Anzac Airmen Take Part In Biggest Air Battle Of The War

CHANNEL ATTACK RAGES NINE HOURS

Two Thousand Bombs Fail To tion has passed a resolution to Halt Convoy

(United Press Association-Copyright.) (Received August 9, 9 p.m.)

LONDON, Aug. 9. Germany launched the greatest and most determined air attack against Britain since the outbreak of the war yesterday, when over 300 dive-bombers and fighters carried out a series of attacks against Channel shipping. Over a period of nine hours they attacked in groups of about 80, culminating in a final raid of 150 machines between 4 and 5 p.m. It is estimated that the Germans dropped 2000 bombs, but the convoy continued to steam on. The R.A.F. in reply wiped out at least 53 'planes—the biggest triumph in the Battle for Britain and the largest bag since Dunkirk.

One squadron including New Zealanders and Australians shot down 21. This is Britain's reply to Germany's attempt to blockade Britain by air. Germany lost about 100 skilled personnel and 'planes worth over £500,000 sterling, the wreckage of which was strewn over the waters of the Channel.

Her losses comprised 19 Junkers dive-bombers and 34 Messerschmitt fighters. It is expected that German losses will be even larger, as detailed reports are not yet com-

The first main attack on the convoy occurred between 9 a.m. and 9.30 a.m., in which a Hurricane squadron shot down six dive-bombers and three fighters.

The second attack against the same convoy by a larger formation developed between 11.30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Finally, nearly 150 divebombers and fighters were thrown into the third attack between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m.

JESUS CHRIST: WHAT

DOES IT MEAN?"

(a) As "Jesus," the Saviour, the "one sacrifice for sins," but not a substitute for sinners. (b) As "Christ," the Anointed, the future King over all the earth. (John 1:41, Acts 2:36, 30, Ps. 2:7, 9, Isa 9:6-7, 11: 1-4, Zech. 14:9).

(2) Christ to reward faithful believers with eternal life and inheritance in the Kingdom of God on earth when He returns. (John 10:28, Phil. 3:21, II Tim. 4:8, Matt. 5: 5, 25:34, Rev. 5:9-10).

(3) Bible salvation, therefore, not a present possession but conditional upon belief and obedience and a faithful continuance in well-doing. (Rom. 2:6-7, 16, Matt. 10:22, Rom. 13:11, Matt. 16:27, Rev. 2:7, 26,

"CHARLIE McCARTHY, DETECTIVE"

Gay Mystery Comedy, With "Enemy Agent"

Charlie McCarthy attains the status of a star in his new film, "Charlie McCarthy, Detective," now at the Cosy Theatre, Hastings, and as a stellar performer, he's great in every splinter of his being.

Of course, Edgar Park.

"Charlie McCarthy, Detective," is a murder mystery story, with Char-lie (with Bergen's aid) ultimately unravelling the maze of twisted clues and pinning the crime on the guilty party. The story is unusually sound, and with Bergen's inimitable sound, and with Bergen's inimitable comedy, the combination produces one of the top entertainment offerings of the season. Robert Cummings. Constance Moore and John Sutton furnish the romantic element of the story, with Cummings as a magazine columnist, Miss Moore as Bergen's partner in his night club act, and Sutton as Miss Moore's sweetheart. In other important roles are Louis Calhern, Edgar Kennedy, Harold Huber, Milburn Stone, Samuel S. Hinds, Ray Turner, Alec Craig and Warren Hymer.

Attempts by foreign spies to sections of the season. Robert Cummings as a mine, and gives a fine performance. Margaret Lockwood lends vitality to the part of Jenny, and Emlyn Williams contributes a forceful characterisation as Joe Gowlan.

The greatest care was taken to capture the atmosphere of a typical mining village, and for this purpose the whole unit spent several days in the town of Workington when background scenes were shot. A sei representing the village street, nighly publicised sight" form the dramatic theme sight" form the screenplay, "Enemy Agent," which is the second feature. Although the story is described as fictional, it shows how enemy spies might gain employment in the giant aircraft factories of Southern Calidaria and then carry on sabotage fornia, and the carry of the carr fornia, and then carry on sabotage while trying to steal blue-prints of the bomb-sight and advance warplane designs. Richard Cromwell, Helen Vinson, Robert Armstrong and Marjorie Reynolds are featured.

every splinter of his being.

Of course, Edgar Bergen shares the starring position with Charlie, edging in on every one of Charlie's scenes but not attempting to steal anything from McCarthy. Mortimer Snerd, another of Bergen's family, is also starred.

Of life in England's coal mines.

The story, as is generally known, deals with the hopes and aspirations of a studious young miner, David Fenwick, who sacrifices his ambitions for pretty, shallow, little Jenny Sunley, who lets him down in preference for the unscrupulous self-made Joe Gowlan. This human drama is being played out while the drama is being played out while the mine itself and its impending disaster looms in the background throughout the whole film. TROPHY ROUND

With the shooting season drawing to a close the interest of most mem-bers is mainly confined to the aggre-gate totals at the Hastings Miniature Rifle Club's weekly shoots. The results of these promise to be very close and will probably be decided only when the closing targets are returned.

This week the first round of the frophy saw some very good targets returned with T. Rosenberg at the top of the A grade with a brilliant 99. Mrs McCue with good shooting leads in the women's section and K. Thomson in the B grade.

'EVERYBODY SING" IS GAY MUSICAL

With Comedy "The Girl Downstairs"

A musical that will appeal to opera lovers and swing addicts alike is now at the Municipal magazine columnist, Miss Moore as Bergen's partner in his night club act, and Sutton as Miss Moore's sweetheart. In other important roles are Louis Calhern, Edgar Kennedy, Harold Huber, Milburn Stone, Samuel S. Hinds, Ray Turner, Alec Craig and Warren Hymer.

Attempts by foreign spies to secure plans for one of America's most closely guarded military secrets, highly publicised aeroplane "bombsight" form the dramatic theme of the timely screenplay, "Enemy Agent," which is the second feature. Although the story is described as fictional, it shows how enemy spies is increased and solvent of the part of the part of the part of the scene what the mining of the Municipal alike is now at the Municipal Theatre, Hastings, in "Everybody Sing." Allan Jones and Judy Garburg and the story is provided the atmosphere of a typical mining village, and for this purpose the whole unit spent several days in the town of Workington when background scenes were shot. A set representing the village street, with pit-head and winding gear in the background, was then built. Hundreds of tons of coal, picks, shovels, miners' lamps and other mining equipment were brought to the studios. For the scenes when the mine is flooded thousands of tons of water were released, while the mine is flooded thousands of tons of "Quainty, Dainty Me."

The greatest care was taken to caplaike is now at the Municipal alike is now at the Munic

The plot concerns the antics of a madcap theatrical family who send their daughter, Judy, to Europe because she keeps getting expelled from school for singing "swing" in from school for singing "swing" in classes. Judy, realising that her family has "gone broke," sneaks off the boat, joins forces with her family's singing chef, Jones, and they put on a musical show. It's a hit and the family is saved from the poorhouse

"The Girl Downstairs," the second feature, is placed in Switzerland with the colourful background of the Nationale Theatre and the Cafe Metropole. The story is a gay narrative of love and mirthful adventures shared by a smart young man-about-town and a beautiful scullery maid. Franchot Tone appears as the cosmopolitan architect pears as the cosmopolitan architect who falls lightly in love with Rita Johnson only to transfer his affec-tions to the scullery maid (Fran-ciska Gaal) working in her home.

"U-BOAT 29," VIVID ENTERTAINMENT

Conrad Veidt And Valerie Hobson

The headlines come to flaming life in "U-Boat 29," which is now showing at the Regent Theatre, Hastings. It provides in vivid actuality a picture of wartime England desperately battling enemy spies and submarines. Stirringly dramatic as "U-Boat 29" is, the new film is as remarkable for its vivid character studies as it is for its action-tense narrative and breath-takingly beautiful scenic shots.

With Conrad Veidt, Valerie Hobson, and Sebastian Shaw featured, "U-Boat 29" relates a story of worldwide significance, told, for the most part, in an out-of-the-way part of the world and concerned with only three, major characters. By thus limiting himself in space and in treatment, Director Michael Powell treatment, Director Michael Powell treatment, Director Michael Powell thought best field to year the property at Frasertown was done up and it can now be said that the property is a credit. "The hounds this year are a credit to the Huntsman. Hearty thanks are due to our Master, Mr A. J. has achieved a vitality and an atmosphere of significant disaster. Veidt is seen as an enemy submarine com-mander who leaves his home port under sealed orders, only to lear that he must make contact with young schoolmistress on one of the lonely Orkney Islands, to the north of the Scottish coast.

Veidt, one of the world's greatest screen actors, is superb in the diffi-cult role of enemy agent. An un-sympathetic role at best, he invests his characterisation of the spy with a humaneness which wins audience sympathy and understanding. As the young schoolmistress, Valerie Hobson outshines even her brilliant performance in "Clouds Over

How To Knit For

THESE ARE THE DIRECTIONS FOR KNITTING THE STANDARD SERVICE SOCK

The standard service sock is the simplest type of sock to knit, and the one best suited to the requirements of the Services. If you follow the directions given below you may be certain of having a good pair of sox.

All wool for socks should be shrunk before winding by tying each skein in several places, then steeping it in hot water, allowing it to cool and then drying it on the line.

The leg: Cast on 56 stitches, very loosely (top of sock should stretch to 16 inches. 20 on first needle, 16 on second needle, 20 on third needle (Cast on 60 stitches for larger sock). Knit 2 purl 2 until work measures 5 inches. Continue in plain knitting until leg measures 13 inches, including welt.

It strengthens the heel to work in a thread of 2-ply wool.

The flap: Halve stitches. Puth half of the stiches on to one needle, and the rest on the other two. The first stitch is always slipped whilst knitting the heel flap. With right side of work towards you, but these 28 stitches, purl back. Repeat these two rows until flap measures about 2¾ inches. (24 rows).

N.B.—On a knit row slip the first stitch as if to knit; on a purl row slip the first stitch as if to knit; on a purl row slip the first, purl 11, turn, slip 1, purl 7, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip 4 first, purl 19, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 13, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 15, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 16, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 17, purl 2 together, purl 1; turn, slip the first, purl 10, slip 1, knit 1, pass slipped stitch over knitted, knit 1; turn, slip the first, purl 10, slip 1, knit 1, pass slipped stitch over knitted, knit 1; turn, slip the first, purl 10, slip 1, knit 1, pass slipped stitch over knitted,

Pick up 14 stitches on side of flap, and slip on 9 of the stitches on heel needle. Knit across 28 on front needle, pick up 14 stitches on side of Materials: 4 ply fingering. Four to end. Knit one plain row. Repeat No 11 needles pointed at both ends. Tight knitters should use No. 10 each side needle. Knit plain until the sock measures 9 inches from heel, then commence toe.

This makes an 11 inch sock.

Joins should not be knotted; any lump may be painful, even on the leg under the gaiters. Unravel wool in half and knit together half of old and half of new for several stitches. Lightly darn in ends. In finishing off toe, do not graft tightly; toe should be as elastic as rest of sock. Darn ends of wool lightly up and down (not across) sock, and make sure no knot can be felt, by putting one hand inside heedle, pick up 14 stitches on side of flap, then knit the remaining 9 on heel needle. Knit one plain row, pull wool tightly at sides to avoid a gap.

To decrease: *Knit to within 3 of the first needle, knit 2 together, knit 1, knit across front needle. Third needle, knit 1, slip 1, knit 1, pass slipped stitch over knitted one, knit 1½ inches.

NOT OF WORKS! NOT OF WORKS!

NOT OF WORKS! It simply THUNDERS out of God's Word that salvation is NOT OF WORKS, yet hundreds and thousands of people are still seeking peace with God through their own labours. Are YOU LABOURING, to live like a Christian should live, in order to merit YOUR salvation? Friend, you will never find peace THAT WAY. Are you heavy-laden with the knowledge of your own failures and sins? Friend, STOP! Know you not that a Saviour lives? JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Hear what HE says: "Come unto ME all ye that LABOUR and are HEAVY-LADEN and I will give you REST." "I am the WAY." EVERYONE who comes to Christ for salvation finds rest for their souls.

WAIPAWA.

Waipawa members of the Third Echelon at present home on leave were the guests of honour at a complimentary social held in the Waipawa Municipal Theatre and organised by the Waipawa Committee and the Waipawa and District Branch of the R.S.A. The men were Messrs. T. M. Sheeran, E. L. MacGregor, N. Fairley, J. Gair, G. Weston, R. B. Boden, H. D. Petherick and J.

The evening was largely attended on from the surrounding districts. A delightful savoury supper was served by members of the ladies'

The evening opened with the sing-ing of the National Anthem, followby Mr J. Barker, with Mrs Strang at the piano. Items by a party of boys from Te Aute College, includ-"The Maori Marching Song" and "There Will Always Be An England," were popular with the large audience and received rounds of applause. The guests of the evening were then invited on to the stage by the Mayor (Mr F. Eagle), following which the Union Jack was unfurled the control of the principle of the control of the con o the strains of "Rule Britannia."

Red Cross Appeal Mr Eagle congratulated the people Waipawa and district for their splendid response to the Red Cross Appeal conducted during the past few weeks, when an amount in excess of £2000 had been raised.
Continuing, Mr Eagle said that it was a pity that the Red Cross Fund had been so largely over-subscribed, for it appeared that a large sum in corrections that was required is now n hand, but could not be used for any purpose other than that for which it had been raised. In a few which it had been raised. In a few weeks, however, an appeal would be launched for funds for patriotic purposes, which could be used for all needs which a soldier might have and he asked that all support possible be given by the public.

In conclusion, Mr Eagle congratulated the guests of the evening on the splendid spirit they had shown in answering the call of their Empire.

That the amount raised was not in That the amount raised was not in excess of what would be required was stated by Mr A. E. Jull, M.P., in his opening remarks. Something over 50,000 men had so far enlisted in New Zealand, and many more would probably be required before the struggle was over, and every penny that had been raised would be required for their comfort and required for their comfort and

Sterling Work

"We must always remember," con-tinued Mr Jull, "the way in which people in the Homeland are facing people in the Homeland are facing up to a prospect of an invasion with a spirit which will long live in the history of the Empire." The Dominions were also doing sterling work to assist the Mother Country in her war effort. In civilian life, too, everyone could assist, some by making munitions, others by producing those things so necessary for the welfare of our men.

Each man was then presented with a gift from the Waipawa Welfare Committee, and also from the Maoris from Tapairu Pa, this latter expression of goodwill being received with applause from the audience. The presentation was made by Mr Jull, and suitable response was made by Lance-Corporal N. Fairley on behalf of the recipients.

At today's price, the purchase of a Morris Eight 4-door Saloon gives you a valuable asset, which with normal care will actually appreciate in value. In addition, its economy is such that you get maximum mileage with the minimum demand on the country's petrol.

This car is English. Its spacious interior has plenty of room for four big people while a large exterior compartment carries all the luggage. It has synchro-mesh gears, safety glass and superb hydraulic brakes.

In appearance this Morris is smartly workmanlike; its comfort is deep and its appointments in the best of taste. Its engine develops greater horsepower than any other Eight and provides a measure of speed, mobility and climbing power that outpaces all competitors. In fact, the Morris Eight is a very fine motor-car and at the price is easily the best value for money of any light car on the market today.

Choose a Morris Eight . . . it's a sound asset that will serve you and still serve the National economy.

THE DEFENSIVE OFFENSIVE

Like a dog at a rat-hole, Great Britain is poised and ready for whatever may emerge. The great epic of the Channel on Thursday proves conclusively that the Old Country is strung to the highest pitch of preparedness and determination to deal thoroughly with any enemy attack.

One can imagine the elation with which the Germans sent out their fighters and bombers to deal with a convoy in those narrow waters, and one can readily understand the tremendous effect on the German morale had such an attack been successful. But the proportion of German air casualties to British was more than three to one, and yet once more we may have the quiet satisfaction of knowing that the skill and daring of our pilots far exceed those of their opponents.

It is inevitable that German reports, which have been little other than a tissue of lies for a long time past, will make the most of the damage inflicted on the ships in the convoy, being careful to camouflage the indisputable fact that their airmen are no match for ours, man to man.

It is not too much to conjecture that this battle in the English Channel was by way of being a trial of strength. According to the recent boasts of the Germans, their big attack was supposed to have been launched on Thursday, and yet again it would seem that something has gone wrong with the schedule. The oftener the enemy can be outwitted and hindered in the gallant fashion illustrated by this fight over the sea, the more the enemy will hesitate to risk everything

By now the Nazis know that they are opposed by a will as strong as their own. There is a something behind the British will that the Nazis will never understand. That something is the Briton's inherited instinct to regard it as an utter absurdity that he can ever be beaten on his home ground. On the one hand there is the German drive for power by ruthless domination and a disregard of all the rules of warfare; and on the other is the quizzical British surprise that anyone should dare to set foot on British soil and the cheerful and yet profound determination to make such a thing for ever impossible.

The larger German strategy in the war so far has been to seek out and attack the weak spot, pursue their favourite method of "infiltration" and go round the obstacles rather than make frontal attacks upon them. Such strategy is clever, and it works-when there are weak spots. The tragic monument which was once the "impregnable" Maginot Line is proof that great objectives can be taken by being left alone. It is not Germany's way to fight a straight fight. She first of all saps the morale of the people by espionage and Fifth Column tactics and then, on the basis of information supplied, strikes below the belt and as hard as she can. (The Belgian border was below France's belt.) Having disabled her enemy by foul means, she proceeds to dictate terms.

But the picture is entirely different in the case of Great Britain. There are certainly ways round (such as via Eire), but the stubborn fact remains that the essential objective is an island, girt about with strength, manned by those eager and ready to give more than they take-and with not a weak loophole anywhere. Even the vulnerable "heel of Achilles" cannot be found in the British defences. Turn the island round any way they like, the Germans are in the position of the puppy in the presence of the hedgehog. The guns are bristling from every fort and, as they know, the skies are even more dangerous than the sea or the land.

It is a "bonny pickle" for even the modern Napoleonplus who calls himself Fuhrer. He is like the expert confronted by an unknown mine of new design, who must destroy it or be himself destroyed. At the first touch of the hand of the invader the Old Country is ready to burst into a blaze of destruction which will teach the Huns their lesson once and for all and rid the world of the tyranny of brute force. We have learned enough from the small battles around the British coasts to know that the Germans can never win the Gardener's Luck Nearly six years ago a suburban housewife, while tidying a flower bed in her garden, had the misfortune to lose a ring of considerable value. In the ensuing search that bed was turned over during the next few days, more thoroughly than it had ever been before, but there was no trace of the missing ring, which lay hidden until recently. The owner went out to pick a few early primroses, and, having done so, improved the moment by loosening the soil around the roots of some of the plants. She had been working only for a short period when, to her sur-prise and very great delight, she brought up on one of the tines of the fork the ring which she had long ago given up for lost.

"Air attacks on this convoy began this morning and were renewed at intervals throughout the day. The results of the enemy bombing attacks are not fully known, but several ships have received considerable damage, the extent of which it is not yet possible to ascertain. A number of survivors and injured have already been landed.

"The attacking enemy forces," adds the communique, "consisted of a large number of dive-bombers accompanied by single and twin-engine fighters. As each attack developed, the enemy formations were heavily engaged by squadrons of our fighters. Gratification at the increased production of coal, especially during the past three or four months, was expressed by the Minister of Mines (the Hon. P. Webb) in an interview to-night.

"In May last," said Mr Webb, "I made a statement to the effect that productive capacity of our collieries was adequate to fulfil the industrial transport and domestic needs of the community and that, with real cooperation and earnest endeavour on the part of all engaged in the industry, I was confident that our problems would soon be overcome.

"There is no need for me to go back over the factors which caused the temporary shortage of coal on the eve of winter. Motor Trade Federation's Claim

BAD EFFECT ON INDUSTRY

By Telegraph—Press Association WELLINGTON, Aug. 9.

"Evidence is growing of the urgent need for the immediate revision of the Government's policy with regard to the rationing of petrol," stated the New Zealand Motor Trade Federation, which is the parent body representing every phase of the motor industry in New Zealand.

"While fully appreciating that the war requires the maximum effort and sacrifice on the part of every citizen, this Dominion Federation has been and is of the opinion that to reduce the petrol consumption in New Zealand below the level necessary to maintain essential services and permit reasonable private and public transport facilities is not in the best interests of New Zealand, Great Britain, or the

"It was for the purpose of stating this viewpoint that the New Zealand Motor Trade Federation sought an interview with the Minister of Finance (the Hon. W. Nash) in the hope that they would be able to impress on the Government the serious effect of its petrol rationing policy as applying to the public, the motivation and the garage trade, the petrol and other allied industries, also to the employees of those industries.

Increased Exports

"The Minister's attention was also drawn to the recent appeals made by the British Government to manufacturers in Great Britain to maintain and even increase their exports to assist in keeping Great Britain's war effort at the maximum.

"The deputation said that the motor industry fully appreciated the need to conserve petrol for war purposes and that, indeed, it had used every endeavour to eliminate all unnecessary usage. There was a point, however, where the restriction of petrol would defeat its own ends as a contribution to the war. If it were imposed to such an extent that it resulted in the partial wrecking of the second largest industry in New Zealand, created widespread unemployment in New Zealand and prevented the support of Britain's future policy?"

No Petrol Shortage.

"It was also stated that, according to information available to the Federation, there is no shortage of petrol in the world to-day nor any general lack of shipping to carry it. A study of the facts must convince any impartial observer that the Government's handling of the petrol situation over the past 11 months has been hasty and ill-advised.

"Illegal Tactics And Disgusting Language"

RECENT NAPIER GAME

Last Saturday's senior Rugby match at Napier between Pirates and Tech-High was the subject of strong comment at last night's meeting of the management committee of the Hawke's Bay Rugby Union at Napier.

"Some features of the game were absolutely disgusting," said Mr N. A. McKenzie. He referred to several instances of illegal tactics and said that one quite serious injury had resulted from this cause. One man was waving his arms

The chairman (Mr B. Tweedie) said that the game was one that he would not like to see repeated. If such tactics were continued, they would lose the patronage of the public, and in addition parents would not be anxious to let their boys take part in the games.

At 3 p.m. Tech-High will have Havelock North as their opponents. Tech-High, also level at the top of the ladder, suffered a setback last Saturday at the hands of Pirates and will no doubt be out to make amends to-day. Sir,—Kindly allow me space to comment on a report from Hastings on "spent rifle bullets," which appeared in Saturday's "Herald." The report reads that there is 50lb. of lead and nickel, value 15/-, in 1000 rounds of .303 ammunition. To be correct, the weight of a case containing 1000 rounds of .303 ball ammunition is roughly 70lb. The case when empty is 12lb. (ounces omitted); 1000 empty shells weigh 25lb. The weight of cordite charges, paper and string is not less than 6lb. The bullet weight per 1000 rounds is therefore not more than 27lb.

Fully half of high-velocity bullets explode on impact and are largely lost. Under most favourable conditions less than 13lb. per 1000 would be recovered. Eight china eggs, all as shiny and new-looking as the day they were placed to fool a fowl, provided a laugh to other workers, but a defunct Alsatian, recently buried, brought forth strong language from the same men when they uncovered it.

A worker yesterday proudly exhibited his "finds" to the reporter. In a few minutes he had turned up two horse-shoes, a mouse-trap, and a tin of boot polish.

Minor Accident At Hastings

A motor-cyclist had a fortunate escape from serious injury last night at about nine o'clock when the vehicle on which he was travelling in an easterly direction along Heretaunga Street, Hastings, came into collision with a car turning to the right out of King Street. Flung off his machine by the impact, the cyclist escaped with bruises. No one in the car was injured.

The running board of the car sustained most of the force of the blow and was torn loose; the vehicle was otherwise little damaged and was able to proceed. The motor-cycle, a light model, was badly buckled about the front wheel and handle-bars.

THE NAPIER JOINT THREE TIMES AS MANY COULD HAVE BEEN SOLD

Six Thousand Mystery Parcels Go To Benefit Hastings Patriotic Funds

"We could easily have disposed of 20,000 parcels," commented Mr R. P. Tabley, honorary secretary of the Hastings Sports Bodies Patriotic Committee, yesterday afternoon, when he told the "Daily Mail" that approximately 6500 parcels had been sold in the mystery parcel drive organised by the committee to help patriotic funds. As a result, the Mayor's fund will benefit to the extent of about £325-a remarkable achievement.

As all the work involved in collecting, wrapping, and selling the parcels was on a voluntary basis, this total in its entirety will be contributed to the fund. "A wonderful band of assistants lent their help," Mr Tabley remarked.

In view of the fine response accorded the drive, and since to the executive's regret hundreds of people were unable to obtain parcels yesterday, it is thought possible that a similar effort may be organised at a later date. To judge by the demand for parcels yesterday such a move would be welcomed for the novelty of the idea as well as for the help given

In consequence, he had to rely upon the purchases of wiser friends to discover the contents of the tantalising parcels.

In the long run, consequently, the drive has been all the more successful because of the delay.

A feature of the event was the speedy disposal of the entire stock during the early part of the day. As the town would naturally be busier later in the afternoon and at night it is safe to assume that several times the 6500 parcels could have been sold had they been available.

Mr Tabley mentioned yesterday that there had been some inquiries from the holders of theatre seats, as these were dated for use from a fortnight ago when the drive was originally planned. These, he said, would be re-dated by the theatres concerned to be available for use now.

Did Not Make the Grade

Transferred to open company, Kaiwaka was badly beaten in the June Hurdles at Wanganui and he also failed miserably in the Winter Hurdles at Trentham, while he was also well beaten (though possibly a little unluckily) at Riccarton last week

Tidewaiter made his debut as a hurdler at Trentham last month when he came from the clouds to run fourth to Pekoe. Improved by that experience, Tidewaiter won the Corunna Hurdles (13 miles) in a canter and he made the opposition look cheap last Saturday in the Longeach Hurdles, run over the same distance.

It would seem that Kaiwaka is paying for his consistent form and also for the honour of being a half-brother by Chief Ruler to Clarion Call, On performances, both on the flat and over hurdles, Tidewaiter could give him half a stone or more, and it will surprise if the Grand National Hurdles, race next Thurs. Great Jewel May Shine

In The Sprint (By MOTUROA)

After the break of several weeks Hurdles is not easy to understand, despite the fact that Tidewaiter's second success over the battens was achieved after the National weights were declared. Tidewaiter is in recipt of a pound from his stablemate, yet he had proved his ability as a hurdler by running fourth and first in his two starts at Trentham. Tidewaiter has really good class flat form to his credit. His main successes have been in the Avondale Cup, the Parliamentary Handicap and his triple dead-heat for first in the Islington Handicap at Riccarton twelve months ago. He has won other races, too, and has been a really consistent performer.

On the other hand, Kaiwaka, who has been extra consistent in minor company has only a dead-heat for first at Waverley as a major placing in open ranks. #### PADISHAH CLAIMS MOST FRIENDS

NATIONAL STEEPLES SURVEYED

DIFFICULT RACE

Flashlight Has A Pull In The Weights

(By MOTUROA)

Hawke's Bay partisans of the Hastings champion Padishah were rather disconsolate after the improving southerner, Flashlight, came from behind to beat the topweight in the Homeby Steeples. Reports of that race suggest that the local amateur, young George Beatson, was not seen at his best, but he confounded the critics 12 months ago when he hooped the Chief Ruler gelding home a street ahead of the opposition.

On Tuesday Padishah and his amateur rider have a far more difficult proposition ahead of them. That is granted. However, it was most heartening to read of Padishah's schooling bout at Riccarton on Saturday morning.

Padishah beat Ballybrit, Trisox, and Slayer for pace on the flat and over every fence. It is obvious, then, that Owner-trainer Jack Hennah's champion has improved with his race at the Hunt meeting last week, when he was slovenly at several fences.

It is impossible to get away from facts. Mr Hennah has had years of experience with jumpers. He knows what is required of a National winner and he is certainly jealous of his remarkable undefeated record in Nationals.

If the Hastings sportsman thinks Padishah can do the trick on Saturday there will be few who will doubt his judgment. Padishah should be favourite.

And Padishah will not start unless his owner is confident. It is possible to be carried away with final trials, but the wind-up schooling bouts at Riccarton in the past have been remarkably reliable.

fectly. Both, incidentally, had won the Homeby Steeples a few days before. In 1932 Thurina's final trials im-In 1932 Thurina's final trials impressed and two years before that Snowfall schooled well. The most spectacular jumping in recent years was done by Beau Cavalier and his display is one that I will never forget. At the brush fence on the home turn he jumped nearly 40 feet and that was argued at the time as being a New Zealand record.

These horses all won well, but it is possible that Clarion Call, or Flashlight, or Slayer, or Erination will be as impressive to-day.

Still, if the report of Padishah's jumping on Thursday was accurate, his display would take a lot of beating and he is likely to improve as much as anything in the field with his jumping.

Brilliant, But . . . There have been few more brilliant jumpers in the Dominion since Beau Cavalier than the Awapuni gelding Clarion Call, and it is significant that "Snowy" Morris has been content to give the prelimination. nificant that "Snowy" Morris has been content to give the preliminary meetings a go-bye since that gelding was unlucky to fall in the Wellington Steeples and later run third in the Winter Hurdles at Trentham a month ago.

Clarion Call won the Grand National Steeples two years ago and never once looked like being beaten. It was noted then, that, unlike on other and easier courses, the Hunt.

It was noted then, that, unlike on other and easier courses, the Hunting Song gelding was far more cautious at the stiffer Riccarton fences. He did not "chance" them as he has done on other occasions and he is likely to be as careful again on Tuesday.

Riccarton reports leave the impression that Erination is fit. He jumped well earlier in the week and there is no doubt he is a really great horse, but it is against him in what looks like being a most difficult and exacting race, that he has not been over fences since he was brought down in the Great Northern Hurdles when he broke his nose.

Bad Habit Learned

experience over National country is worth a great deal.

However, Slayer made his first mistake as a jumper when he ran off at Cutts's on Saturday. That may have been simply a fluke, but one cannot overlook the fact that habits are quickly learned in jumping races.

Slayer may do the same again on Slayer may do the same again on Tuesday when the pressure is applied. If he does not, then he is the brilliant stayer of the field who will be the undoing of Padishah.

On the opening day there is also a Trial Hunters' Steeplechase, of filo and a filo trophy, run over two miles, this being for maidens. There are also two bracelet events for qualified hunters ridden by amatcur horsemen. Both are run over ten furlongs and are for a stake of filo.

On the second day there is a Hack and Hunters' Hurdles race, while there is an open six furlongs race the first day, and an open nine furlongs as well as the sprint the second day. Maidens, hack sprinters, and hack middle-distance horses are well catered for and it should be noted that nominations for all events close with the secretary, Mr. C. B.
