurities from the pores. That's why Lifebuoy leaves your skin so cool, fresh and completely safe from "B.O."

... and LIFEBOUY does more than stop "B.O." - it's a mild beauty soap, too!

Besides giving you softening protection from "B.O.", Lifebuoy lather is wonderful for acid and germs on the skin. Tens of thousands of Lifebuoy users have discovered that - and now there's scientific proof! - the combination needed for a healthy skin is available in Lifebuoy soap. It's gentle, it's safe, it's mild, it's clean, it's refreshing, it's soft, it's safe from "B.O." when you clean, but it's pleasant.

I FIRST USED LIFEBOUY TO STOP B.O. - NOW I'VE FOUND IT'S A REAL BEAUTY SOAP - SO MILD.

FEW RACES LEFT FOR BEAUVILLE Forced To Go To Australia CHANCE MISSED FOR THE WELLINGTON MEETING

Comment From Here And There (By MOTORUA.)

The news that the calendar three-year-old Beauville, is to do his autumn racing in Australia is a deep disappointment to racegoers throughout the Dominion, for there is always wide interest in the career of a good class galloper... It is a matter for profound regret, too, that the Wellington Racing Club has been able to do so little way that to stage a finishing race at the Centennial meeting in January.
