DRASTIC ACTION URGED BY JAPAN UPON BRITAIN

'Outrageous Influence' Must Be Ended

ARRESTS IN INDIA AND SINGAPORE

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 6, 0.55 a.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 5.

The Domei News Agency's Osaka correspondent says that the Assembly has decided to hold an anti-British meeting on Wednesday. It passed the following resolution:—"For the sake of establishing the solidarity of Greater Asia we demand that the influence of outrageous Britain be annihilated."

Similar meetings will be held at Tokyo. The Domei News Agency says: "The Government is fully determined to take drastic measures in the event of the Anglo-Japanese situation becoming worse over the repeated illegal arrests of Japanese residents." The Japanese Government is expected to demand that the British release the Japanese and give a guarantee against further arrests.

The Kobe Chamber of Commerce and Industry, at a special meeting, passed a resolution demanding British reconsideration of the arrests of the Japanese. It is urged that Japan's War, Navy, and Commerce Ministers take a firm stand.

The Foreign Minister (Mr. Matsukata) and chiefs of departments discussed the London arrests and counter-measures. However, he declined to give details, and is awaiting more information before formal action is taken through Sir Robert Craigie.

The "Daily Mail" states that the Japanese Embassy reveals that the British arrested three Japanese journalists at Rangoon last Friday and another at Singapore on Sunday.

Two more Japanese have been detained in London. They are: Mr. Tayayuki Eguchi, an employee of the Bank of Formosa, and Mrs. Milley Yoshi, German-born wife of a Japanese painter. It is learned that these arrests concerned purely routine matters, and were made three weeks ago.

The Japanese Foreign Office spokesman (Mr. Suma) declined to comment on the London arrests pending detailed reports.

"Cables from London," he said, "are being delayed." Mr. Suma explained that he had been informed officially that the arrests were not retaliatory, but he expressed the opinion that more arrests might be made.

Mr. Suma added that four arrests in London, one in Singapore, and one of a business man at Hong-Kong, had been confirmed, while the Rangoon arrests had not been confirmed.

At Singapore, said an earlier cable, the police detained Mr. Ishiro Kobayashi, manager of the "Eastern News," a Japanese news agency. The police visited Mr. Kobayashi's house.

The Japanese Embassy in London has received a cablegram, dated July 30, announcing the release of Sanford, of Nagasaki, Mr. E. W. James, of Kobe, and Mr. Rich, who were among the Britons arrested in the recent round-up.

It is learned that the Japanese Embassy twice approached the Foreign Office at the week-end and requested the release of Mr. Makihara and Mr. E. W. James. The Japanese answer was sent to Tokyo.

Japanese at Singapore express surprise at Mr. Kobayashi's detention, but state that he is being well treated. He was permitted to take a suitcase containing clothing, etc.

Mr. Kobayashi is well known in Singapore. In addition to his "Eastern News" work, he was Domei correspondent when the "Eastern News" started.

Espionage In The United States

INVESTIGATION DRIVE

Nation-Wide Campaign Expected

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 2.15 p.m.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.

Mr. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Mr. Robert Jackson, Attorney-General, have called a meeting of representatives of 48 States for Monday and Tuesday to report on the anti-espionage campaign. They will read a message from President Roosevelt, who is expected to head a nation-wide drive.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has handled 16,855 cases since the war began, and has surveyed 270 munitions plants.

According to a message from San Jose (Costa Rica), the Government has ordered dikes to be cut in extensive Japanese-owned cotton plantations in the Pacific zones, officially for drainage, but it could be a precautionary measure to render the areas useless for aviation.

NAVY MAKES ATTACK ON SARDINIA

BOMBERS LEAVE HANGARS ABLAZE

Good Work Done By Swordfish 'Planes

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 8.40 p.m.)

GIBRALTAR, Aug. 5.

Naval units, including aircraft carriers from which Swordfish 'planes took off, made an attack on July 31 on Cagliari, on the south coast of Sardinia. One flight flew high to attack Cagliari aerodrome and another flew low to bomb the harbour. The weather was particularly unfavourable.

The two attacks were launched at an interval of only five minutes. Incendiary and high-explosive bombs dropped on the harbour, which one pilot said was incredibly crowded. The 'planes dived to within 20 feet of the water. A second salvo disposed of two flying boats.

The anti-aircraft fire was erratic but some British 'planes received hits which were not observed until they had landed again on the aircraft carrier.

Hangars Ablaze
One of the pilots of the high-flying raiders said: "Out of five hangars, we left three smoking. Two Italian fighters flew up but they did not come to grips. On the contrary, they helped us because the anti-aircraft gunners ceased fire in order not to hit their own machines."

No Casualties
During these operations bombing attacks on his Majesty's ships were made by enemy aircraft. No damage and no casualties were sustained. One enemy aircraft was hit by anti-aircraft fire and is unlikely to have reached its base. Planes of the Fleet Air Arm shot down three of the enemy aircraft shadowing or attempting to bomb the British ships.

A recent report from Madrid stated that a British battle squadron had put to sea from Gibraltar. The bombing of Sardinia was evidently its mission.

The crew of one Swordfish 'plane are missing, and it is feared that they lost their lives. A second Swordfish made a forced landing in Sardinia, and an Italian communiqué states that the crew of this aircraft had been taken prisoner. There were no other casualties.

(Received August 6, 1.35 a.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 5.

The Treasury, without explanation, has ordered the indefinite postponement of the publication of a Penguin Library edition of Hansard containing a digest of the House of Commons debates for the period between the Premierships of Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Churchill.

Between 30,000 and 40,000 copies have been circulated.

NAZIS AGAIN DROP HITLER'S SPEECH

Leaflets For England And Wales

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 12.45 p.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 4.

It is officially stated that enemy 'planes are reported to have dropped more leaflets containing Hitler's speech, in a few districts of Wales and south-east England last night.

EMBARKATION PRACTISED BY NAZIS IN NORWAY

Cavalry Indulge In Trick Riding And Swimming To The Shore

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 10.45 p.m.)

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 5.

Germans in Norway are forecasting an offensive against England between August 8 and 10.

The R.A.F. badly damaged, is being strengthened as a "Northern Singapore" with shore batteries and anti-aircraft guns.

The training of soldiers has been intensified during the past fortnight, including cavalry, who jump from crags to the sea, swim out to transports and embark by special gangways and then jump from the decks and return to the shore.

The casualties among men and horses are 10 per cent.

Give Britain 50 Destroyers, Says American General

BEST SAFEGUARD OF FREEDOM

Pershing Opposed To Sending Armed Forces

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 7.45 p.m.)

WASHINGTON, August 4.

General John Pershing, who led the United States armies in the Great War and retired in 1924, in a broadcast urged the United States to make available at least 50 over-age destroyers to Canada or Britain "if the proper method can be found," as a means of safeguarding the United States' own freedom.

"To-morrow may be too late to keep the war from the Americas," he added. "If there is anything that the United States is able to do to help to save the British Fleet in the next weeks or months we shall be failing in our duty to America if we do not do it."

"If our old destroyers are able to help to save the British Fleet, they may save us from the dangers and hardships of another war."

"I believe that it would be absolute folly even to consider sending another expeditionary force to Europe," General Pershing continued. "The way to defend our heritage before it is too late is to do everything possible to aid Europe's last democracy, Britain."

"We can easily afford 50 destroyers, because we have an immense reserve of them from the last war."

"The next few weeks and months will be most critical for Britain, because after that she will have completed a large number of her own destroyers."

"America at present is gravely threatened," he concluded. "We must unitedly arise and defend our liberties and independence."

RUMANIA SEES HER DANGER

NOW AWARE OF NAZI WILES

Force Must Be Met With Force

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 2.15 p.m.)

LONDON, August 4.

Rumanians are to an increasing degree not appreciating the German proposal that Rumanian statesmen should commit national suicide, says the Balkan correspondent of the London "Daily Telegraph." The almost impossible seemed to have happened with the violently pro-German Iron Guard issuing a "no surrender" manifesto which urges Rumanians to awaken to the perils of the moment and distinguish between greedy Powers seeking to impose concessions and the Powers which helped Rumania in the last war.

The Germans, says the correspondent, probably no longer consider the Iron Guard necessary as a political weapon, and have withdrawn their support.

Surprise Leaflet
Another surprise was a leaflet issued by the former leader of the Peasant Party (M. Maniu) declaring: "Hungary has not modified her demands. Her promises of autonomy for Western Transylvania cannot be trusted." The leaflet adds: "Even more interesting than these anti-revisionist leaflets is the flickering-up of a semblance of party political activity under the stress of Germany's demands for further Rumanian sacrifices."

The Balkan correspondent of "The Times" says that he became convinced of the truth of the assertion that all Rumanians in Transylvania would stand behind M. Maniu during a tour of the disputed areas, where he found repeated evidence of Rumanian ability to resist Hungarian assaults if the latter were not backed by the Axis.

Contrasting the ill-armed casual Hungarian patrols and the Rumanians, it seems that the well-drilled Rumanian defences are superior to anything else in the Balkans.

The Dobruja
The Sofia correspondent of "The Times" says that well-informed circles believe that Rumania has accepted in principle a Bulgarian proposal for the transfer of the south Dobruja.

The Istanbul correspondent of "The Times" says that, despite official reserve, it is generally acknowledged that the Balkan Entente exists now only in name. Turkish-Greek friendship is the only part of Balkan co-operation still unimpaired. Turkey's present policy towards the Balkans is one of watchful waiting, while she perfects the defence of Thrace and the Dardanelles.

Turkey's attitude towards the Axis is the subject of heated discussion. A small section of the Press favours a policy acknowledging Germany as the predominant Power in Europe. However, most newspapers retort that this means subservience to German hegemony.

Turkey, says the correspondent, would reply in the affirmative if the Axis desired normal economic relations based on common consent and common interests, and would emphatically say "No" if the imposition of hegemony were proposed.

France Ready But Not Willing

WAR INDUSTRIES WILL NOT HELP GERMANS

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 12.45 p.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 4.

The Vichy correspondent of the Associated Press of Great Britain says that the French Minister of Industrial Production (M. Belin) said today: "If French war industries in the occupied area are working for Germany, they are acting contrary to the wishes of the Petain Government."

"Such factories are in a position to open operations, but they will not begin to manufacture war materials if we have anything to say about it."

BARREN ISLANDS BOMBED BY ITALIANS

AN UNSUCCESSFUL SEARCH FOR TARGETS

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 10.45 p.m.)

ATHENS, Aug. 5.

Italian 'planes which are believed to have been seeking British ships bombed the barren Greek islands of Hare, ten miles from Athens. The inhabitants of Salamis saw the explosions.

Race Broadcast Interrupted

ANNOUNCER'S CRIME

Telegraph Wires Cut

NOW SENT TO PRISON

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 6, 0.55 a.m.)

MELBOURNE, Aug. 5.

Harry Solomons, a radio announcer, aged 30, was today sentenced for six months' imprisonment for unlawfully cutting telegraph wires in connection with the broadcasting of races at Ascot Vale last December.

Solomons, who absconded from bail, was arrested again at Suva in June. His counsel today claimed that nothing really criminal had been done by Solomons. It was merely an impudent act. Counsel asked the Court to take into consideration the fact that Solomons had already sufficiently suffered; he had been kept in gaol for 29 days in Suva with one white man and 100 natives, being given poor food, and while passing through Auckland, he had been locked in a cell with a crowd of Saturday night drunks.

Solomons' sentence retrospectively begins on June 12.

PROSPECTING FOR OIL

A NEW AREA NEAR GREYMOOUTH

AMERICAN FIRM Satisfactory Finance Arranged

(By Telegraph—Press Association.)
GREYMOOUTH, Aug. 5.

An agreement whereby the Superior Oil Company, California, will prospect for oil in the Marsden ridge near Greymouth has been concluded with N.Z. Oil Concessions, Ltd., the holders of the licence.

The agreement is the result of long negotiations and is highly satisfactory to New Zealand in that the Superior Company will provide the necessary plant and capital for prospecting and drilling on the basis that the payment for such is a first charge on the profits should oil be found. The Superior Oil Company takes up 75 per cent. of the shareholding in the N.Z. Oil Concessions and any subsequent profits will be divided on that basis as between the American and the New Zealand shareholders.

The Superior Company is known as the largest independent oil prospecting concern in the United States and holds the world record for drilling.

Encouraging Signs
The company is satisfied, as the result of the preliminary survey work, that the Grey district is an encouraging field. The seepages at Kotuku, which are well-known to West Coasters, are hopeful signs.

The head office of N.Z. Oil Concessions is in Christchurch, the directors representing interests being Mr. R. E. Turner, geologist, Los Angeles, and now of Palmerston North; Messrs J. W. Ward and F. C. N. Anderson, of Wellington; and for the New Zealand shareholders, Messrs D. S. Thompson and E. E. Lewer, Christchurch.

The Prime Minister (Mr. P. A. Hanson), in a speech said: "If democracy has failed where conditions are unsuitable it does not follow that it must yield where it has become the natural expression of the people's life, as in Sweden."

"There is no need for Sweden to copy foreign models. Our internal affairs do not require a new orientation even if there is room for certain improvements in our democratic methods."

Mr. King's statement was made after the Opposition Leader (Mr. Hanson) drew his attention to Mr. Houde's speech, in which he declared himself against national registration which he described as a form of conscription which the Government had pledged itself not to introduce.

Mr. King's speech was printed in an early edition of a Montreal newspaper and later was withdrawn at the request of the censor.

The Conservative leader in the Senate (Mr. Arthur Meighan) alleged that control and propaganda had resulted in Canada being "blacked out" by not knowing conditions. He said that the failure to table the regulations under the National Mobilisation Act before the prorogation of Parliament was "autocracy unparalleled in the history of any democratic country."

SPAIN'S DEBT TO ITALY FOR WAR IMPORTS

Redemption Will Take Quarter Century

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 1.30 p.m.)

It is officially stated that Spain owes Italy £55,500,000 for civil war imports. Redemption will take a quarter of a century, beginning in 1942.

ISOLATED AREAS BOMBED

Three Enemy Fighters Shot Down

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 6, 1.30 a.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 5.

The Air Ministry states that three enemy fighters were shot down near the south-east coast this morning. One of our fighters is missing.

It is officially stated that enemy 'planes dropped high-explosive and incendiary bombs on isolated districts in the Midlands and the east of England. There was one fatality.

A bomb dropped on a north-eastern village blocked the road and uprooted telephone posts. Incendiary bombs damaged crops in the Midlands and the south-east of England.

Italian Tactics At Sea

PLANES AND MINES

Former Used Against Warships

A COSTLY PROCESS

(British Official Wireless.)
(Received August 5, 1 p.m.)

RUGBY, Aug. 4.

Authoritative naval circles in Cairo, according to reports from Cairo, agree that little success is being achieved by Italy's effort to shake Britain's command of the Mediterranean by the use of swarms of first-line aeroplanes, numerous submarines, and mines.

The Italians are employing different tactics for merchant shipping and warships. Most of the attacks against convoys have been carried out by submarines, while warships have been attacked from the air, often by as many as 100 machines flying in arrow-head formation.

Apparently, while the Italians think that it is cheaper and more effective to use underwater torpedoing against merchant shipping, the disablement or destruction of British capital ships—which the Italians have failed up to now to accomplish, except on paper—justifies the expenditure of many salvos of bombs and even torpedoes.

The first convoy which left Malta with internees reached Alexandria in four days, during which those in one ship stated that not a single Italian surface vessel was sighted, although several submarines were engaged. These disappeared when destroyers dropped depth charges. The only aeroplanes sighted during the voyage were British.

Democracy Still Alive In Sweden

NATURAL EXPRESSION OF THE NATION

Foreign Models Not Necessary

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 10.45 p.m.)

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 5.

The Prime Minister (Mr. P. A. Hanson), in a speech said: "If democracy has failed where conditions are unsuitable it does not follow that it must yield where it has become the natural expression of the people's life, as in Sweden."

"There is no need for Sweden to copy foreign models. Our internal affairs do not require a new orientation even if there is room for certain improvements in our democratic methods."

Cardinal Hinsley concluded: "I declare that for me neutrality of heart is impossible. This struggle, as I see it, is a great conflict between light and darkness. And when I say that this war is in the deepest significance to the defence of Christian civilisation, I do not mean that we desire the preservation of the existing order. There is much that calls for radical improvement in actual conditions, social, economic and political, of this country and Europe."

"We are who we are, and confidently in this struggle to secure a renewal—a reformation—which will oblige us all to apply in every sphere of life the principles of sound philosophy."

Cape Finisterre Sinks After Being Hit

(United Press Association—Copyright.)
(Received August 5, 12.45 p.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 4.

Two British trawlers have arrived at a British port after shooting down a German bomber in the Channel. A Dornier unsuccessfully bombed and machine-gunned the trawlers, one of which brought down the raider. A speedboat picked up a dead member of the German crew.

The Admiralty announced today that his Majesty's trawler Cape Finisterre was lost on Friday after an attack by four enemy aircraft, one of which was shot down. The others severely damaged the Cape Finisterre, which subsequently sank.

A message from Cadix (Spain) says that two British ships are proceeding to Gibraltar with 335 survivors from a British vessel torpedoed in the Atlantic.

IN DEFENCE OF PATRIOTISM

CARDINAL HINSLEY'S BROADCAST

WAR AGAINST EVIL

Neutrality Of Heart Is Impossible

(British Official Wireless.)
(Received August 5, 12 noon)

RUGBY, Aug. 4.

"Britain stands now for the liberty of all nations, great or small, powerful or weak," said Cardinal Hinsley, (Archbishop of Westminster), in a broadcast speech over the networks of the National Broadcasting Company to-night.

"Without in any way introducing politics, I may be allowed to express admiration for the pronouncement of President Roosevelt, who has shown himself a fearless Christian statesman worthily discharging his duties as the head of the great North American Commonwealth," Cardinal Hinsley said.

Patriotism a Virtue
"Now I want to say a word in defence of my country. I believe in patriotism. My faith teaches that patriotism is part of the virtue of charity, for charity requires that we should love all men in God according to our kinship with them. I can truly say, however, that in this island we are all united in our determination to live or die together, whatever may assail us."

"Some writers dwell on the inequities of England in ages past, and on her aggressions and those conquests. Quite right—England is not immaculate, and neither are all those who malign her. But, worthy or unworthy, she is on the side of truth and justice in this conflict."

"I am persuaded that our rulers did all in their power to preserve peace at Munich and elsewhere by an agreed settlement of past wrongs. They received promises and pledges. The outstanding grievance was to be remedied by arbitration. Promises and pledges were made apparently only to be broken. I maintain that they were broken in bad faith, and looking back on the closing decades of last century, I remember that she entered into international conventions which were signed by all Powers, including Germany."

Contracts Unbroken
"I defy anyone to prove that Britain has renounced or those contracts as faithfully as any of the high contracting Powers."

"She stands now, for the life and liberty of all nations, great or small, powerful or weak, for the preservation of the existing order. There is much that calls for radical improvement in actual conditions, social, economic and political, of this country and Europe."

"We are who we are, and confidently in this struggle to secure a renewal—a reformation—which will oblige us all to apply in every sphere of life the principles of sound philosophy."

WAIROA.
"This is rather a serious offence,
and people cannot be expected to

the Bench in convicting Moana Beattie, labourer, aged 21 years,
who appeared before Messrs V. E.
Winter and J. Corkill, J.P.'s, at the Wairoa Police Court on Monday, charged with the theft of a leather overcoat, valued at £4 10s, the property of John Hikawera Mitchell.
The defendant pleaded guilty and was given one month's imprisonment.

Sergeant L. T. Moore stated that on June 19 a dance was held at the Carroll Hall. Mr Mitchell's car was parked in the grounds during the dance. Next morning it was discovered that a leather coat was missing from the car and the police were informed. Later the defendant was seen wearing a leather coat similar to the one stolen. The police visited the defendant's house and took possession of a coat which has been identified as the one taken from the car. On being questioned later, the defendant admitted having taken the coat.
The defendant told the Bench that he took the coat because he had done some work for Mr Mitchell and could not get his money.

FIRMER VALUES
AT FEILDING
HARDENING MARKET
FOR SHEEP
FRIDAY'S SALE
Keen Demand In Cattle Section

A large yarding of store sheep, comprising mainly wether and ewe hoggets, with a fair sprinkling of breeding ewes of all ages, came forward at the Feilding stock sale on Friday. Fat sheep were also yarded in large numbers, some excellent quality ewes and wethers coming to hand, and for these a very strong market was in evidence, it being very apparent that fat sheep of any class are going to be very difficult to get in the near future. The market hardened at least 2/ to 2/6 per head for any prime fat ewes and wethers.
The sale from the outset for both store and fat sheep was particularly keen, Waikato and Taranaki purchasing power being strongly in evidence for any lines of wether and ewe hoggets submitted. Values in these sheep sections hardened to the extent of 1/6 to 2/ per head.
Any sound, reliable breeding ewes on offer also met with a particularly keen demand at values well up on last week's rates.

Keen Demand
In the station cattle section several pens of empty P.A. cows and weaner P. A. steers and heifers off high country, not carrying very much condition, also met with a very keen demand, values being well up on those ruling last week. An average yarding of both dairy cows and heifers came to hand, quality sorts meeting with spirited competition from the outset. It is considered evident from the yardings coming forward in the dairy sections this year, when compared with other seasons, that there is going to be a definite shortage of dairy stock for farmers' requirements in the ensuing year.

Fat cattle were yarded in larger numbers than usual, some splendid quality bullocks and cows coming forward. These met with a highly satisfactory sale at values on a higher level than has been the case
at Feilding this winter, prime ox-beef realising up to £2 per 100lb for station-bred prime quality sorts. On the other hand, cows of the dairy met with an easier sale than was the case at the previous sale.
The usual offering of potter and store cows met with a ready sale at values well up on the previous week's. Yearling Jersey heifers

Sixtieth Jubilee
Celebrated
WOODVILLE LODGE
Oddfellows Gather At
Woodville
JEWEL PRESENTED

"Daily Mail" Special Service.
WAIKAWA.
Paying their official visit to Woodville, the officers of the Hawke's Bay District, Manchester Unity Oddfellows, on Saturday evening attended the sixtieth jubilee celebrations of the Loyal Woodville Lodge.
The gathering was largely attended by members of the lodge, while visitors were also present from the Loyal Maingaitanoka (Pahiatua),
Abbotsford (Waipawa), Tavistock
(Waipukurau) and Dannevirke lodges. The district was represented by the following: D.G.M. Bro. A.
H. Robinson, D.D.G.M. Bro. E. C.
Kingston, D.S. Bro. G. C. Laws,
I.P.D.G.M. Bro. J. Wharmby and
Past Grand Master Bro. H. S.
Quigley.

During the evening the District
Grand Master, on behalf of the Loyal Woodville Lodge, presented a jewel to Bro. T. Crosse, one of the oldest members of the lodge, as a token of appreciation of his 50 years of active service to the lodge. The Deputy Grand Master formally handed over to the lodge a set of handsome new chairs which had been procured to mark the occasion of the jubilee, and the district secretary presented to past officers emblems of the order which had been earned by them as a result of their interest in the activities of the lodge.

Addresses Given
Addresses were also given by the district officers, in the course of which matters of recent interest to lodge members were briefly dealt with, and congratulations to the Loyal Woodville Lodge tendered on their 60 years of successful operations. Reference was also made to the passing of the grand secretary,
Bro. A. G. Shrimpton, and a vote of condolence was passed.
A delightful supper was served by the ladies of the Woodville Lodge,
and the remainder of the evening
was given over to dancing and a programme of varied items.
In the early part of the evening
the district officers paid a visit to the juvenile branch of the Woodville
Lodge and watched the members at their work. A most inspiring address on the value of their membership was given by the district grand master.

TRAMPING CLUB
AT WAIKAWA
VISIT TO "SHUT EYE"
SHACK
ANNUAL MEETING
Officers Elected For Year
"Daily Mail" Special Service.
WAIKAWA.
Holding the first outing of the season, the Waikawa Tramping Club, which held its inaugural meeting at
"Shut Eye" Shack in the Ruahine
Ranges behind Wakarara just over twelve months ago, again visited the shack during the week-end,
when opportunity was taken of holding the first annual meeting of the club in the surroundings where the organisation first came into being.
Forty-one members took part, and a most enjoyable time was spent.
For many the outing proved to be quite an experience for shortly after lunch snow began to fall and continued until the party was well on the way with the return journey.
The climb occupied some two and a half hours, the trip back taking only about an hour and a half.
At the annual meeting the election of officers resulted as follows: President Mr. J. Leckie; secretary, Mr.
Frank Adeane; committee, Miss
Hall and Messrs T. Turner and W. M.
Murray.

It was decided to continue the operations of the club and to arrange for trips nearer to Waikawa.
Opportunity was taken by Mr. W.
M. Murray, on behalf of the members, to present Lieut. M. Sealy, who is now home from camp on leave, a fountain pen and prodding pencil,
in appreciation of his assistance.

THE EASTERN WAR FRONT.—This map shows the possessions of the Great Powers in East China and in the Asiatic section of the Pacific Ocean. The enormous expansion of Japan occurred in the following movements: 1895, Formosa with the small islands; 1903, Port Arthur; 1910, Korea; 1920 the former German islands northward to New Guinea; 1932, Manchukuo; 1933, Jehol. The drift of the southern drive is apparent from the map.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR REPORTED

WAIROA A. AND P. SOCIETY

SUCCESSFUL SHOW

New Rail Car Service Helps

"Daily Mail" Special Service. WAIROA.

The annual report of the Wairoa A. and P. Society's president (Mr A. T. Carroll), which is to be presented at the annual general meeting to be held on Thursday, August 8, states:

The society's "Centennial" annual show was held on Wednesday, January 31, during Carnival Week, under ideal weather conditions, and compared with the 1939 fixture, was a marked improvement. The produce and industrial section was the best for many years. Another pleasing feature was the exhibits of farm machinery and motor-cars. The show was an outstanding success. The entries received being a record. Although the net profit is not up to the previous year, the result must be considered highly satisfactory. Comparing the figures with last year, receipts totalled £1256/3/7, against £1274/1/6, and expenditure £1143/15/9, compared with £1118 8/10, leaving a net balance of £112 7/10, against £115/12/8.

Fat Lamb Competition

The district fat lamb competition was well patronised, the number of entries being up to previous years, and it is encouraging to see the farmers taking such an interest. To stimulate competition the New Zealand Meat Processors' Board donated £10 towards the prize fund to be allocated as the committee thought

GREAT ADVENTURE DRAMA

"Stanley And Livingstone"
Returns

"Find Livingstone!"
Exactly 70 years ago this October 16, James Gordon Bennett barked these words at his crack reporter, Henry M. Stanley.

It was apparently the most hopeless assignment in all journalism. No one but a mad man would brave the terrors of unknown Africa to hunt for a missionary-explorer from whom no word had come in two years. How Stanley found Livingstone, how the world called the newspaperman "the most colossal liar of his age," and how he later became the greatest hero of his era, is the story of "Stanley and Livingstone." It opens a return season to-day at the State Theatre, Hastings.

Spencer Tracy, twice an Academy Award winner, portrays Stanley. Nancy Kelly, who rose into the front ranks of Movietown with her role in "Jesse James," and Richard Greene, who in a year's time has become one of Hollywood's top romantic stars, are starred with Tracy. Another two-time Award winner, Walter Brennan, heads the outstanding cast. The picture includes Charles Coburn, Sir Cedric Hardwicke (as Livingstone), Henry Hull and Henry Travers.

In 1887 Mrs Martin Johnson, the famous explorer, led an expedition of 27 Hollywood players and technicians into the wild Tanganyika country of Africa. They began at Bagamoyo, on the coast opposite the island of Zanzibar, and retraced for the picture Stanley's historic nine-months' trek in 1871. They spent five months in reaching Ujiji, village where Stanley found Livingstone, filming the country, which has changed little since it first witnessed one of the most heroic adventures known to man.

Henry King, who directed "In Old Chicago," "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and "Jesse James," was assigned the megaphone.

GAY COMEDY AND A TENSE DRAMA

"Let's Be Famous" And "Heroes In Blue"

"Let's Be Famous," the sparkling comedy romance which is now at the Cosy, Hastings, gives audiences an opportunity of seeing once more those two delightful comedians, Jimmy O'Dea and Sonnie Hale, added to whom its vivacious Betty Driver, who sings her way merrily through the picture to the tune of attractive new numbers by Noel Gay, popular composer of "The Lambeth Walk."

The story concerns Jimmy Houlihan, an Irish grocer and local prize-winning singer who thinks his chance for fame has come when he is invited by the B.B.C. to broadcast. His hopes are dashed when he finds he is not required to sing but to take part in a spelling bee and he turns the broadcast into chaos. Finch, a talent scout of a radio advertising programme, having failed to put Betty Finbright, winner of a singing contest under contract, signs up Jimmy on the strength of his wonderful press cuttings. These, however, have been written by Jimmy himself, and so his efforts to get "on the air" are destined to continue.

Containing all of the elements which make excellent screen fare, "Heroes In Blue" is the second feature. A well rounded and well acted picture includes Dick Purcell, Charles Quigley, Bernadene Hayes and others. They take advantage of every line and situation in presenting sincere characterisations. Two potent cast members, a police officer and the other with criminal tendencies. The weak brother meets trouble when he absconds with several thousand dollars given him by a gang leader to buy a horse. When the horse wins the brother is headed for serious trouble at the hands of the mob leader. There results plenty of excitement when the officer discovers the complications.

REGENT

GAY "HONEYMOON IN BALI"

Madeleine Carroll And Fred MacMurray

A love-struck young woman department store executive chasing a carefree blade to Bali, an ardent opera singer trying to convince her that she should marry him, a window washer telling her she should come out of her shell of smugness and claim the man she loves, are just a few of the romances in the "discovery" of Paramount's "Honeymoon in Bali," which is now at the Regent Theatre, Hastings, with Fred MacMurray, Madeleine Carroll and Allan Jones co-starring.

The story centres on Fred, a young executive, Fred as the adventuresome one, while Jones is seen as the opera singer.

In the development of events, Madeleine meets Fred, flees to Nassau to avoid him, and finally winds up chasing him to Bali to tell him that she loves him. Also seen in important roles are Helen Broderick, Osa Massen, Carolyn Lee, child "discovery" of Paramount's Edward H. Griffith directed the picture from a screenplay by Virginia Van Upp, author of the script for "Cafe Society," first MacMurray-Carroll co-starring.

Carolyn Lee is just about the youngest trouper to work before the cameras since the days of Baby LeRoy. Carolyn proved that she's a real trouper by working on twenty-two of the forty-eight days required to film the picture. "Honeymoon in Bali" casts her as a waif who is left on Fred MacMurray's hands by an old friend, and who is used as ammunition by Fred in his terrified campaign to make Madeleine Carroll admit that even career women are women.

Among striking settings in the picture are places resembling two New York night spots, a Balinese place and a restaurant which might be located in Nassau. The settings serve as backgrounds for the romantic pursuit of Miss Carroll by MacMurray and vice versa.

Also seen in important roles are Helen Broderick, Osa Massen, Carolyn Lee, child "discovery" of Paramount's Edward H. Griffith directed the picture from a screenplay by Virginia Van Upp, author of the script for "Cafe Society," first MacMurray-Carroll co-starring.

Carolyn Lee is just about the youngest trouper to work before the cameras since the days of Baby LeRoy. Carolyn proved that she's a real trouper by working on twenty-two of the forty-eight days required to film the picture. "Honeymoon in Bali" casts her as a waif who is left on Fred MacMurray's hands by an old friend, and who is used as ammunition by Fred in his terrified campaign to make Madeleine Carroll admit that even career women are women.

Among striking settings in the picture are places resembling two New York night spots, a Balinese place and a restaurant which might be located in Nassau. The settings serve as backgrounds for the romantic pursuit of Miss Carroll by MacMurray and vice versa.

Municipal ZANE GREY WESTERN "THUNDER TRAIL"

With "Big Broadcast," Gay Musical

From the gifted pen of Zane Grey comes a Western picture that could scarcely be topped for drama and thrilling action! It's "Thunder Trail," which is now showing at the Municipal Theatre, Hastings.

The story concerns two boys whose father is killed in a raid on a wagon train in the western plains. The two lads are separated in the massacre, and each grows up believing the other is dead. Years later they meet, discover their relationship, and set out together to bring the murderer of their father to justice. Charles Barton directed "Thunder Trail," which includes Gilbert Roland, Charles Bickford, Marsha Hunt, James Craig, J. Carroll Nash, Barlowe Borland and Monte Blue in the cast.

Loaded with laughs and studded with songs, "The Big Broadcast," starring W. C. Fields, is the second feature. It presents the hilarious story of what happens on a big ocean liner, out after the transatlantic record, when the world's greatest troublemaker and his jinxed daughter come aboard. Assisting Fields in the laugh riot that ensues are Dorothy Lamour, Shirley Ross, Ben Blue, Bob Hope, Lynne Overman, Rufe Davis, Leif Erikson and Grace Bradley.

EXTENDED SEASON ARRANGED

"Everything Happens At Night"

In response to many requests the Management of the State Theatre, Napier, have decided to extend the season of the Sonja Henie film, "Everything Happens at Night," which will now be screened finally at two sessions to-day.

It's even a more remarkable Sonja Henie if that were possible, for in addition to her amazing artistry and genius on skates and skis, the famous blonde star displays a new dramatic talent in a punch-packed story that makes her tops among the actresses of the screen.

With the support of two leading men, Ray Milland and Robert Cummings, Sonja gives a picture that rates first in entertainment among any of the season has thus far presented. Darryl F. Zanuck selected Irving Cummings to direct and his deft touches add to the enjoyment of this outstanding production.

Major Y. Moscovitch, Leonid Kinisky, Alan Dinehart and Fritz Feld are included in the cast. The story has the breathtaking Swiss Alps as a locale, with Sonja navigating the slippery slopes of her career, and extinguishing the light of freedom in Europe, Sonja aids her father in revealing to the world the sensational inside story of the new international intrigue.

These stories, because of their style and content, lead news editors to believe they can be the only of Dr. Hugo Norden, world-famous peace leader supposedly assassinated a year before in Warsaw. To Switzerland, then, come two young reporters—Ray Milland from London and Robert Cummings from the Paris office of a New York paper—to seek out the author of the world-rousing revelations.

Regent

"DISPUTED PASSAGE"
ROMANTIC DRAMA

Dorothy Lamour And Akim Tamiroff

Dorothy Lamour, Akim Tamiroff, and John Howard share top dramatic honours in "Disputed Passage," an exciting story about the problems of medical men, which is now showing at the Regent Theatre, Napier.

Based on Lloyd C. Douglas's best-selling novel, it asks the dramatic question: will marriage interfere with the career of a promising young surgeon? To which Lloyd C. Douglas answers that there is a power higher than anything which is learned in the laboratory! In her first genuinely dramatic role, Miss Lamour plays a young American brought up in China who comes to America to make her home.

Her vital love for Howard, who plays the brilliant young surgeon, runs afoul of Akim Tamiroff, a world-famous neurological surgeon, who believes in the stern dedication of a physician's life to science. This trenchant attitude provides the focal point upon which the story revolves when Tamiroff persuades Miss Lamour that her projected marriage to Howard will bring his career to defeat.

Other members of the supporting cast who contribute towards making "Disputed Passage" the new season's outstanding medical film are William Collier, sen. Gordon Jones, Keye Luke and Paramount's budding starlet, Judith Barrett.

A great supporting programme includes a Grantland Rice sportlight, "Agua Rhythm," dealing with swimming; Pathe Pictorial Musical Headliner, and the latest overseas news reels.

CHAMBERLAIN TROPHY

Men's And Women's Matches

RESULTS OF PLAY

"Daily Mail" Special Service. WAIROA.

A successful tournament was held on the Wairoa links over the week-end in aid of Red Cross funds. Although the weather conditions were not the best, the links were in good order and some keenly contested games were played.

On Saturday afternoon the qualifying round was played, the Chamberlain trophy event being held in conjunction. The best cards handed in were as follows:—

R. Bauld sen. 81, 16-65; L. W. Grieve 82, 14-68; J. W. Benson 76, 7-69; T. H. Crawford 77, 6-71; F. H. Jones 79, 8-71; R. Bauld jun. 88, 16-72; G. M. Mowatt 78, 6-72; R. C. Goldstone 81, 9-72; A. Tourney Finals.

The competitors in the tournament were drawn to play in five flights of eight each. The following is the result of the finals in each case:—

In the final of A group A. Gibbs defeated A. E. Smith in a very evenly contested game, the scratch player being drawn to play.

In the final of B group the result was fought out by two foundation members of the club, H. Crichton, the club president, defeating R. M. Mowatt after a hard tussle.

In the final of C group, N. Hincksman defeated H. Cook, another good game resulting.

In D group T. Moore proved to be right on his game and defeated D. Glengarry.

In the final of the last flight, group E, J. Scott defeated J. Walker after a good game.

In a four-ball bogey competition held at the latter end of the tournament, J. W. Benson and F. H. Jones were the winners, with a score of 4 up.

The various trophies were then presented by Mr C. R. Sainsbury, club captain, who expressed the club's appreciation at the attendance of visitors from Waikare and Tuai, Mr S. Evans, of Waikare, suitably responding.

Mayfair JONES FAMILY'S "TRIP TO PARIS"

Irish Favourites In "Father O'Flynn"

The Jones Family, one of Hollywood's happiest and most human contributions to film entertainment, appear in a grand comedy, "A Trip to Paris," which is now showing twice daily at the Mayfair Theatre, Napier.

It is the vacation the family dreams about and the picture every family will love to see, while Paris, Jones get all mixed up with Paris, its people, night life and crooks. In the cast are Jed Prouty, Shirley Dean, Russell Gleason, Ken Howell, George Ernest and Florence Roberts.

The second big attraction is a charming story of "Old Ireland," "Father O'Flynn," starring Tom Burke, Jean Adrienne, Robert Chisholm, Revnell and West, Stanley Kirby and Denton. Interspersed with such popular old favourites as "Father O'Flynn," "Macushla," "Ave Maria," "Lassie o' Lancashire" and many other popular numbers, this picture is brimful of delightful airs.

WOMEN'S MATCHES.

Ideal weather and much improved playing conditions favoured members in the first round of the championships, and some close finishes resulted. This season there are only six contenders in the A grade section; the only match played in the first round was between Mrs McKay and Miss Symonds, and resulted in a win for Mrs McKay.

Mrs Frude defaulted to Miss Chase.

This week, in the semi-final, Miss Chase plays Mrs Smith and Mrs McKay plays Mrs Goldstone.

B Grade: Mrs McCrea defeated Mrs Svenson. Mrs Ryan defeated Miss McPherson. Miss Harvey defeated Mrs G. O. K. Sainsbury. Mrs Pidduck won by default from Miss Chittick. Miss O'Donnell defeated Mrs Watson. Mrs Glengarry defeated Mrs R. Mowatt. Miss N. Nolan defeated Mrs Summerfield. Mrs Crichton defeated Miss Trafford.

C Grade: Results of C grade matches have not all come to hand and will be reported next week.

Matches in the second round must be completed this week and those put out in the first round of A and B grades will compete for the Hurumua Cup. The draw will be posted in the club house on Wednesday.

Hill Trophy.

Mrs Glengarry is having a remarkable number of wins in her sixth last week when she defeated Mrs Frude. She is to meet a strong challenge this week from Mrs McCrea and the result will be awaited with interest.

A committee meeting will be held at eight o'clock to-night at Mrs Glengarry's.

The Railways And Public Safety

Keen Sense of Responsibility

The splendid record of safety achieved by the New Zealand Railways is due to constant observance of the principle of "Safety First."

Before a passenger enters a train every possible precaution has been taken to avoid mishap. Locomotive, Traffic and Workshop Staffs, Gangers, Surfacemen, Bridge-inspectors and Train Examiners have carefully done their part in the safety campaign, and when the journey begins other experts co-operate in the safeguarding service. The Driver, the Fireman, the Guard, the Train-controller and the Signaller are always alert on behalf of passengers. From the human, material and mechanical viewpoints, the railway vigilance is maintained efficiently, day and night.

THE VALUE OF SIXTH SENSE

Aiding The Blind

REMARKABLE CASE RECALLED

Doctors Mystified

Most of us have only five senses. Margaret McAvoy has a sixth sense which took the place of sight when she went blind.

Few things in the story of human achievement are more curious than Margaret's exceptional possession. It mystified all doctors who tried to fathom it, and she died leaving them no wiser than she had been at first.

A committee meeting will be held at 20. She had been a normal child and there was nothing remarkable about her till some time after she went blind at 15 or 16. Her amazing powers were discovered quite by accident, when one day her father gave her a Bible and she began reading as if she could see. "Can you see?" they asked her, hoping that in some strange way her sight had suddenly returned. But she shook her head. She was as blind as ever.

Then how did she read? No one knows, and perhaps no one ever will know. Passing her fingers over the page she picked out 60 words a minute. When a piece of paper on which faint red and blue lines were ruled was given her, she indicated the red lines without hesitation. When a frame in which seven pieces of coloured glass had been fitted was handed to her, this blind girl passed her fingers over them, and named every colour correctly.

"Which of these two liquids is water and which spirits of wine?" she was asked. She at once indicated which was which, saying that water felt colder than the spirits of wine. Standing before a window she saw everyone who passed by, and correctly named the colour of their clothes, though her eyes were tightly bandaged. When she was asked to look at a page of print through a magnifying glass, she touched the glass with her fingers and smilingly declared that the letters felt bigger. She could read small print with ease if the glass was at hand. If she was made to turn away from a piece of furniture, she would instantly describe its shape and use by merely pointing her hands at it.

Uncanny as all this must appear, it is touched for by medical men of unimpeachable character. How she distinguished shapes, and much more, how she could tell one colour from another, we cannot say. All we know is that she did it.

HOME SERVICE ADVISERS
New Careers For Women
Who are Interested
In Cookery

Cookery has rightly been raised within recent years to the status of a career. This is due largely to the revival of interest in first-class English cookery and the consequent training of girls belonging to all classes of life in the household arts, says an English writer.

Today the debutante who decides to take up cooking as a career will find many interesting and out of the ordinary branches open to her. She may become a dietitian, an expert taking charge of a diet kitchen in a hospital, school, nursing home or institution and working out anything from 50 to 100 different diets a day.

Diet Experts

Training for this work means a two years' social science course or a university degree in chemistry and physiology, followed by a dietetic course taking a year. The latter includes six weeks in a hospital kitchen and six months in a hospital diet kitchen.

It is interesting that woman dietitians are now being employed not only in hospitals, but also by local authorities to supervise and plan meals for school children. Boys' schools employ them to supervise the catering of boarding houses. In hospitals and nursing homes the woman dietitian goes round the wards to see how the patients were liking the diets, she arranges diets for outpatients and often lectures to the nurses on hospital kitchen work generally. Salaries vary from £200-£350 a year, non-resident.

Good Opportunities

The girl who has the human touch, plenty of courage and common sense, as well as a taste for cookery, will like the new career of Home Service Adviser. Such an adviser is employed by the public utility companies to find out how hostesses and their staff are using modern electric and gas devices for cooking, heating and washing. The giving of lectures and demonstrations in an up-to-the-moment kitchen, the trying-out of recipes and new cookery apparatus before it is put on the market, talks to women at welfare centres, visits by appointment to replan kitchens; all this is part of the work, as well as the judging of cookery competitions. Training should take a year at domestic science school and voice production classes should be taken concurrently. Salaries rise to £500 a year.

Domestic Science

Educational cookery is a very worthwhile branch of this career for the ambitious girl who is willing to take a two or three years' course at a domestic science college and to acquire a University Teacher's Certificate. Under educational officers, these cooks teach cookery, plan school meals and rise to being inspectors at salaries of £400 and over. With the increased interest in cookery as an essential part of the sub-debutante's education, there are few schools where an expert cook is not employed, and domestic science finishing schools need the type of cookery teacher who can also explain to them how to plan their household and manage their staff.

BRITISH LEGION OLD TIME DANCE

Jolly Evening Held in Hastings

The British Legion weekly old-time dance was held on Saturday night with a hall well filled with dancers, among whom were several soldiers in uniform who were the guests of the British Legion.

Excellent music was provided by the McKay Orchestra and extras were played by Mr Britten (melodion). Musical items and dance music were also given by Mr C. Summers (piano/accordion) and Mr J. Crompt (steel guitar). All the items were much appreciated and received loud applause. Legionnaire J. McKie was a popular and efficient M.C.

Competition results were as follows—Monte Carlo No. 1, Miss A. Nicholls and Mr Balford; Monte Carlo No. 2, Miss Berry and Mr T. Lawrence; final competition, Mr I. Bainbridge 1, Mrs McDonald 2.

ENGAGEMENT

The engagement is announced of Evelyn, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs W. E. Godber, of Hastings, and John, younger son of Mr and Mrs J. A. Dixon, of Waipukurau.

To keep the bath clean—fill a small muslin bag with oatmeal. Every time the bath is used drop the oatmeal bag in the water. Squeeze it several times. This softens the water and prevents that soapy "high-tide" mark, usually caused by the hardness of the water.

When tea is spilled on a cloth place the marked part under the cold-water tap as soon as possible. The stain will come out easily, and the cloth can be ironed and used again.

Banish The Bogey Of Extra Winter Weight

Winter-time means heavier foods and all they can do towards ruining trim waists and slim hips. Now's the time to exercise. Not violent reducing "jerks" to make you the envy of your Garbo-minded friends, but exercises which will eliminate the fear of extra winter pounds.

You tend to become lazy in the cold weather—it's too much effort to drag yourself from the fireside to trot around the block a few times—and there's not much sunshine before breakfast for out-of-doors exercises.

Remember to keep your head steady—do not bend your arms—and breathe to the very bottom of your lungs. Repeat 10 times.

Another exercise for limbering up is: Hands on hips, raise each knee alternately. Repeat 40 times quickly as if running on the spot.

Always finish with a quick exercise like this. Another is to skip with an imaginary skipping rope. Breathe deeply and frequently.

A Reducing Diet

It will do you good to follow this diet a week or so, but less than you are very much overweight perseverance with exercises is preferable to dieting.

Monday: On rising, a glass of cold water, followed by orange juice. Then throughout the day consume 5ozs. tomato juice and orange juice alternately every two hours. This is repeated every day in the week.

Tuesday: For the evening meal two grilled lamb chops, celery hearts and grated carrots.

Wednesday: For the evening meal one poached egg on spinach, vinegar to suit taste, sliced tomatoes, 2lb dates.

Thursday: For the evening meal 2lb steak, grilled or broiled, cooked carrots, peas.

Friday: For the evening meal, cottage cheese, asparagus tips, celery hearts, glass of skimmed milk.

Saturday: For the evening meal, fried liver, spinach, sliced tomatoes, figs.

Sunday: For the evening meal, two grilled lamb chops, grated carrots, lettuce, asparagus tips, ice cream.

Avoid tea, coffee, intoxicating beverages, fats or pastries and have lots of exercise.

Determination Needed

But before you start on this morning round develop your determination complex. You'll need it. There's no benefit in doing a few casual exercises when you think of it. You must persevere regularly EVERY morning.

Try and do them in the open air—warm sweater and woolly shorts these cold mornings.

You can actually feel the thighs being massaged with this exercise. It will smooth away those bulges which are so unsightly and hard to get rid of—you know, above the knee.

With all this talk of "uplift" and emphasised bust-line you'll want to be sure you can take it.

Chest Exercises

Stand to attention—head up, chin in, chest out, waist in, arms straight at sides. Put your heels together, feet at an angle of 45 degrees. Slowly raise arms upwards and sideways, turning the palm upward when it reaches shoulder level, until your palms meet over your head.

Head Must be Steady

Breathe in deeply and slowly as you raise your arms, pause, then slowly lower arms and breathe out.

A glass casserole presents the most attractive appearance for the table, but an earthenware one is thicker and stronger. Fill a new casserole with cold water before using for the first time. Put the lid on and place in a moderate oven for one hour and then take out and allow the water to remain in the casserole until cold. Do not pour cold water into a hot casserole. If you are cooking over a gas jet cover the flame with an asbestos mat before placing the casserole over it.

HOLLYWOOD HAS A NEW PARLOUR GAME

Hollywood has discovered a new parlour game to stop parties from becoming too boring. This is an inexpensive game and a lot of fun.

Say, for instance, there are eleven people at the party. You divide them into two teams of five, with the odd person acting as referee. The teams then retire to separate rooms, and the referee writes out five quotations or famous sayings, song titles, movie titles, or proverbs. He then calls to him the captain of each team who simultaneously reads the first slip he's written. Armed with pencil and paper, each captain rushes back to his team and draws, as best he or she can, the quotation. If, for instance, the referee's first slip reads, "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain," you'd draw a moon and try to show it rising over a mountain. The team must solve the quotation from the drawing. The captain must not give any hints outside his drawing. Once the first question is solved, player No. 2 goes out and reads the next question and comes back to interpret it to the rest of the team, and then the rest get their chance to show how much artist is in them. The game is decided when either team completes deciphering the five quotations. It is a lot of fun, guaranteed to liven up the dulllest party, and helps strangers to get together.

And the same gentle oxygen-charged suds give you gayer colours, fleecier woollies...
How husband's remarks changed family washday
1. "DON'T RUB YOUR CLOTHES—There's no need only you'll use Persil!" advised Mrs. Ted when Henry's wife mentioned the incident. "Persil gets clothes far whiter." And she explained how she used this grand, easy method for ALL her clothes.
2. THE FIRST TRIAL of Persil proved it! Glistening whites. Coloureds as sweet as cherry blossom. Woollies that came up warm and fleecy. Yet not a penny more did it cost!
3. "THANK YOU DARLING for putting me on to the easiest wash day ever—you've saved me hours of work!" Henry could hardly believe his wife had done a big wash—he seemed so gay and lively.
You must have noticed it among your friends—so many now use Persil. For your whites, for coloureds, for flimsy fabrics—there's nothing safer, nothing more thorough. That gentle oxygen action coaxes out every speck of dirt—and wastes no time about it. Millions of oxygen bubbles, like fairy hands, surge suds through your wash till every stitch is sweet and clean. Just try it! With your heavy sheets or the knitted frock that's the apple of your eye—Persil will give you a prouder, loylier wash.

What Is More Tempting In Cold Weather Than Steaming Hot Soup?

FAMILY PEA SOUP

Take some good stock and place in a saucepan with 2 cupfuls of split pea lentils, one chopped carrot, one leek, one onion, and other vegetables desired. Simmer for about two hours and stir well before serving. The addition of half-a-dozen bacon bones when making the stock gives added flavour.

OXTAIL SOUP

Take an ox-tail, 1 slice ham, 1 carrot, 1 turnip, 2 small onions, 1 1/2 quarts water, 1 oz. butter, 1 leek, 1 head celery, pinch of herbs, 1 bay-leaf, 4 cloves, 12 peppercorns and salt.

Method: Cut the tail into pieces after washing well. Put it in a pot with the butter and sliced onion and shake now and again to prevent sticking. Next, add the sliced vegetables, herbs, peppercorns and 1 cup of the water. Stir occasionally over the fire for about 10 minutes, then add the rest of the cold water and the salt. Skim well while coming to the boil, then simmer very gently for three or four hours until the tail is tender. Take out the tail and strain the soup. Thicken with flour and beat well.

VEGETABLE SOUP

Take 1 pint of water in which vegetables have been cooked, 1 pint of milk, 2 onions thinly sliced, 2 potatoes sliced, a tiny pinch of herbs.

Method: Boil all together until the vegetables are soft and then rub through a sieve. Return to the saucepan and thicken slightly by adding a little flour mixed to a paste with milk. Boil up and season to taste. A grating of cheese and a little chopped parsley adds to the flavour.

BARLEY CREAM SOUP

Take 2 ozs pearl barley, 1 small carrot and onion, a stick of celery, 1 oz butter, 2 pints of stock, 1 egg, salt and pepper, 3 pint milk.

Method: Wash and blanch the barley by placing it in a saucepan, covering it with cold water and bringing it to the boil. Strain and rinse in cold water. Melt the butter and cook the vegetables in it for a few minutes, keeping the lid on the saucepan and shaking occasionally. Add the barley, stock, salt and pepper and bring to the boiling point, then simmer for two hours. Strain, add the egg and milk beaten together. Reheat slowly while stirring but do not boil.

Soup warms and nourishes and can be made as to form one of the most economical foods, the preparation of which needs little outlay of time or trouble.

There are two main classes of soups—those with a basis of meat or bone stock (the liquor in which raw meat, fresh meat bones, poultry, etc., are cooked) and those with a basis of vegetable stock (the liquor in which peas, carrots, or, in fact, any vegetable except cauliflower and cabbage have been cooked).

With many soups it is tempting to serve croutons, and these may be made by toasting slices of bread about 1/2 inch thick; remove the crusts and cut into dice. Fry in hot fat until golden brown.

VEAL BROTH

Take 2 lbs of knuckle of veal cut into pieces and simmer very gently in 2 quarts of water for two or three hours. Add 2 ozs. of rice or pearl barley, wash with pepper and salt and dust a little chopped parsley over.

CONSOMME JULIENNE

Take 1 quart clear stock, 1 carrot, 3 turnip, 1 onion, salt.

Method: Cut the vegetables into very thin match-like shreds equal in length. Cook in salted water until tender and then add to the hot stock.

RABBIT BROTH

Take 1 rabbit, 2 onions, 1oz. flour, 2ozs butter, seasoning.

A GOOD STOCK

Good stock is of great assistance in obtaining satisfactory results in soup making. If you have not odd scraps of meat and bones a good meat stock may be made up as follows: Take 2lbs shin meat cut small, cover with 4 pints of water, pepper and salt and boil thoroughly for four hours. Strain through colander and leave till cold, remove all fat and then simmer gently with various flavourings.

SCOTCH BROTH

Take 1lb neck of mutton, 3 pints stock, 1 teacupful barley, 1 large onion, 1 turnip, 2 or 3 sticks of celery, 1 large carrot, 1 teaspoonful chopped parsley, salt and pepper.

Hawke's Bay Daily Mail Your Own Morning Paper. TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1940. FRITZ DE-BLITZED

Can it be that the vaunted Nazi lightning war on Great Britain has been launched more than once and has failed? Are we to believe that the successive raids by Nazi bombers are, as we were told by German propagandists, just so many "armed reconnaissances"—just a few preliminary canterers before the big race starts? Reading carefully the news of the German volte face in regard to the necessity for the temporary postponement of the great attack, can we do anything but believe that the Nazi leaders are simply seeking to pull the wool over our eyes so that we may be lulled into a sense of false security and go to sleep on sentry-go?

On the psychological front the war is already won. In more than one sense the sea has once again proved to be the bulwark of the Homeland. It is easier for Fifth Column white-anting to make insidious headway over a continent, but the island home of the British people knows how to keep itself clear of such destructive pests. No amount of propagandist preparation will make Hitler's task easier in the Old Country. On the contrary, it will but serve to stiffen the backs of the people still more, so that his propagandist contributions will eventually be found on the wrong side of the ledger.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

"Shop" at Hastings

In the "Daily Mail" on Friday a paragraph appeared stating that the Women's Service Auxiliary Corps was holding a "shop" on that day to aid Red Cross funds. This was incorrect. The money collected was to be contributed to the Mayor's fund to purchase Christmas comforts for soldiers serving overseas.

Increased Oil Prices

Hawke's Bay motorists will pay more for their oil in the near future. An increase of 4d a gallon in the wholesale price of motor oils became effective in Hawke's Bay yesterday morning. Industrial oils advanced by 2d a gallon and the cost of grease was increased on-farthing a pound.

Inquest Opened

An inquest into the death of Miss Margaret Cunningham Laidlaw, whose death occurred at Napier on Sunday, was opened before the District Coroner, Mr J. Miller. After evidence of identification had been heard the inquiry was adjourned sine die. A post mortem examination was carried out yesterday.

Woman's Patriotic Effort

A crocheted afternoon tea cloth made and raffled by Mrs E. Birch, Hastings, resulted in £12 2/- being contributed to the Mayor's patriotic fund at Hastings. The raffle, which was drawn at the Council Chambers yesterday, was won by Miss Joan Birch, Putaruru, with ticket number 235. Mr G. A. Maddison expressed his thanks to Mrs Birch for what he termed her "splendid patriotic effort."

Station in Darkness

The fact of the Hastings railway station being in darkness when the rail car passed through on Sunday night was adversely commented upon at the annual meeting of the Hastings Retailers' Association last night. "I don't think it is a very good advertisement for Hastings, that the station should be in darkness when the rail car comes through," said the president (Mr J. E. Hall). It was decided to draw the attention of the authorities to the fact.

Blind Guests

Yesterday the blind citizens of Napier were the guests of the Napier Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon. The president of the Napier Blind Club (Mr S. M. Lydford) gave a short explanatory address on the activities of the club and his impressions of a recent visit to the Jubilee Blind Institute, Auckland. On the motion of Rotarian T. M. Geddis, the speaker was accorded a hearty vote of thanks.

Napier Pupils Travel

More than sixty pupils of the Napier Intermediate School, who visited Wanganui and played Rugby, soccer and basketball matches against the pupils of the Wanganui Intermediate School on Friday were welcomed by the Mayor of Wanganui (Mr W. J. Rogers, M.L.C.), the secretary of the Wanganui Education Board (Mr G. N. Boulton) and the senior inspector (Mr B. N. T. The headmaster of the school (Mr W. W. E. Fossette) presided and said the Wanganui Intermediate School was glad to have the opportunity of fraternising with the Napier Intermediate pupils. The visitors returned home on Saturday.

Parliamentary Censor

The Hon. W. E. Barnard, M.P., caused some amusement at last night's meeting of the Napier Returned Soldiers' Association when he described his duties as "censor" of speeches broadcast from the House of Representatives. Mr Barnard said it was necessary for him to anticipate what the speakers were going to say, for it was too late to cut a statement off the air once it had been made. He had found that his duties kept him wide awake, "with one finger on the trigger," and completely dispelled any tendency to doze off in the Speaker's chair while long-winded members were having their say.

Breakfast Table

"Why, Jimmy, you poor dear! Have you been fighting?" "No, I've been fought."

"Can you let me have a dollar for a month old boy, for a month old boy?"

The two tramps sat with their backs to an old oak tree. Before them was a tippeling stream. The day was delightful, yet one of them looked rather disconsolate.

"You know, Jim," he mused, "this business of tramping your way through life is not what it's cracked up to be. Think it over."

"Nights on park benches or in a cold barn. Travelling on dusty freight trains and always dodging the railroad police. Being kicked from one town to another. Wondering where your next meal is coming from. Wandering unwanted everywhere, sneered at by your fellow man."

Waste material from the cook-houses in Wairoa Military Camp when it is occupied by territorial troops from October will be utilised for feeding pigs. Tenders are being called by Army Headquarters, Wellington, for the purchase and collecting of pig swill from the camp for one period from October 1 to March 31. During the Great War, when large camps were established in Featherston and Tauherenikau, the Army ran its own pig farm. This was established on the banks of the Tauherenikau River and hundreds of pigs were fattened. In Wairoa Camp, which will accommodate thousands of men, there is likely to be scope for a very profitable enterprise by establishing a pig farm in the district and utilising refuse from the camp, together with root crops which can be grown in the Ohakune and Karori districts.

Poultry Feed

A complaint that there was difficulty in securing sufficient poultry feed at a reasonable price was made at a meeting of egg producers in Gisborne last week. Mr G. H. Dunn said that there had been a definite shortage and prices were high. Mr A. E. Knowles, producers' representative in Auckland on the Poultry Board replied that if there were any complaints of high prices an appeal should be made to the price-fixing tribunal. He promised to take the matter up with the Central Marketing Division. Later in the meeting, Messrs T. A. N. Corson and W. P. Walker stated that preference had been given by merchants to licensed poultry producers in apportioning supplies of pollard and other fowl feed.

MAORIS' CONTRIBUTION TO THE WAR EFFORT

Spontaneous Move To Assist In Increasing Our Primary Production

By Telegraph—Press Association ROTORUA, Aug. 5. With prospective committees working in 33 different Maori settlements in the Rotorua and Bay of Plenty districts, a movement has been initiated among the Maoris of these districts to combine to provide a valuable contribution toward the extra primary production required as part of New Zealand's war effort.

Proceeding from the spontaneous desire of the Maoris to assist within the framework of their own tribal organisations, the movement aims at bringing a substantial additional area under cultivation for the purposes of producing maize, barley, and possibly other necessary foodstuffs, such as potatoes and onions, and in addition it aims to induce the natives to provide a large number of pigs for bacon curing.

At present many pigs owned by Maoris are slaughtered before they arrive at bacon weights. The natives have entered into the appeal so wholeheartedly that in many cases they have agreed to kill no further pigs for purposes of their own tribal gatherings. A central committee has been set up in Rotorua, and under its direction a survey is already in progress with the object of ascertaining what additional areas can be brought under cultivation and what extra quantity of bacon can be provided.

It is at present impossible to estimate the extra quantity of bacon likely to be produced, but it is also likely to be substantial. It will be possible for the natives to receive a small measure of assistance when it is necessary through the Native Land Board.

The movement is purely spontaneous and springs from the desire of the Maoris to be of practical assistance in the war effort.

TRUE SONS OF THEIR FATHERS SOLDIERS DEDICATED TO PEACE

GORT'S PRAISE

Younger Generation Full Of Courage. British Official Wireless. (Received August 5, 12.45 p.m.) RUGBY, Aug. 4. General Viscount Gort, who led the British Expeditionary Force on the Continent, said today in a broadcast: "It has been my fortune to fight alongside two generations of soldiers, and from what I have seen during the past months, I know that the younger generation are brimful of courage and ready to sacrifice all for the great cause for which we are fighting."

With war once more in our midst, we not unreasonably ask ourselves whether those who died in the never forgotten war of 1914-18, together with those who have fallen in the present war, have given their lives in vain. I find comfort in the words of Abraham Lincoln: "We here highly resolve that those dead shall rest in peace, and that this nation, under God, shall have new birth of freedom."

"If the lamps of freedom have been extinguished by Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy," said Lord Gort, "it is by the inspiration of the sacrifice of our old comrades that we shall relight them. And yet we may be thankful that they have been spared the horrors far greater than those we witnessed in 1914-18."

"Never shall I forget the savagery of the total war which heralded the arrival in Western Europe of this new and revised version of the German doctrine that might is right—the pitiable terror of the men and women of Belgium and northern France, ruining many of them for the second time in their lives and rendering them homeless and penniless before the invader. And what a cruel fate to see towns and villages which had been so laboriously rebuilt after the last war once again reduced to heaps of ruins. And to what purpose? To impose by force on free peoples a creed abhorrent to them, and to satisfy the lust for domination of one man, to whom the text 'Love thy neighbour as thyself' is meaningless."

"Strong, therefore, in the support of our faith and of that armour of God of which St. Paul speaks, we dedicate ourselves anew to this crusade which shall rid the world of the scourge. In this spirit, let us all go forward together."

SOLDIER'S MULTIPLE INJURIES

Fell From Motor Cycle While On Leave

By Telegraph—Press Association, BLENHEIM, Aug. 5. Private E. Tombs, of the 1st Battalion, The Buffs, who was on leave, was admitted to hospital as the result of a fall from a motor cycle near Seddon.

He was picked up an hour later suffering from multiple injuries, including fairly severe head injuries. His condition this afternoon was satisfactory.

MAN HELD UP WITH SHOTGUN

SENSATIONAL AFFAIR AT PAKOWHAI

LONELY HOUSE Early Morning Struggle For The Weapon

The facts of a sensational incident in which a man was held at bay by an intruder with a shotgun in a remote house in Pakowhai at an early hour on Sunday morning were learned by the "Daily Mail" after midnight last night. The victim was Mr Duncan E. Evans, who wrestled the gun from his assailant. With his wife and young children Mr Evans returned to his home about 2 a.m. after spending the evening out. Entering the house first, Mr Evans depressed the switch to turn on the light, but the power was off.

While he was striking matches trying to learn the cause of the failure Mr Evans was startled by a man's voice from behind him, telling him to raise his hands. Mr Evans turned and saw a middle-aged man menacing him with a double-barrel shotgun. The intruder moved the gun threateningly and when opportunity arose Mr Evans closed with him and a desperate struggle began.

While Mr Evans' wife and children crouched fearfully in a nearby room, the two men struggled for possession of the gun. This Mr Evans secured after a fight which wrecked the contents of the room. The intruder then said that a mistake had been made and apologised. It is stated that he said this when he saw Mr Evans' wife and from this it is assumed that the affair was based on domestic trouble.

The intruder made off, and shortly afterward the sound of a car engine was heard. It is understood that Mr Evans made his way to his brother's residence nearby and telephoned the police. Investigation disclosed that the power had been turned off at the meter. It is understood that a wardrobe had been kicked in and a sum of money taken. The police are seeking the intruder.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE EARLY

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, Aug. 5. Because of enlistments in the armed forces by qualified chemists and pharmacy assistants difficulty is being experienced in some cases in coping with dispensing work at rush hours. This is disclosed in a report received by the Minister of Industries and Commerce (the Hon. D. G. Sullivan).

The report reads in part: "A good number of qualified chemists and pharmacy assistants having enlisted for active service, the task of coping with dispensing work at rush hours is becoming a real difficulty. In some places it is customary to dispense prescriptions in the order received over the counter, but it may soon be necessary for the chemist to exercise some discretion as to which prescriptions, in his opinion, call for prior attention."

"The public could assist by leaving their prescriptions as early as possible, particularly where it is a case of a repeating prescription already dispensed. If the people would ring their chemist and notify him of their intention to call, say, on the following day, it would give the chemist an opportunity to spread the work over slack periods."

Mr Sullivan said that he felt sure that it was only necessary to draw attention to the committee's statement to secure the ready-to-operation of the public.

DRIVE FOR INCREASED PIG PRODUCTION

Re-adjustments In Managing Why Feeding OBSTACLES TO BE MET

Owing to the diversion to cheese manufacture of a portion of the milk supplies that would ordinarily be utilised in butter making, pig producers who have been asked to supply milk for cheese instead of butter making will have to make some readjustment in their pig management plans.

It is realised that as bacon is also an essential wartime food, bacon production cannot be allowed to suffer because butter suppliers who have changed over to cheese will have only whey instead of skim milk available for pig feeding. However, there is comfort for producers in the knowledge that practical trials have conclusively demonstrated that the highest class bacons can be raised on whey.

The fact that some pig producers will now have to feed whey instead of skim milk to their pigs should not be allowed to interfere with the drive for greater bacon production. Cheese whey has been long proved a valuable base as a pig food, but, of course, it must be fed in conjunction with some protein rich food, such as meat meal.

Obstacle Can Be Overcome. The demand for additional cheese would create obstacles for increased bacon, but these obstacles must be overcome, said Mr W. A. Phillips, chairman of directors of the New Zealand Co-operative Pig Marketing Association. It was profitable to fatten pigs on whey so any conversion from butter to cheese could not be regarded as a justifiable excuse for not producing pigs.

Increasing cheese production by 15,000 tons meant changing the by-product of about 60,000 cows from skim milk to whey, said Mr Phillips. This by-product as skim milk produced approximately 40,000 pigs, and as whey it should be capable of producing about 20,000 to 25,000. Approximately 70 to 75 per cent of the milk delivered at a factory could be returned as whey, and whey has a feeding value of about three-quarters that of skim milk.

Half Value. Whey was usually rated at about half the value of skim, and when allowance was made for the reductions both in quantity and quality these figures gave a close approximation. Unfortunately, some farmers had interpreted "half the value of skim milk" to mean that the quality was only half as good as skim milk, and with this idea in mind had considered that whey was not worth bothering about. As a result it was fed liberally, and often under very bad conditions.

During the last few years, said Mr Phillips, this attitude has been changing, and many now obtained excellent results from whey. Because most farmers who were changing over to whey were keeping pigs and, therefore, had the equipment and facilities for doing the job, it was likely that they would want to use their whey. From the point of view of value in the whey this was worth doing, and the decision to use whey or not could be based only on the question of whether it was possible to get it back on the farm again.

Meat Meal Necessary. Because the greater part of the flesh-forming materials had been taken out of whey, it was essential to feed meat meal with whey to pigs of all ages at the rate of at least half a pound a day. Whey acquired its bad reputation chiefly because it was fed to young pigs without a supplement. They would gain it greedily in order to obtain enough flesh-forming materials, and being incapable of digesting the sugar content, would scour profusely.

Starting at three weeks, little pigs should be given an ounce of meat meal daily, increasing to half a pound at weaning and continuing on at this rate till slaughter. Half a pound of barley or other grain daily should be given from weaning till the pigs were 100 lb live weight. Starting with an allowance of two pints of whey at three to four weeks a piglet, suckers should have their whey ration increased until they were getting a gallon and a half of whey daily, along with meat meal and grain, just after weaning. Litters produced in this way on whey were just as good as those produced on skim milk. Regular intervals. The whey should be gradually increased to about four to five gallons daily at four months. It should be fed at regular intervals, three, four or even five times a day, this avoiding distension of the stomach and consequent scouring. For the fourth, fifth and sixth month of the pig's life little increase in the amount of whey fed daily was necessary if access to good grazing, or a supply of roots, were available. For the last five to six weeks seven to eight gallons should be fed daily, together with half a pound of meat meal. This should take the pig from a live-weight of 140 lb to 200 lb. If at any stage the pigs scoured unduly on whey, their feed supply should be cut down and a handful of ordinary carbonate of lime (for each eight pigs) be put in the whey trough once a day.

PROVISION FOR PEACE

R.S.A. MEMBERSHIP RULES

NAPIER MEETING Association Reports A Good Year

A notice of motion presented by the president of the Napier Returned Soldiers' Association, Mr E. H. T. Dunn, at the annual meeting last night provides for the deletion of a section of the rules confining membership to those who saw active service in the war of 1914-18. Returned soldiers from any war will be accepted without discrimination if the motion is adopted. Mr Dunn presided over an attendance of about 100 members. Discussing the annual report and balance-sheet (previously published) the chairman referred to the progress being made by the association and the steadily increasing membership.

The balance-sheet showed a deficit of some £23, this being largely due to the holding of quarterly reunions, which had cost a net sum of £75 14s. After some discussion the question of remedying this position was referred to the incoming committee.

The value of the National Military Reserve (Class II) was stressed by the Hon. W. E. Barnard, M.P., who said the Government was awake to the value of returned soldiers and the part they could play in the country's defence. As they all knew the question of home defence was a most important one at the present time.

"It may be that after this war we will be faced with problems that we can scarcely imagine," said Mr Barnard. "It will be for the returned soldiers, both of this war and the last, to make a part in restoring conditions when peace is again achieved." Mr Dunn was unanimously re-elected to the position of president for the ensuing year.

PEACE TALK FROM LINDBERGH

ALARMED AT POSITION OF U.S. DEFENCE NEEDS

Critics Say He Is Disloyal

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received August 5, 1.15 p.m.) CHICAGO, Aug. 4. The aviator Colonel Charles Lindbergh, in addressing a peace rally of 50,000 persons, asserted that foreign and domestic interests were endeavouring to draw the United States into the European war. He urged the United States "to rearm fully for defence" and also to take the leadership in efforts for peace.

"Let us offer Europe a plan for the progress and protection of Western civilisation, of which they and we each form a part," he said. Colonel Lindbergh asserted that United States opinion was now definitely and overwhelmingly against involvement in the war, and said that the time had arrived for the United States to consider its relations with post-war Europe. He advocated non-interference in European internal affairs, but expressed the opinion that it was of the utmost importance that the United States should co-operate with Europe.

War For Generations. He said that a war between the two hemispheres could easily last for generations and bring all civilisation tumbling down.

"I have a different outlook towards Europe from that of most people in America," he said. "I am not a pacifist, but I am not so strongly against the trend of the times and that, to be effective, what one says must meet with general approval. I prefer to say what I believe or not to speak at all. I don't offer my opinion as an expert, but rather as a citizen who is alarmed at the position our country has reached in this era of experts."

"We are often told that if Germany wins the war, co-operation will be impossible and treaties mere scraps of paper," he added. "I reply that co-operation is never impossible when there is sufficient to gain on both sides, and treaties are seldom torn apart when they do not cover weak nations."

Re-arm. "I believe that we should rearm fully for the defence of America and never make the type of treaty which lay us open to invasion if it were broken, but if we refuse to consider treaties with the dominant nation in Europe, regardless of who that may be, we remove all possibility of peace."

The Chicago "Daily News" bitterly attacks the Lindbergh rally as defeatist and disloyal. It says: "The headlines (meaning Colonel Lindbergh) are only a minor part of the real show, which is surreptitiously encouraged by the counterfeiting man-American National Alliance and similar organisations. We may be sure that Dr. Goebbels is interested."

It states that Neo-Nazi organisations have been urged to attend the meeting. The Rome newspaper "Il Messaggero" asserts that Colonel Lindbergh is forming a new party known as the "Party of True Americans," and asserts that isolationism is becoming stronger. Hence, it says, the chances of United States intervention in the war are weaker.

TRAGIC FATALITY AT BLENHEIM

Small Child Killed By Father's Lorry

By Telegraph—Press Association. BLENHEIM, Aug. 5. Melvin Albert Prentice, aged 13 months, was fatally injured near his home this afternoon when he was knocked down by a motor-lorry driven by his father, Mervyn Prentice, Springlands.

Prentice had just unloaded logs at his timber mill and had backed away from the ramp when he saw the child lying on the ground. Apparently he had topped unnoticed from the house nearby and had crawled under the vehicle.

SULPHUR IS A VALUABLE NEW ZEALAND PRODUCT

Scientific Research Into The Possibilities Of The Thermal Region

By Telegraph—Press Association ROTORUA, Aug. 5. In an interview at Rotorua, where he spent the weekend, the Minister in charge of the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research (Dr. McMillan) indicated that his department has recently carried out a complete survey of the sulphur-producing possibilities of the Rotorua thermal area.

The Minister said that the annual consumption of sulphur in New Zealand was 50,000 tons, and the survey had shown that the total amount of sulphur available in this area was about 20,000 tons.

While this quantity was small as compared with the country's annual requirements, it was nevertheless considered advisable to ascertain whether the country's sulphur deposits could not be used to advantage. It was probable that sulphur from local deposits could be dealt with by at least one type of plant and that steps could be taken to concentrate on the lower grades. Sulphur was chiefly used in the manufacture of fertilisers and was therefore an important commodity.

Further investigations are proceeding.

Counterblast By The Navy

CONSCRIPTION URGED Atlantic May Become A War Highway

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received August 5, 2.10 p.m.) NEW YORK, Aug. 4. A radio counterblast to Colonel Lindbergh in favour of conscription has been launched by the Secretary for the Navy (Colonel Knox), who says that conscription is essential to the defence of the Western Hemisphere.

"If Britain's sea power is broken up or seized, the Atlantic will cease to be a barrier and will become an express highway for hostile forces," he asserted. "An Axis victory would inevitably result in Hitler making a bid to obtain wealth and raw materials from the Americas."

Colonel Adler, who is civilian aide to the Secretary for War, said in a radio address: "If the British fleet is scattered or seized, what is to stop Hitler from bringing armies, tanks and guns to the Western Hemisphere? Even with Europe in his grip, he will need raw materials from the Americas. He will try to obtain economic and political penetration. If he fails, he will try force."

Checking Travellers. An Inspector, questioned yesterday by the "Daily Mail," said that the department was not making a general practice of stopping cars on all roads and finding out where they procured their petrol, but a general "check-up" on some long-distance travellers was being made. Reference to a recent case of an Auckland inspector confiscating the coupons of a motorist visiting that city, the Hawke's Bay Inspector expressed the opinion that this had been done by an official of a local body, not of the Transport Department.

"Any coupons to spare this month" is a topical request in Napier and Hastings of recent months, and it is generally known that long journeys by car are often made possible either by the gift of coupons from other motorists who do not need them, or by borrowing one month's coupons against those of another.

Section 43 of the Oil Fuel Emergency Regulations reads: "Every person who, not being entitled to the possession of coupons in terms of these regulations, tenders a coupon to a vendor to obtain oil fuel, commits an offence against these regulations."

This section is very comprehensive, although it appears that the authorities are mostly concerned with trafficking in coupons. They are making close investigations into possible breaches of the conditions under which coupons are granted, and a large number of prosecutions for alleged breaches of the regulations is said to be pending.

WINDOWS BROKEN AT PAPAOKURA

GERMAN REFUGEE'S SHOP

SECOND TIME

By Telegraph—Press Association. AUCKLAND, Aug. 5. Three large windows in a fruit and confectionery shop at Papakura belonging to Edward Rothschild, a German refugee, were broken for the second time in a fortnight early this morning.

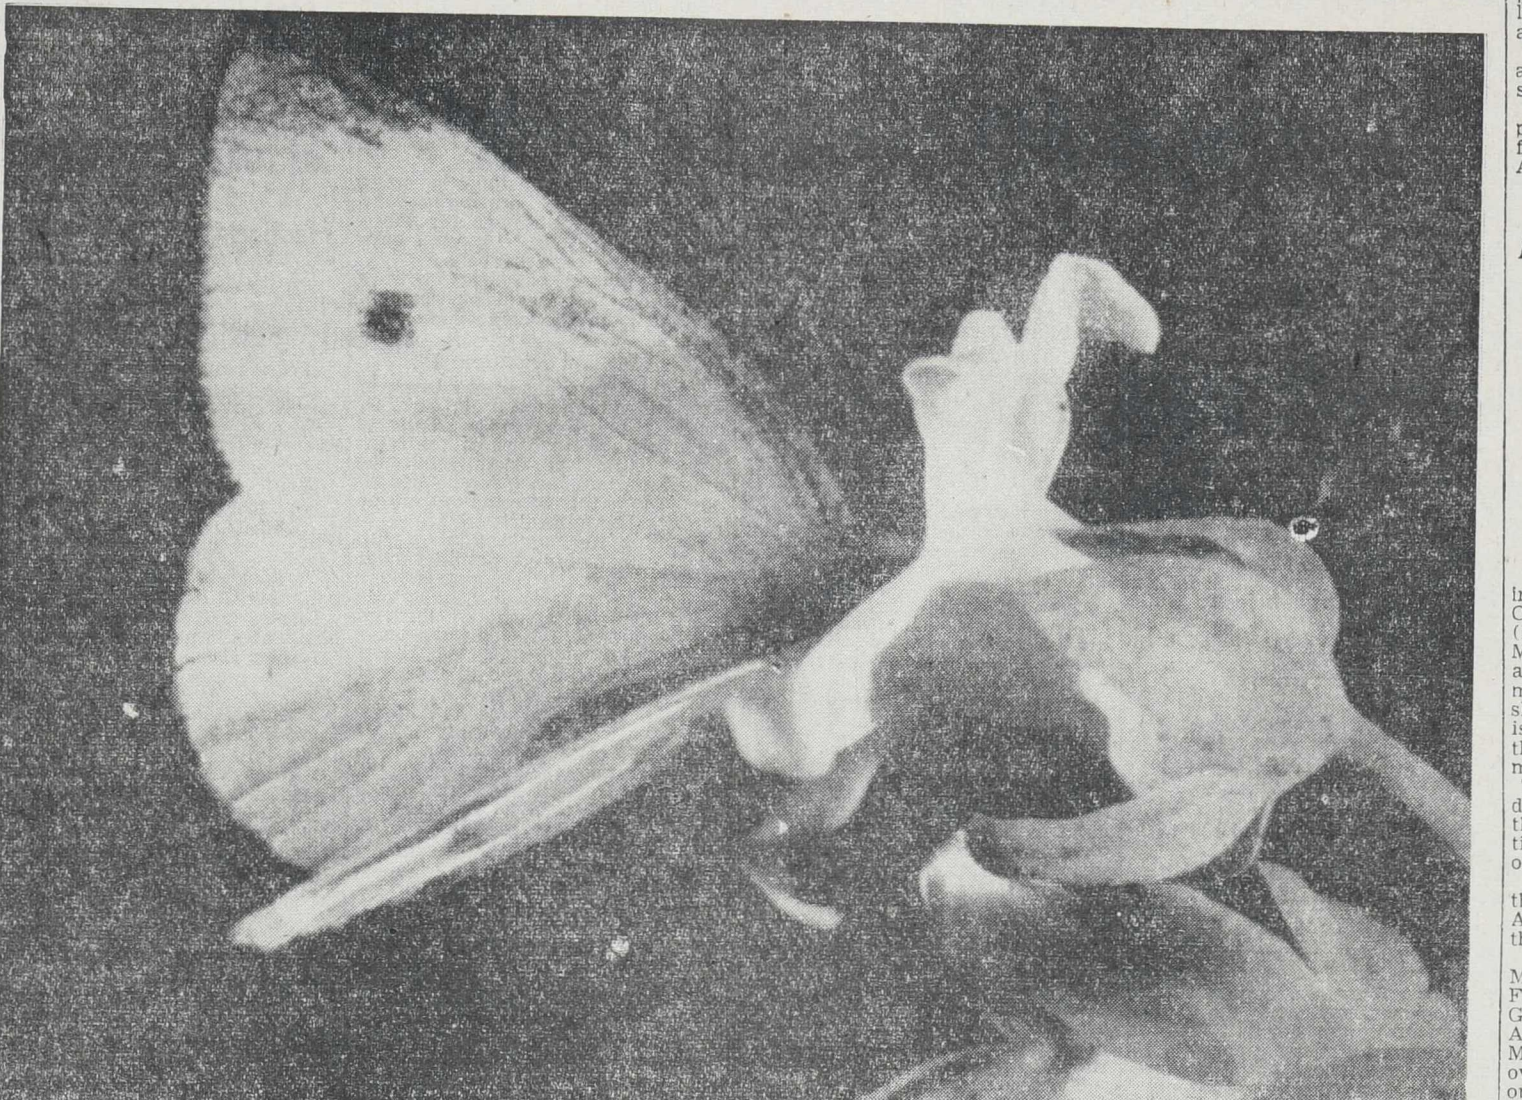

It is thought that the windows were smashed about 12.50 a.m., when several nearby residents heard a loud crash like falling glass. An iron bar 3 ft. 6 in. long, similar to the axle of a top-dresser, was picked up by the police on the previous occasion on which the windows were broken on July 22. A similar piece of iron was again found.

Rothschild is believed to have been in New Zealand for about 15 months, and he purchased the business about five months ago. The shop is at the corner of the Great South Road and Averill Street. No goods were damaged, and as far as is known nothing is missing.

NEGLIGENT DRIVING CHARGE

Waipukurau Farmer Stands Trial

CAR'S ERRATIC COURSE

The hearing was begun in the Napier Supreme Court yesterday before Mr Justice Ostler of the case against Darcy Herbert Joseph Ryder, farmer, of Waipukurau, who was charged with negligently driving a motor vehicle so as to cause injury to a 11-year-old girl named Heather Scott.

There was a further charge of failing to stop and render assistance after an accident. Mr H. B. Lusk conducted the case for the Crown, and Mr C. G. E. Harker represented the accused.

The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs W. A. Chelley (foreman), O. P. Gallien, E. E. Skeet, H. C. Pond, W. Thomson, W. H. Hodge, J. Bolesworth, J. D. Ramage, S. W. Bradley, T. Thomson, J. Agnew, and H. B. Kennerly.

Heather Munro Scott, who gave her evidence clearly and without hesitation, said that on the afternoon of June 11 she attended a Girl Guides' gathering after school, and it was after dark when she left Waipukurau to cycle to her home at Hatuma Road.

Witness was riding on the metal about two feet from the pavement surface. She saw the lights of a car approaching from the rear, felt a bump and did not know anything more.

To Mr Harker witness said she did not remember any other car overtaking her. It would be about 5.10 p.m. when she left Waipukurau, but she did not notice the exact time.

Medical Evidence. Medical evidence was given by Dr C. Raymond, Waipukurau, who said he received a call at about 5.45 p.m. on the afternoon of June 11, to Dr Dobson's residence on Takapau Road.

The girl Heather Scott was lying on a couch. There appeared to be no fractured bones, but the girl was suffering from concussion and shock. She was confused and unable to remember what had happened to her.

She was admitted to hospital, where she made good progress, and was discharged on June 13. The injuries were consistent with the girl having been struck by a car.

Cross-examined, the witness said that the injuries were comparatively slight, and she agreed with counsel that more serious injury could have resulted from a spill from a bicycle. The injuries did not suggest that the girl had been struck with any great force.

Verna Merle Peters, aged 16 years, said she lived about 150 yards from Dobson's residence on Takapau Road. On the evening of the accident she was returning home, approaching from Waipukurau and travelling at a high speed.

There was a crash and one light went out, but the car continued on with only one lamp burning.

Heard a Crash. Oliver Charles Dobson, a farmer, residing on the Takapau Road, said he heard a crash and went out to investigate. He found the cycle lying on the road, the lamp being damped, but still burning.

Constable D. H. Sutton, of Waipukurau, and Dr C. Raymond were witnesses to the accident. They took possession of portions of the girl's clothing and pieces of glass which were lying on the road.

A farmer residing at Ashcott Road, Douglas Gordon Livingstone, said he visited Waipukurau on the afternoon of June 11, leaving just after 5.15 p.m. on his return home. He was sitting in the back seat of a car driven by a Mrs Cameron.

They were travelling at under 30 miles an hour when they were overtaken by a car which was driving rapidly. The driver was driving so slowly that the car had been reconducted and had to be driven carefully.

The second car that passed them, that belonging to Williams, was probably moving faster than Ryder's. It was a dark, overcast night, and witness thought the road was still wet from rain which had fallen earlier in the day.

When witness assisted Ryder from his car he did not notice any signs of liquor. There was some blood on his right-hand cheek. A detailed description of the damage to the car was given by Robert McLean, motor engineer, of Waipukurau.

Held Unable To Plead AT HASTINGS

JURY'S DECISION

Mental Development Of Accused

MEDICAL REPORT

Samuel Cracknell, charged in the Napier Supreme Court yesterday with alleged carnal knowledge at Opapa on June 24, was held by the jury to be unable to plead.

The following jury was empanelled: Messrs E. Hyde (foreman), W. G. Arnold, E. E. Skeet, J. D. Ramage, L. G. Jackson, W. H. Hodge, C. H. Rathbone, E. R. Rispin, H. McGregor, A. Stafford, J. D. Gordon and E. G. Haynes.

In a report which was read to the court Dr J. Russell, Deputy Director-General of the Mental Hospitals Department, gave his opinion that the mental development of the accused was that of a person seven to eight years of age.

Without retiring the jury found the accused unable to plead, and his Honour made the order mentioned above. Mr W. E. Bate appeared for the accused.

MONEY BY FALSE PRETENCES

CHARGE AGAINST LABOURER NAPIER COURT

Further Charges Said To Be Pending

When Charles Joshua McAlees, a labourer of Te Awanga, appeared in the Napier Magistrate's Court before Mr J. Miller, S.M., yesterday to answer a charge of obtaining money by false pretences, he was remanded to August 8 on the application of Senior-Sergeant P. C. Felton.

The senior-sergeant said that further charges were pending. On the application of Mr R. H. Le Pine bail was granted at £100 in self, with one surety of £100.

Idle and Disorderly. "The accused was found sleeping in a hay loft at Taradale on the property of people who had previously been charitable to him," said Senior-Sergeant P. C. Felton when Leslie Gartley, a labourer of no fixed abode, was charged with being idle and disorderly and without sufficient means of support.

The senior-sergeant told the court that Gartley had been doing odd jobs about Taradale, and in return had received meals from the people who had taken pity on him. Several complaints of prowlers had been received from the residents, and Constable Gartley had observed the accused as late as 2 a.m.

He was followed by the constable, who found him sleeping in a hay loft. The accused was wearing an old cap and beside him was a bundle of seaweed which he declared he was eating.

"Ogier has admitted that he sometimes came to Napier and that when he was ready to go back to Taradale he would take a bicycle, ride it home, and then abandon it on the roadside," declared Senior-Sergeant Felton.

The accused was convicted and sentenced to three months' imprisonment with hard labour.

HASTINGS FAREWELL TO SOLDIERS

Ball To-morrow Night RETURNED MEN ARE FRATERNISING

Mayor's Invitation

Men of the Third Echelon are to be accorded an official farewell at the R.S.A. Ball at Hastings to-morrow night. The soldiers will be the guests of the R.S.A., while their two officers will be present.

This invitation is extended to both Maori and pakeha and also to the members of the unit, said the Mayor of Hastings (Mr G. A. Maddison) yesterday. "To my mind, it is most fitting that the men of this new army should fraternise with those of the Old Brigade to-morrow night."

At 9.30 p.m. short addresses will be given by the member for Hawke's Bay (Mr E. L. Cullen), the president of the R.S.A. (Mr J. Priest) and Mr Maddison. The presentation of gift parcels will follow.

The Hastings Townswomen's Guild has generously agreed to provide supper for the soldiers and their next-of-kin.

At a well-attended meeting of Twyford and Raupare residents presided over by Mr J. Trotter, a decision was made to give Third Echelon men resident of the district a send-off in the Fernhill Hall on Friday night. Presentations will be made to the soldiers and it is expected that a large crowd will attend.

"FIFTH COLUMN" AT HASTINGS

UNDERCURRENT AMONG RETAILERS

PRESIDENT'S VIEW

Greater Support Wanted For Association

What he called the "Fifth Column" among the ranks of the shopkeepers of Hastings was referred to by the president of the Hastings Retailers' Association (Mr C. Griffiths) at the annual meeting last night, when he made an appeal for greater interest in the affairs of the association.

"I can assure you that there is no 'big five' and if there was, it 'small six' would soon outvote it," said Mr Griffiths. "There are certain men in this town who have been faithful to this association and if it had not been for them there would be no organisation now."

All retailers would have to play their part and break down this feeling of antipathy, said Mr Griffiths. In the four years he had been in office he had realised the weakness of the organisation, and considered that the association should be more active. It was obvious that silence meant consent.

Although the Hastings association was affiliated with other bodies, there was no national Retailers' Association, and he felt that the shopkeepers in all the towns of the Dominion united, they would be able to give an expression of opinion which would carry considerable weight; much could be achieved by this means, he concluded.

President Retires After Four Years

"THANKLESS TASK"

"He was always quite fair and willing to listen to the other fellow's point of view," said Mr J. E. Hall, who retired at the annual meeting last night of the Hastings Retailers' Association after four years as president of the association.

Mr Griffiths had spent a great deal of time working for the association, and it was a result of his interest, said Mr J. E. Hall. The president often had a thankless task, said Mr Hugh C. Baird referring to Mr Griffiths' services.

Mr C. Griffiths, who retired last night after four years as president of the Hastings Retailers' Association.

great deal could be accomplished if unity was achieved among the retailers, he said. Unfortunately at meetings they were too inclined to dwell on political matters instead of working together in the interests of the town, continued Mr Baird.

Wonderful District. "We have a wonderful people behind us, and our progress is due to their support," said Mr Baird. "We realise that we give service for what we get—we take that to ourselves—we owe our thanks to the district."

Subscription Rate. It was decided to revise the association's subscription rate, to improve the finances. The scale was fixed at £1 1/4, 15/-, 10/- and 5/-, according to the size of the shop.

Officers Elected. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mr J. E. Hall; vice-president, Mr A. H. Bradshaw; executive, Messrs Mesdames Robertson and Boyle, Miss Elizabeth Horne, Messrs T. King, Hugh W. C. Baird, H. P. Gill, T. A. Smith, R. George, C. Griffiths, L. J. Harvey and S. O. Garland; secretary and treasurer, Mr N. G. Rees.

HASTINGS RETAILERS DISCUSS DISCOUNT

Association Taking No Action

After a general discussion the Hastings Retailers' Association last night decided that the matter of giving discount should be left to the individual shopkeepers to deal with. The president (Mr J. E. Hall) said that in some cases customers frequently deduct two and a-half per cent from their cheques when paying accounts.

The discount practice did not touch all businesses evenly, he said, comparing jewellers and grocers. In view of this, it would be difficult to make any ruling in the matter.

Hastings drapers had met and decided to eliminate discount, said Mr Hall, and booksellers are to meet to-night to discuss the matter. The association decided to take no action.

MR MOSSMAN WITH HASTINGS RETAILERS

TRIBUTES PAID

Resignation Received Last Night

When Mr H. A. Mossman tendered his resignation from the post of treasurer of the Hastings Retailers' Association at the annual meeting last night he severed 46 years' association with that body. His resignation was regretfully accepted by the committee, and he was elected to life membership.

"I will with a certain amount of regret that I hand in my books," said Mr Mossman, "but I have no doubt that I have done my share, and to the satisfaction of the retailers, and I always had my job back in 40 years."

Recalling the early history of the association, Mr Mossman said that in the beginning it was a Holiday Association. In those days there was no fixed holidays, and this fell to the shopkeepers to decide. The fixing of holidays by Statute ended a lot of trouble.

Closed for Races. Mr Mossman recalled the late Mr W. C. Maddison, first president of the association. At that time the shops always closed for a race meeting, but Mr Maddison's instigation this was abandoned, and the shops remained open on race days. Subsequently the Racing Club held meetings only on holidays.

"I think that Hastings is going to be a very large, prosperous, successful town," continued Mr Mossman. "In the past 50 years I have seen it grow tremendously."

Mr Mossman was secretary of the association for 42 years and treasurer for three and a-half years.

QUARTERLY SESSIONS OF SUPREME COURT HELD

Three Serious Cases Involved In The Short List Of Charges

The quarterly sessions of the Napier Supreme Court opened yesterday morning before Mr Justice Ostler.

The following Grand Jury was empanelled:—Messrs E. J. Harris (foreman), J. K. Allen, A. J. Anderson, J. Barden, A. J. Driver, J. C. Etheridge, C. S. Finlay, T. W. Hercock, E. W. Lloyd, T. B. Lockyer, W. B. Anderson, L. F. Bisson, W. J. Montgomery, G. A. Peake, E. S. Burkett, L. E. Deighton, L. C. Rolls, E. C. Pirie, F. R. Watters, L. Clark, E. Stewart, C. W. Beuth, and D. G. Chapman.

Delivering his charge to the Grand Jury, his Honour said that there were only five cases to be dealt with, three concerning indecency and two arising out of the driving of motor cars.

Edwin Charles Bate was charged with attempted rape, his Honour continued. On this charge the evidence of the girl made out a prima facie case, and the jury should have no difficulty in finding a true bill.

Samuel Cracknell had admitted the offence of carnal knowledge, alleged to have occurred at Opapa on June 24. The medical evidence in this case was that the accused was almost an imbecile and was unable to plead. However, the onus of proving insanity was on the defence, and it was the duty of the Grand Jury to bring in a true bill.

Attempted Assault. A charge of attempted indecent assault had been brought against George Euan Cleary, the alleged offence being in respect of a girl nine years of age, at Hastings during June. The evidence showed that the accused had accosted the girl in a park at Hastings, and the case for the prosecution rested on the words used by her.

The words used undoubtedly had an indecent meaning, but in a charge of this nature there must be some evidence of intent to commit an indecent act. As there was no suggestion of an indecent act, his Honour thought it was the duty of the jury to bring in a no bill.

Driving Charge. Charges of negligent driving causing injury and failure to stop and render assistance after an accident were preferred against Darcy H. J. Ryder. After reviewing the evidence his Honour said that there seemed to be a prima facie case on both counts.

Bruce Woodward Ellison, a young man aged 22 years, was charged with negligent driving causing death and with failing to stop and render assistance after an accident. The evidence of marks on the car and of pieces of human hair found on it showed that he had struck a man named Stepten Whittingham, who was lying full length on Battery Road, Port Ahuriri. There was nothing to show how Whittingham had come to be lying on the road.

He had no doubt they would agree that a prima facie case had been made out against Ellison. The jury returned almost immediately with true bills in the cases against Samuel Cracknell and Darcy Ryder. True bills were later returned in the cases of Edwin Bate and George Cleary.

In the case of Bruce Ellison, the Grand Jury found a no bill so far as the charge of negligent driving causing death was concerned, and a true bill on the lesser count.

LIQUOR FOR THE TERRITORIALS

PROTEST AGAINST WET CANTEENS

H.B. WOMEN

A protest to the Government against the reported proposal to introduce "wet" canteens in territorial camps is being sent by Hastings and Hawke's Bay executives of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. It is understood that the seven other executives of the union in Hawke's Bay are taking similar action.

It is contended that the "wet" canteens would not be in the best interests of young men of 19 and 20 years of age, who would be training in territorial camps. The question of establishing "wet" canteens in camps situated in prohibited areas such as Waiouru, where some hundreds of Hawke's Bay men will be in camp, has also been considered.

The objection is said to have arisen from the action of the Rev. D. Smith, Minister of Education, and temperance convener of the Presbyterian Assembly in New Zealand. He, it was stated, had heard it was likely that wet canteens were to be introduced by the Government. The Queen's Committee of the Presbyterian Church in Wellington to take appropriate steps.

"There is no division of opinion about this question," said the Rev. D. Smith, Mount Eden. "Many Presbyterian churches in Auckland have considered the resolution could have been more strongly worded."

The return match between the Napier and Hastings Chess Clubs was played in the room of the Napier Chess Club Saturday night. Although the result was a victory for the home club by 113 games to 83, it will be seen from the detailed results below that the match was extremely closely contested.

Hastings won the only game played on board one, and maintained that lead right down to board eight. The Napier players at boards nine and 10, however, each won both the games. At the conclusion of play the Napier Club captain, Miss E. Flashoff, thanked the Hastings team for coming in, and expressed the hope that it would be found possible to play another match before the close of the season.

Detailed results are as follows, Napier names mentioned first:— W. R. Aislabie, 0; D. Lynch, 1; G. H. Brown, 1; C. Gray, 1; E. J. Bartle, 1; F. Mintoff, 1; T. J. S. Curvey, 1; J. Heenan, 1; E. "My son's birthday to-morrow," confided the little old gentleman to the tobaccoist, "and what to give him I don't know, but something your line might do. A pipe, perhaps? It's a bit of a puzzle, but I'll get fifty," said the little old gentleman. "A pouch? 'Stacks of em.' 'How about a cigarette case?' 'He smokes a pipe,' said the little old gentleman. 'Some tobacco, then?' 'Yes,' ejaculated the little old gentleman, 'have to be pretty good. He knows what's what.' 'Has he sampled 'toasted?' 'Hm—don't think so. Is it O.K.?' 'Nothing to lose here,' declared the tobaccoist. 'Try a pound tin of Cut Pug No. 10 (Bullhead), full strength.' 'I'll try before I buy,' said the little old gentleman, 'gimme a fill, 'Five minutes later he said, 'Let's have a pound. If he doesn't like this he ought to.' 'He will,' said the tobaccoist. And so he did! No smoker can resist 'toasted.' Five brands of Cut Pug No. 10 Bullhead, Cavendish, Riverhead Gold and Desper, Gold. Not only famous for flavour and bouquet, they're harmless!

Early Settler of the Province. Mr George H. Beachen. Death at Hastings on Saturday. Was 73 Years Old.

For nearly all the 73 years of his life Mr George Henry Beachen, who died at his residence in Warwick Road, Hastings, on Saturday, was a resident in Hawke's Bay district. He was a well-known and respected early settler of the province.

Mr Beachen was born at Waipawa, and his early farming days were spent with Mr T. C. Williams, at Mangakuri, but on the death of his father, who was on the original Elsthorpe estate, Mr Beachen then moved to Elsthorpe to take over this property. He remained there for 33 years before finally retiring and taking up his residence in Hastings.

Generous Helper. Although he did not take any great interest in public affairs, the late Mr Beachen was keenly interested in the welfare of the Elsthorpe district in which he lived for so long, and by the settlers of the district he was long recognised as a mourner with a good heart and a kindly and generous nature. His financial aid was ever ready for causes or individuals in need, and the regard in which he was held by all who knew him was very sincere.

He leaves his widow, three sons, Messrs S. R. Mangaterete, G. H. Elsthorpe, and P. Beachen, Hastings, and two daughters, Mrs Gladys, Woodville, and Mrs Brophy, Rahotu, New Plymouth.

The funeral took place at the Hastings cemetery yesterday. The many floral tributes received and the large number of mourners who attended from all parts of the district, bore testimony to the high esteem in which Mr Beachen was held.

Answer To Correspondents

"Form," Hastings: f4 19/- and f1 15/6.

"Interested," Hastings: Blue Steel is a nine-year-old gelding by Carter Blue from Soutra, an imported mare whose pedigree has been lost. He is trained at Awapuni by L. Knapp and raced at Marton in Mr K. McK. Duncan's colours.

"Puzzled," Napier: The previous Christchurch Hunt meeting was held at the end of the 1938-39 season, but the fact that Saturday's meeting was held in the first week of the 1940-41 racing season makes it impossible for H. J. Dullea to equal R. George's record of 52 training successes. The racing season ends on July 31.

G. R. Tattersall has been engaged to ride Haughtly Winner in the Winter Cup, while P. Burgess will be on Sloopless. P. Jarvis will ride Lactose in his engagements at Riccarton.

Judging by the way he finished on Saturday a good race at the National meeting can be safely predicted for Royal Style.

JUMPERS IN THE WARS
STEEPLECHASERS are likely to again be in short supply at Riccarton next week and it is to be hoped that there are no further casualties in the final schooling. Dauber was very lame over the week-end and his connections despair of patching him up for the National, while Gold Wren and Nightbound were two others who had "dicked" after the Homeby Steeplechase. At Hastings on Saturday Blue Tiger hurt himself so badly in his schooling that he has had to be withdrawn from his southern engagements. —"Moturoa."

HAS PADISHAH SLIPPED A LITTLE?
Finishing Run Was Lacking
FLASHLIGHT IMPRESSED AS BEING GOOD
Sidelights On Riccarton Form

(By MOTUROA.)
Padishah's defeat in the Homeby Steeplechase at the Christchurch Hunt meeting on Saturday was a body-blow to the local partisans of the great Hawke's Bay jumper. It might not have been so bad if Padishah had drifted too far in the early stages and had too much ground to make up, but the fact that he was beaten home after jumping to the front at the last fence bears out the opinion recently expressed in these columns that he was definitely not the Padishah of old.

Padishah will undoubtedly be better suited by the extra mile in the Grand National Steeplechase next Tuesday and he will certainly be an improved horse as the result of that race on Saturday. He will have more time to settle down and will not have to be rushed in the last half-mile, but he has shaken the confidence of his staunch admirers very considerably. All the honours of the Homeby Steeplechase were with Flashlight and his trainer-riding. Flashlight carried the field along at quite a good pace after Slaver ran off. He then gave way to Dauber and finally to Padishah. Ridgway, however, was riding a masterly race and, just as victory seemed to be in Padishah's grasp, he swept through to win practically as he liked.

Flashlight certainly had the run of the race over the last half-mile, but Saturday's performance in beating in the run home a Wellington Cup and Metropolitan Handicap winner suggests that Padishah is either on the toboggan or that Flashlight is a really good steeplechaser. I incline to the belief that there is something in each alternative. It must not be overlooked that Padishah will have 7lb. less to carry in the Grand National Steeplechase, but Flashlight, who escapes being penalised for his two recent successes, drops 7lb., from 10.3 to 9.0. That is a concession that even the most bigoted supporter of Padishah will have to admit should help Flashlight very materially to see out the extra mile. As well, he is obviously improving with every race, having done comparatively little racing this winter.

Without calling in Clarion Call to provide further opposition for Padishah, it is quite obvious that the Hastings gelding will again find Flashlight a grave danger on Tuesday. ing third into the straight for the last time, finished fifth. That race improved him for he went on to Timaru to win as he liked as a preface to brilliant success on Saturday.

FLASHLIGHT is bred to win a Grand National and it is interesting to note that he comes from a family that has produced several good steeplechasers in England. The ten-year-old son of Shambles is bred from Snapshot, who was a daughter of Calley (whose third sire in the male tall was Musket) and the imported mare First Glance, dam of First Sight and Tourist, two good winners over middle distances a few seasons back. First Glance was raced successfully in New Zealand, winning 15 events and nearly £4000 in stakes.

First glance was by Kosmos Bey, who was by the Isonomy horse Galinule from Kosmos, by Atheling (a son of Sterling) from Loo, by Arbitrator. Ophelia II, the dam of First Glance, was by the Barcalidone horse Morion from Louise, by Kendal from Rosmarine, a daughter of Rosicrucian.

Ophelia II was a half-sister to Player Queen, a winner over fences and the second dam of other steeplechasers in Little Ant, Armoured Prince, and Gib, the last-named having 11 topclass foals to his credit.

SIRE OF VINTAGE
SHAMBLES, although bred in the purple, has been rather disappointing at the Stud, although he sired one real class horse in the Wellington Cup winner Vintage. Shatter showed some promise, but Flashlight is quite the best horse Shambles sired apart from Vintage.

DAUBER'S backing down to favouritism was surprising to the majority, but the confident support that came for the consistent Auckland was undoubtedly influenced by his fine schooling at Riccarton last week. Prospects certainly looked rosy for the backers of the favourite when Dauber hit the front at the sod wall about five furlongs from home, but he capitulated in the run home.

Saturday's performance tends to stamp Dauber as a non-stayer, despite the high opinion in which he is held by Aucklanders. There is little doubt that he will have to improve very substantially to have any chance in the National, and as he was lame after his race on Saturday he may drop out of the race. Slaver, who has proved himself a game, disconcerting jumper in the past, when he ran off at Cuts's, but such a mischance has cost some of our greatest jumpers races before this and I would not be surprised to see the southerner stick to his guns all the way on Tuesday.

The fact that Slaver appears to have built up a lot since last winter suggests that he is undoubtedly a strong National prospect and it will be interesting to see if he shows any signs of running off in his final schooling.

TIDEWAITER IS GOOD.
NOTHING impressed more at Riccarton on Saturday than Tidewater, who gave last year's leading trainer, H. Dullea, his first success of the new season when he landed the Longbeach Hurdles. Tidewater's scrip will rise smartly as the result of this victory and it will not surprise to find him wind up actual favourite for the Grand National Hurdles.

Tidewater's liking for Riccarton must also be taken into consideration. He has performed well on the flat there at the last three Grand National meetings and, being a good galloper under any conditions and a dyed-in-the-wool stayer, he looks the ideal type for a Grand National. Furthermore, he has taken very kindly to jumping, Saturday's race being only his third over the batters for a fourth and two wins. Since being purchased by Dullea for 500gns. last May, Tidewater has had to start for two wins, three seconds and a third. He has now proved a bargain for Dullea by winning £525 and he should more than double that amount next week.

BRED ON GOOD LINES.
TIDEWAITER lacks nothing on the score of breeding and his pedigree is one which suggests that he will be ideally suited by the Grand National Hurdles distance. By the former Flaxmere Stud sire Tidal, Tidewater, who has an Avondale Cup and a Parliamentary Handicap as well as other good races to his credit, is bred from Ballymoy II, an imported mare by Sonning (who was by Sunder) from Bally Kill, by His Majesty from Farthingale, by Farasi. Tidal, who was a good galloper

RIGHT OUT OF FAVOUR
THE RAKER bubble has burst badly after the recent displays of the Croupier gelding at Timaru and at Riccarton on Saturday. Many of the owners of the much demanded for his scrip in the Winter Cup. The Raker, who was one of the early favourites for the big mile at Riccarton, was so highly regarded by Jimmy Ellis that he turned down the mount on Haughtly Winner at Timaru to be on the promoted hack. The Raker's form has minor successes, but it is expected that he might soon show that his recent efforts have not been his right form.—"Moturoa" himself, was bred in France and was by Sea Sick, by the Upas horse Ell from Sat Haf, by Sancy. His dam was Clilice II, by Prestige from Cyanin, by Cylleene from Nenemoo-sha, by Hagioscope from Wenonah, by Galopin. This blood has been very successful in the province where Nenemoo-sha's half-brother Pistol was a great Stud success. Another of the family to do well there was Cykion, the sire of that great colt Tidal.

Tidal sired some good horses in New Zealand despite limited opportunities. Floodlight won the Mitchellson Cup and other good races.

DID NOT DISAPPOINT.
STREAMLINE, winner of the Great Northern Hurdles, did not disappoint by being runner-up to Tidewater on Saturday, for he was having his first race since his Auckland victory over two months ago. It was to be expected that he would weaken a little in the run home, especially after making practically all the running. It is logical to expect Streamline to improve many pounds as the result of that race.

Eligable stablemate has a great chance of joining the select list of winners of the Great Northern and Grand National Hurdles double and he looks an excellent second leg for the Canterbury owner-breeder, Mr J. H. Gray, in his attempt on the National double.

FINISHED STRONGLY.
AUSSIE RA, who came from the clouds to run second in the Winter Hurdles at Trentham last month confirmed the impression that he had gone on improving. Judging by the way he came home on Saturday it looks as if the Taranaki jumper is a force to be contended with in the Grand National Hurdles next week. He is a natural stayer and an improved jumper who has acted as runner-up to Padishah in the Grand National last year when practically a novice at the game.

Prepared by that dozen of old-time jumping riders Peter Johnson, Aussie Ra is in the hands of a man who knows just what is required to win such a gruelling race. Johnson has given Aussie Ra a much longer preparation this year and he has not rushed into the Taranaki Hurdles until he has reached the peak of his form by very gradual steps.

Aussie Ra lacks nothing on the score of breeding, being by that good sire of stayers, Australian Sun from Carine, who was by Maltster (a son of Bill of Portland) from the N.Z. bred mare Field Rose, a sister to True Blue and Royal Artillery. Aussie Ra has won the Taranaki and Egmont Cups and was third in De-faulter's Wellington Cup.

HUNT CLUB'S FIXTURE AT NEW PLYMOUTH
Nominations Close Next Monday
The combined meeting of the Egmont-Wanganui and Taranaki Hunt Clubs at New Plymouth on August 29 and 31 promises again to be a big attraction to Hawke's Bay owners and trainers and the professional representation should be well up to strength.
The two hunt club steeplechases carry prizes of £165, inclusive of 15 trophies, and they are run over a course of about 2 1/2 miles. On the opening day there is also a Trial Hunters' Steeplechase, of £100 and a £10 trophy, run over two miles, this being for maidens. There are also two bracelet events for qualified hunters ridden by amateur horsemen. Both are run over ten furlongs and are for a stake of £10.
On the second day there is a Hack and Hunters' Hurdle race, while there is an open six furlongs race the first day, and an open nine furlongs as well as the sprint the second day. Maidens, hack sprinters, and hack middle-distance horses are well catered for and it should be noted that nominations for all events close with the secretary, Mr C. B. Webster, New Plymouth, on Monday next, August 12, at 9 p.m.
