Stubborn Resistance Checks Move To The Channel

SIEGFRIED LINE TROOPS CALLED IN TO HELP

British And French Withdraw To New Positions Near Valenciennes

SITUATION SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received May 27, 9.45 p.m.)

LONDON, May 27.

The general impression in French military and political circles is that the situation has slightly improved in the last 24 hours. The German High Command, shortly before midnight, claimed that German troops from Gravelines (15 miles south-west of Dunkirk) had entered Calais after hard fighting, but military circles in London repeated the statement that Calais was still in Allied hands.

Despite the German occupation of Boulogne, the French military spokesman said that stubborn Allied resistance had halted the main German advance towards the Channel.

A French radio commentator said that the Germans were hurrying reinforcements northward from the Swiss frontier and from the Siegfried Line. He added that the number of German divisions on the northern French and Belgian front was six-fold greater than the forces operating in the gap between the Allied armies. These forces had presumably launched an offensive against the Belgian positions, to which British troops were hastening.

There is a great lack of news from all quarters. The French morning communique states: "The Allied troops have withdrawn from the Valenciennes region to previously prepared positions. The enemy, strongly reinforced, are continuing attacks in the region of Menin, regardless of losses. The Allies are holding the enemy advance in this sector."

A foreign broadcast to-day said that German 'planes, submarines, speedboats, mineboats, and destroyers incessantly patrolled the straits between Folkestone and Boulogne. It is authoritatively stated that if the word "British" replaced "German" the statement would be 100 per cent. true.

The French military spokesman in Paris said yesterday that the Allies had repulsed all German attacks in the region of Courtrai, Belgium, on the Lys River. The French were still fighting in the Channel port of Boulogne, and the enemy had not threatened Calais.

"The general situation must still be considered grave," he added, "but the French High Command is full of confidence about the future.

Zealanders. The recapture of this strong defensive position by the New Zealand Rifle Brigade during the days of the Allied advance in 1918 was regarded as a brilliant feat of arms, flavoured with something of the romance of the old days; for to effect the capture of Le Quesnoy the "Dinks" had to scale walls which had withstood assaults since mediaeval days. Le Quesnoy, like Landrecies and Le Cateau, stands at the junction of important roads, and must be passed on the Germans' advance to Cambrai and Arras.

The Somme district as a whole is rich in associations for veterans of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force; for it was in that district that the division won its most valued battle honours. The Somme River is an important link in France's in-Landrecies, preparing the way for a breaking-off of contact which completely mystified von Kluck, the enemy commander.

Historians credit Smith-Dorrien with the move that turned von Kluck from his direct course, and kind from the first value in war. Another river almost equally important as a military objective is the Aisne, behind which the Germans in 1914 consoli-

ROPEWORKS

VALUABLE ASSET IN WARTIME

In the largest ropeworks in the world, which is in Northern Ireland, I watched deft fingers working swiftly and without pause as hundreds of women and girls produced a valuable military accessory, the camouflage net. This is of ne-cessity a handicraft, for even in these days of machines which seem able to tackle any job no machine has been built which can make these useful nets. And so hundreds of nimble fingers weave on ceaselessly (writes a special correspondent of "The Times").

ROMANCE, COMEDY, AND MELODY

Bobby Breen In "Escape To Paradise"

Riotous romance, exciting adventure and tuneful melodies against a rich tropical background of Latin America are brought to the screen in Bobby Breen's latest starring film, "Escape to Paradise," which will open to-day at the State Theatre, Hastings. The eighth pic ture in which the clever young singer has been headlined, "Escape To Paradise" is said to top all his previous efforts both in his indivi dual performance and in the vehicle and support given him. Heading the list of featured players is Kent Taylor, who, as an American playboy who loves to loaf, gives a stand out portrayal. Roman tic interest is furnished by Marla Shelton as a South American senorita; comedy and villainy are pro-vided by Joyce Compton and Robert O. Davis. Others in the cast include such expert character players as Pedro De Cordoba, Rosina Galli, Frank Yaconelli and Anna Deme

It's really a new Bobby Breen who nakes his appearance in "Escape to Paradise." In a real boy role—that of Roberto, a happy-go-lucky South American lad whose penchant for exaggeration is always getting him and his friends into trouble—Bobby rives a rollicking portrayal. The half-dozen numbers he sings are all of Latin-American flavour. The picture, an RKO Radio release, was produced by Sol Lesser. Erle C. Kenton directed from a screenplay by Weldon Melick. Herbert Lewis and Ian Hunter wrote the original

Theatre, Napier.
Starring Kay Kyser with his orchestra, and Adolphe Menjou, the picture breaks sharply away from the conventional boy-meets-girl success story theme on which most band leader films have been based. With engaging candour, the producers admit that such a theme is threadharm and develop their plot threadbare—and develop their plo around the ingenious thesis that i impossible to find any other

Consequently, the story deals with the hilarious but futile efforts of a big Hollywood film company to make a picture with Kyser and his band, and in so doing it offers gay and laughter-packed entertainment. Kyser and his musicians portray themselves throughout and Menjou has the role of the luckless producer assigned to the task of bringing Kyser to the screen.

"That's Right—You're Wrong" crowds an immense amount of snappy new music, Hollywood satire and uproarious novelty entertainment into its footage.

"MURDER AT THE VILLA ROSE"

Mystery Story By A. E. W.

one of the most absorbing mystery stories ever written by a master of the craft; this is A. E. W. Mason's "Murder At the Villa Rose," commencing to-morrow at the Regent Fheatre, Napier. The opening of the story is most ingeniously presented. We are intro-duced to the facts and clues of the case—a wealthy old lady murdered during a spiritualist seance and the ersons concerned. Then Inspector Hanaud proceeds to unravel a story hat holds interest without a break ight up to the final arrest, in itself a complete surprise.

Keneth Kent is Hanaud, an excellent rendering of a most colourful character; Judy Kelly gives further proof of her abilities as a dramatic actress, and Antoinette Cellier, Peter Murray Hill and Walter Rilla round off the cast of a gripping, skilful picture.

The choice of Keneth Kent to portray this slightly flamboyant, ma-ture sleuth who seems more pre-occupied with the needs of the inner nan than the case in hand, is ex-

He resents questions and follows his clues in a seemingly haphazard manner; suddenly the pieces of the puzzle fit together and the picture is completed by an arrest that will amaze everyone. Here is a story that in setting and material is far removed from the cares of our present daily life and is consequently—excellent entertainment.

Less Linen.

Inevitably there will be less linen available to the civilian consumer at home, and fine damask tablecloths and other articles will be scarce; but there will be general agreement that Service needs and the export trade must come first. Linen goods are the second largest individual export to the United States and they secure valuable dollar currency.

For the Enterprising Housewife

RABBIT SEASON IS HERE AGAIN: MAKE THE MOST OF THESE TEMPTING RECIPES

With rabbits now becoming plentiful the housewife has a happy substitute for the meat problem. Rabbits lend themselves so readily to cool, tempting moulds for warm days and hot tasty stews for the colder days that they can become a positive boon for the householders who like fresh rabbits.

There are, of course, people who have a distinct dislike for them, but for the others we suggest a trial of these very good recipes. Most especially would we recommend the filling for sandwiches which can be so quickly made from any rabbit left from the meal to form a change in the kiddies' luncheon

RABBIT MOULD

One rabbit, 2 dessertspoons of gelatine, 1 onion, pepper and salt.

Wash a young rabbit in salted water, cut up and put in a sauce-pan with 2 cups water, pepper, salt and a little sliced onion, ½lb diced bacon. Cook till tender. Remove bones, cut meat thin, and arrange in a square mould or basin.

Dissolve two dessertspoons of gelatine in the hot stock and pour over the rabbit. Garnish with shredded lettuce and slices of tomato. Slices of hard boiled egg may be placed in the bottom of the mould first.

teaspoonful mixed heros, 2 cloves, all tied in piece of muslin, 30z fat bacon, 1oz flour, 1 onion, salt and pepper, 1½ pints of water.

Joint the rabbit neatly. Fry for a few minutes the bacon, cut into squares and then place in the casserole. Quickly fry the rabbit in the bacon fat and transfer it also to the casserole. Then fry the onion a light brown and place in the casserole. Add the flour to the remaining fat and fry until brown. Then stir in some of the water. Mix until smooth. Add the rest of the water, stir and bring to the boil. Pour the liquid over the rabbit and the onion. Then add the salt, pepper, parsley and herbs. Cook in a very slow oven for about 4 hours. Remove the bag of herbs and dish the rabbit neatly with the strained gravy, to which a little browning can be added.

Mothers' Union In Napier ANNUAL MEETING

For New Year ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the annual meeting of St. Andrew's Mother's Union, Napier. The Rev. W. G. Cameron took the service in the church, after which he presided over the gathering in the schoolroom. The secretary read a very comprehensive report on the year's work, the balance-sheet showing a very satisfactory state. Mrs Cameron thanked the secretry for her report.

Mr Cameron also thanked the members for their co-operation in the past and wished them a happy time in the coming year.

Apologies for absence were received from Mrs Anderson and Mrs Miss C. Grant, in a very charming manner, gave a delightful talk on the recent church congress, held Hastings. She told of some intersting speakers and explained about the group discussions and the spiritual help obtained from them. It was decided to hold one of these groups at the July meeting . #### For the Knitting Campaign

I think it would be a grand idea to run the directions for a knitted garment for a week or so. This would save me typing out lots of copies, and I suggest that every Tuesday morning you cut out the pattern from our Page, paste it either in your scrap book, or in any little note book, so as to ensure their not going astray. If you do this, it will simplify matters considerably. So far, the most popular request has been for the scarf pattern.

MAN'S SCARF. MATERIALS .- "Zinnia," "Totem," or any double-knitting wool

(brown preferably), 100zs., knitting needles 1 pair No. 6. MEASUREMENTS.—Length 60 inches; width 12 inches. TENSION.—It is absolutely necessary to work at a tension to produce five stitches to the inch in width.

Cast on 60 stitches. First row: Knit plain. Repeat this row for 60 inches (or length required). Cast off. With a slightly damp cloth and warm iron. Press lightly.

THE FRINGE.—Wind the wool over a piece of cardboard four inches wide, and cut through one edge. Taking five strands together, double them, and using a crochet hook, draw a loop through the end of the scarf. Pass the ends through the loop, and knot firmly. Repeat at even distances along the ends of the

PRAYER AND WORK

"Laborare est orare" (to work is to pray). In these few terse words is summed up the philosophy of ages, whose complete exposition would require volumes.

Last Sunday, all over the Empire, at the request of his Majesty the King, the people gathered together in a common supplication for peace and for the preservation of all those ideals which make peace possible. From the hushed multitudes in the vast cathedrals of the mighty cities of the British Commonwealth to the silent and reverent groups in the little meeting-houses of the backblocks of its far-flung outposts, the same cry went up from the hearts of the people: "Give us peace in our time, O Lord."

But readers of yesterday's news would be at once struck by the significance of what happened in many of the large centres at Home. While, in one part of a city, the crowds knelt in prayer, in others there were to be heard the roar of the blast furnaces, the clang and clatter of steel on steel, and in these murky cathedrals of industry the acolytes wore dungarees and had blackened faces and blistered hands. For organ music they had the screaming of escaping steam and for their anthem the raucous roar of grinding giant machines. But they were at prayer, just as much as the others in the quieter and reputedly holier places. Laborare est orare. When Stradivarius, the famous maker of violins, was complimented by an admirer upon his God-given genius, he replied in effect that violin-making was not entirely a onesided affair, a free gift from God. He said that God could not make men's best without best men to help him. He said: "Not even God could make Antonio Stradivarius violins without Antonio." The moral is clear. Not even God can give us the blessed gift of peace without those strenuous efforts (which include the dungarees and blackened faces) which make peace possible. We can pray best on our feet, armed with the means to prevent war, helping with the best of our powers to realise the gifts that will not come merely as a matter of asking. Laborare est orare.

When some engineers at the mouth of the Mississippi had failed in all their attempts to raise a sunken wreck, when their tackle had broken again and again and they were in despair, it was a young apprentice who suggested the use of great barges moored to the wreck and left there until the mighty ocean tide would put its shoulder under the load, lift it and enable it to be floated inshore.

That co-operation of human and Divine power is still necessary in every endeavour. We may believe in "the Power, not ourselves, that makes for righteousness," but that Power can .nake for righteousness at a speedier rate with the co-operation of those who believe in it. No one will impugn the value of periods of quiet reflection, or the value of the power of mass thinking when it is concentrated on a single issue. But until reflection and thought are realised in action they are so much gossamer at the mercy of any wind that blows. What we need above all to-day are the men of thought who are also men of action and who will lead the way through the material and practical difficulties confronting us.

There is reputedly an unrecorded saying of Christ's which might well be borne in mind now: "Cleave the wood and thou shalt find Me; raise the stone and I am there." This, being interpreted, means-laborare est orare. We shall find the highest we seek when we put forth our best constructive efforts in wood or stone, which might in these days be imagined as ships and guns. The highest, in other words, may be found in the blast furnace as well as in the cathedral. The combination of work and prayer is indivisible. Laborare est orare.

Criticism of Government

Sir,-I wonder if the freedom of the Press will permit criticism of the editorial appearing in this morn-ing's "Daily Mail"? What doubt I vice, I have no intention of passing an opinion regarding conscription except to point out that a similar agitation arose in Australia during the 1914-1918 war. When put to a referendum, conscription was re-jected (on two occasions if my mem-ory serves me right). The result was largely influenced by the soldiers' vote.

was largely influenced by the soldiers' vote.

As imagination cuts no ice I am not concerned with what might or might not have been said in caucus. The only statements that can be relied on are facts. I agree that New Zealanders are capable of thinking for themselves. This was proved when they refused to be led astray in 1935 and in 1938. What is meant by "a Cabinet representing the whole of the people barring subversive elements." What constitutes subversive elements." What constitutes subversive elements a matter of opinion. I would include those who stir up strife in order to make political capital. Others would not include these.

Surely the present Government is the most representative one that we have core had in this country. Due

Praise to the Soldiers

Sir,-This Monday morning's paper conveyed the most reassuring the editorial appearing in this morning's "Daily Mail"? What doubt I have is due to the suppression of the facts and figures given by Mr. Nash in his reply to the critics. Mr. Machen (whoever he might be) describes Mr Nash as a vain, obstinate man and receives more publicity than a Minister of the Crown.

WAR GOVERNMENT NEEDED

Sir Andrew Russell's Critical Comment

"A POLITICAL SPEECH"

"The Dominion needs nothing short of a Coalition War Government; the proposal to form a War Council means nothing at all," declared General Sir Andrew Russell, in conversation with a reporter of the "Daily Mail" last evening.

Referring to the broadcast speech of the Prime Minister

(the Rt. Hon. P. Fraser) on Sunday night, he said that the Premier had given very little satisfaction in regard to the needs of the country for the war effort. He was not explicit and made a point not to commit himself one way or the other. National conscription was vitally necessary in the present

The statement of the Prime Minister that no steps would be taken to introduce national civil and financial conscription unless required was not enough. The country was little the wiser for what Mr Fraser had had to say, for the announcement was inadequate.

In fact, summed up, it was nothing more than a political Continuing, Sir Andrew said he was of the opinion that the mass meeting called for last night at Has meeting called for last night at Has tings should have been held, not-withstanding the announcement of the Prime Minister. It would have been a great opportunity for the citi-zens of the district to air their views zens of the district to air their views concerning the country's war proposals. The question was a vital one. It concerned every man, woman and child in New Zealand and in view of this had to be considered seriously.

"I was very sorry that those behind the meeting at Hastings decided to abandon it," he added.

"What we want urgently is a War

"What we want urgently is a War Cabinet, representative of all sections of the community with no party affiliation. We can go back to party politics later," said Sir Andrew.

Andrew.

A war council, he believed, would be of no value to the Dominion. Similar bodies had been set up in the past and had proved of little use. "I, myself, was a member of a war council 21 years ago and we met only once," he continued.

It was for Cabinet to decide the destiny of the country.

As far as the situation in Europe was concerned it was graver than what was possibly generally realised. "But," commented Sir Andrew," the Allies are not fighting with their backs to the wall—we are fighting hard with our backs to the sea," referring to the summer that the sea," referring to the summer than the sea," referring to the summer than the sea, "referring to the summer than the sea," referring to the summer than the sea," referring to the summer than the sea, "referring to the summer than the sea," referring to the summer than the sea, "referring to the summer than the sea," referring to the summer than the sea, "referring to the summer than the sea," referring to the policy of the country.

LONDON, May 26.

The B.B.C. abandoned the broadcast of Cardinal Hinsley's National Prayer Day sermon from Westminster Cathedral when a woman interjected with cries of "Peace."

Cardinal Hinsley had just said: "There can be no peace," when the woman leapt up shouting. Cardinal Hinsley continued his sermon as if he had not heard the interruption.

Two or three young men lifted the woman and carried her outside, where she was handed to the policy. Cardinal Hinsley later repeated his sermon in a special broadcast by the B.B.C. He issued a statement that with their backs to the wall—we are fighting hard with our backs to the sea," referring to the supremacy of the British Navy.

However, in the meantime, the people of New Zealand were waiting with keen anticipation to learn whether the Government was prepared to do its duty to enable the Dominion to fulfil its obligations to the Empire.

Cardinal Hinsley later repeated his sermon in a special broadcast by the B.B.C. He issued a statement that the interruption was due only to one woman who happened to be near the microphone concerned. It was the result of overwhelming religious emotion and had no political significance.

No police charge will be preferred against the woman.

DOMINION AWARD ASKED FOR

CARPENTERS AND

WAGE RATES

By Telegraph-Press Association.

WELLINGTON, May 27.

WELLINGTON, May 27.

Application for a Dominion award to cover carpenters and joiners engaged on ship work came before the Court of Arbitration to-day. The decision was reserved.

A partial settlement was reached in the Conciliation Council, but the most important questions, including the list of duties for carpenters on ship work, hours of work, and certain clauses of the overtime provisions and wages were referred to the Court for settlement.

The workers claimed a 40-hour five-day week with a minimum rate of 3/- an hour, an increase of 7 percent, over the present rate of 2/93.

The union also claimed that men tain clauses of the overtime provisions and wages were referred to the Court for settlement.

The workers claimed a 40-hour five-day week with a minimum rate of 3/· an hour, an increase of 7 per cent. over the present rate of 2/93. The union also claimed that men ordered back to work on Saturdays should be paid for a minimum of three hours at double time. Overtime in excess of 40 hours a week was claimed at 4/6 an hour for the first three hours, thereafter at 6/- an hour. For all hours worked on Saturdays, holidays, and Sundays, 6/- an hour was sought.

Employers' View.

The employers urged that the clause in the existing award providing for a 44-hour week between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday and 8 a.m. to noon on Saturdays be retained, but with a special provision in the wages clause providing for Saturday work at time and a quarter from 8 a.m. to noon and double time thereafter.

Statement Made By Minister

A special request for the conservation of supplies of paper, card-board and other wrapping material was made to-day by the Minister of Supply (the Hon. D. G. Sullivan).

"Scandinavian countries," said the Minister, "have for many years been large suppliers of paper and of cardboard and woodpulp for the paper and boardmaking trade. Their products have in peace time reached most countries of the world, but in view of the recent developments of the war it seems that a large portion of the world's demand for pulp and paper will focus on the North American continent with a consequent rationing of deliveries.

"At the time that Finland was embroiled in the war with Russia, I contemplated making an appeal to those engaged in manufacture and trade to husband our stocks of paper and cardboard by eliminating their use in all cases where it is not necessary to use them.

AUCKLAND, May 27.

The Government was urged to follow the lead of Great Britain and establish a form of national Government, in a resolution passed by the Auckland Hospital Board to-night. It was contended by a substantial majority of the members that political differences should be dissolved in the present crisis and that the Dominion's war effort should be still further extended.

"This is a properly constituted board, and if any members wish to express their views on questions of home service or defence, I think it is right and proper that they should do so," stated the chairman (Mr Allan Moody).

"It is only by co-operation and by honest and genuine criticism that the best can be obtained from the nation. If anyone can suggest that I have been influenced by political motives, I am going to say that he is a calumniator and a perverter of the truth."

Mr Moody referred to the statements made by the Prime Minister in his broadcast speech on Sunday night and said that he thought that his allegations, which appeared to be mainly directed against the Press, were improper and unjust. He had no brief for newspapers, but if the day arrived when the Press and the voice of the people were stifled, it would be an unhappy state of affairs.

"I took the chair at a meeting held in his Majesty's Theatre last Thursday," Mr Moody continued "It was non-political. In fact, I re-Northcroft stated that ale and stout were practically never prescribed in private hospitals.

The amendment was lost and the resolution was carried, with Mrs Dreaver and Mr Sayegh dissenting.

REQUEST FOR GYMNASIUM

The welfare of the young people of Napier, and particularly the youths and young men, was the subject of a good deal of discussion at last night's meeting of the Napier Borough Council.

A grant towards the provision of a gymnasium was requested by a deputation from the Napier Physical Welfare and Recreation Committee, who maintained that the physical standard of young New Zealanders was far below what it should be, one speaker stating that the council would be astounded if he were permitted to give them facts regarding the numbers of unfit men among army recruits.

Later in the evening Cr. P. F. Higgins referred in strong terms to the vandalism so frequent in public reserves in Napier, and criticised "the undesirable spirit abroad at the present time, especially among the young men."

Introducing the deputation from the Physical Welfare and Recreation Committee, Mr A. D. Lynch said that some building that could be used as a gymnasium was badly needed, especially as the barracks and drill hall were not available since the outbreak of war.

Instructors in all branches of physical culture were available, and the idea was to have a public gymnasium was to have a public gymnasium was badly needed in the town. Mr L. Harris said it might be thought that the present was not a suitable time to raise the question, suitable time to raise the question, but that was not so. It was reported that finality concerning an extension of the lease of the research orchard had not yet been reached, but it is considered likely that an extension of at least one year will be arranged as a result of the negotiations.

The federation drew attention to the clause in the Heavy Traffic Motor Vehicle Regulations, 1940, which provides for only 50 per cent. of the ordinary heavy traffic licence fee being paid by farmers and orchardists, where laden weight does not exceed four tons. Members concerned should see that they obtain cerned should see that they obtain this concession when registering.

Mr. G. T. H. Joll, one of the deputation to Wellington in connection with hail relief to orchardists, furnished a report. General satisfaction was expressed that at last definite, if not altogether satisfying, arrangements had been made for the benefit of those whose fruit had been damaged by the hail.

Intimation was received from the federation that the Hawke's Bay Provincial Conference will be held on August 14. Arrangements were accordingly made for a preliminary meeting to be held on June 7 for the purpose of considering remits and electing 26 delegates to the provincial conference. vincial conference.

The committee resolved to recommend the federation directors to abandon the somewhat expensive Dominion conference this year and to concentrate upon the provincial conferences. It was considered that there was only one major fruit question before members at the present—whether or not they favour the continuance of the present Government purchase scheme—and that this could well be decided at the various provincial gatherings.

KIKIROKI IN FORM

Small Boy Has Dropped In The Weights

By MOTUROA

Mr H. Coyle's handicaps for the apier Steeplechase should give eneral satisfaction and the weightadjuster has presented punters with a problem that will not be easily solved. However, the result should be a good acceptance from owners, and, while there are no real class steeplechasers engaged, the race should be one of the most interesting on the programme on Saturday

Small Boy made his debut as a 'chaser at the recent Poverty Bay meeting when he was awarded 12.10, but he made a bad jump when going well and that put him out of the running. However, it is reasonable to assume that this good Psychology gelding will be all the better for his experience. He has been dropped a stone in the weights and he now meets Kikiroki on 18lbs better terms.

Kikiroki won well on the second day at Gisborne after being unlucky to tip out when leading Makoi the first day. He won very easily and, as he had been off the scene for nearly 12 months, he is likely to be found a much fitter horse on Saturday.

Up Six Pounds

Anini, if anything, has her full share of weight for she has gone up 6lbs for running Makoi to a head in the Te Hapara Steeples at Gisborne. On the handicaps in that race she is meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she is the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race to she work and the meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms. on the handicaps in that race she is meeting Kikiroki on 3lbs worse terms, but she did not race the second day when Kikiroki won. She could have reasonably got in with a pound or two less here.

Good Sport ran well and jumped proficiently at Foxton while his condition lasted. The grey appears to be standing up to his tasks in good style and it will surprise if he is not seen to better effect at the coming meetings.

Skerryvore fell at Awapuni and would have to improve a lot on his running there though this field is considerably weaker, but Royal Toast, who easily won the Hawke's Bay Hunt Cup and ran a good third in the Manawatu Hunt Cup in his last two starts, is nicely treated with 9.5.

Acron and Tigreterre will both with 9.5.

Acron and Tigreterre will both probably need a race or two and, at all events, would have to improve on any form they have shown to date, but Dozie Boy is a good jumper and a sound stayer. He was finishing on for fourth to Harbour Bar at Awapuni and the extra quarter of a mile here will not trouble him.

Showed Pace

Wakarara, who is engaged in the sprints at Napier Park this week-end, showed a lot of pace at Foxton to make the running with the speedy Heroic Maid, Wakarara may find the company less difficult at Greenmeadows.

On paper, it would seem that Small Boy would only have to improve in his fencing to be one of the hardest to beat, but Kikiroki and Anini are two fast and clever jumpers and, for that reason, they are likely to find greater favour than the tenyeight the topweight.

success at Te Rapa, where he de-monstrated his ability not only as a jumper, but also as a fine stayer. An analysis of the pedigree of this requirements of a race like the Great Northern Hurdles and he is undoubtedly one of the most promising young stars in the jumping firmament.

Sight must not be lost of the fact that he has been bumped up 14lbs for his dual success, but then Jew-elled Girdle is built to carry weight and the Northern field looks not one

VALMINT certainly deserves a lucky break in the Cornwall Handicap at Ellerslie on Sat-urday. In 1937 he ran Boom-erang to half a head; Cheval de Volee beat him a head the following year; while last year he ran Royal Appellant to a short neck. Lomint, the dam of Valmint, won the Cornwall Handicap in 1927. Royal Appellant and Cheval de Volce, the last two winners of the Cornwall Handicap, are engaged again oit stronger than that which opposed him in the two miles Hamilton Hurdles. He still has 4lbs less to carry than in the second win at Te Rapa and, while other horses have certainly been dropped in the weights, it cannot be said that Jewlled Girdle has more weight than that he is entitled to.

Provided he has gone on the right way since the Waikato meeting Jewelled Girdle should just about

HAS HE IMPROVED?

STREAMLINE, who challenges
Jewelled Girdle in the favouritism, was fairly beaten by the Kilbroney gelding at Te Rapa and, although his admirers hold out fond opes that he will be a better horse n Saturday, it cannot be denied that he will need to improve sub-stantially on his Waikato form to beat this rival.

It cannot be lightly passed by that Streamline, a close second to Jew elled Girdle the first day over 1 the two miles, beaten by more than a dozen lengths. On Saturday he will meet Jewelled Girdle on only 6lbs better terms, but there will be an extra half mile to run and that may not improve Streamline's I am loath to pass by Erination. He won this race two years ago with 10.5 and has since proved himself a magnificent weight-carrier. His 11.11 on Saturday looks to be a very reasonable assessment when his recent good form on the flat is taken into consideration. In his last start over hurdles he carried 13.5 and ran

BEGORRAH'S CHANCES ARE BRIGHT

WITH an ounce of luck at the Manawatu winter meeting the greatly improved Greenmeadows gelding Begorrah would have won the Manawatu Steeplechase and it certainly took a good one to beat him. In £350 Green Lane Steeplechase at Ellerslie on Saturday next Begorrah does not appear to have been badly treated by the handi-capper and his 10.12 is a reasonable assessment in view of the weakness of the field. Although still a maiden steeplechaser Begorrah should nearly win.

H.B. WINTER MEETING

Outside Stables Well Represented

Splendid nominations were received last night for the Hawke's Bay Jockey Club's winter meeting at Hastings on June 8 and 15, and the entries have been drawn from Auckland, Taranaki, Rangitikei, Manawatu, Wellington and East Coast stables.

The fourteen in the Hawke's Bay Steeplechase include such high-class performers as Riotous, Bridegroom, Red Sun, Small Boy and Southern Blood, while the Hawke's Bay Hurdles has attracted Curie, Soho, Blue Tiger, Small Boy, Du Maurier, Queen's Dream, Kaiwaka and others equally well known. The following are the nominations:—

FIRST DAY

MAIDEN PLATE, of £100, 5½ furlongs.

—Tractive, Etla, Myraid, Rich Blood,
Lady Merle, Isis, Wild Wind, Myology,
Walcony, Centennial, Dusky Morn,
Aberdovey, Versatile, Valroy, Gold
Craft, Scoot, Gold Court, Oraiti, Red
Count, Khyber, Cherry Hunter, Black
Out, Roeon, Lady Ex, Ardsallagh, First Round, Queen Ila, Miss Wheriko, Tractor
gelding, Commandant colt, Skyette, Ashaboy, Kriemhild.

WHAKATU HURDLES, of £150, about 1½ miles.—Southern Blood, Queen's Dream, Small Boy, Refulgent, Red Cockade, Tide, Jean Quex, Limbohm, Son and Heir, Lady Chat, Haupongi, Segra, War Lap, Lucullus Boy, Soho, Lovelilt, Kaiwaka, Haile Selassie.

Enjoyment took on steeplechasing at Te Rapa, but did not shape too well at that branch of the sport and he would be more at home over the battens. He makes more appeal than All Irish. Mio Lume and Knight of Australia stay well and they like Ellerslie.

General Ruse (especially if further rain falls) and Inness Lad have to be WOODLANDS HACK HANDICAP, E125, 6 furlongs.—Royal Spades, Lady Merle, Silver Bat, Smiling Personality, Opoho, Gold Craft, Show Day, Doctor Defoe, Vascones, Judgment, Ardsallagh, City Song, No Wonder, Skyette, Flying Flag, Earl's Court, Black Majesty, Proclamation, Heroic Maid.

Baldric is such a great stayer that he will have a following and Lapidarian should be the pick of the others. However, form points to JEWELLED GIRDLE, Streamline and Inness Lad does not look a hard race to win, but there is sufficient promising material in this race to assure a keen contest.

All Irish has found the distance beyond him in the past, but he is a magnificent jumper and, for that reason alone, he cannot be passed over. He is, indeed, a great second string for backers for he will be bracketed with Baldric, who is certainly the find among the timber.

Ellerslie fences, and secondly, his undoubted stamina. Baldric was having only his third race this season when he won at the Waikato meeting so it is reasonable to assume that he is still on the up-grade. FINAL HANDICAP, of £150, 6 furlongs.—Hunting Mint, Hunter's Eve, Nora Gregor, Centrepolse, Native Song, Smilling Personality, Endorsement, Hunting Royal, Royal Star II. Gold Ballad, Screen Star, Vascones, Padishah, Solaria, Herole Maid BRIDEGROOM and Hirangi both hail from the powerful Knapp stable at Awapuni and are raced by Mr Ken Duncan, so this bracket will also find much favour. At time of writing there is talk of Bridegroom racing at Wanganui in preference to Ellerslie, but if he does go north, backers will not overlook the fact that he was successful here twelve Heroic Maid.

Sporting Gift, who ran a good third in the Kebbell Memorial at Foxton on Saturday, is a hardy little chap. Earlier in the day he had run an ex-cellent fourth in the Cup.

May Now Come Good

steeples and he further proved his ability by running Slayer to the narrowest of margins in the Lincoln Steeples at the National meeting.

Steeples at the National meeting.

Bridegroom is a good jumper and an improving young horse, but it would be well to wait a further lead from the Wanganui acceptances.

Hirangi has not been successful over steeplechase fences, but he is a good jumper. He has won over hurdles at Ellerslie and was successful recently in that department at Waverley, while the other day he ran a great second to Dunmanway on the flat at Awapuni.

Hirangi will be seen in action in the Hunt Club Hurdles on Saturday and it should then be possible to sum up his possibilities in this long and exacting race.

May Now Come Good

Segra rehabilitated himself when he made his successful debut as a hurdler at Foxton as the result of a strong finishing run. Throughout the race Segra jumped well and it would seem that a promising future is before this well-bred gelding.

Siegfried, the sire of Segra, has already left several winners over the battens, and Fred McHugh's charge comes from a great family, Segra's dath being Polly Peachum, a half sister by Feramorz to Runnymede and My Own (dam of Yours Truly).

Segra was purchased as a yearling for 350gns, and he may yet repay Mr N. Blackmore for his initial outland.

over hurdles he carried 13.5 and ran third to Lapidarian after his rider had lost an iron.

LESSER LIGHTS.

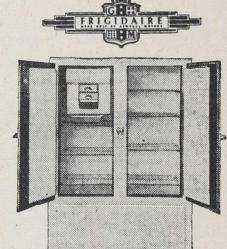

KING REY has not been seen in public since early autumn meetings; after winning the Trentham Hurdles, he ran fourth in the National and won Sydenham Hurdles, he ran fourth in the National and won Sydenham Hurdles, very easily from Aussie Ra. The latter now meets him on 13ibs better terrs, but Aussie Ra was very disappointing at Hawera and Te disappointing of the Huntles and looks should hold no terrors for him. Biform ran second to All Irish at Te Rapa, but, while he stays well and won the last Pakuranga Hunt Cup, he will have his job cut out to beat the topweight, who actually meets him on 9lbs better terms here. St. Musk and Mahala have a chances at the weights, while Smilin Thru ran third last week. Still, on paper, the issue seems to lie between the ALL IRISH-BALDRIC bracket, the Bridegroom-Hirangi bracket and Hybiscus will always be hard to beat over sprint distances.
