Terms Of Armistice Awaited

NEWS EXPECTED TO-DAY

Many Rumours Current But News Suppressed

BRITISH OFFER STILL STANDS

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 22, 0.10 a.m.)

LONDON, June 21.

Germany is giving the French plenipotentiaries the armistice terms at Compiegne at 10 o'clock (G.M.T.).

There has been no news from France since last night. None of the French wireless stations were on the air at 6.30 as usual. Hamburg and Bremen were off the air at midnight.

The "Daily Telegraph's" Bordeaux correspondent says that the French Ministers voted 13 to 10 against Britain's offer of union with France. The British offer, it is reported, still stands.

The Berlin official news agency says that members of the French Government are going to Biarritz from Bordeaux.

An unidentified radio announcer speaking in French stated that the Germans had arrested M. Leon Blum, a former French Prime Minister, who is at present in concentration camp.

The official German news agency earlier said that the French Government had nominated as plenipotentiaries General Huntziger, M. Leon Noel, Rear-Admiral Leluc and Air Marshal Pergeret. The German High Command immediately ordered the reception of the French envoys.

Well-informed circles in Berlin state that the armistice negotiations are being held at Compiegne.

The French radio stated yesterday that the French armistice emissaries among whom is Admiral Abrial, travelled in a white plane. Admiral Abrial commanded the French naval forces at Dunkirk.

Meanwhile, Italy has replied to France's request for an armistice that she will fix the place and date of negotiations after she is notified of the names of the plenipotentiaries.

Orders to Fleet The Rome official radio reports that the French fleet is to be ordered to the nearest French or Algerian port to await orders.

The French Government has announced that it is leaving Bordeaux which it is declaring an open town in order to avoid useless destruction. One hundred German bombers attacked Bordeaux in the second biggest air-raid France has experienced since the outbreak of the war. Incendiary and high-explosive bombs fell on the city and nearby airports. Docks and shipping suffered severely. There were 100 casualties in the raid. At least 150 bombs exploded in the city.

Has Petain Resigned? An unidentified radio report received in Madrid states that the French Prime Minister, Marshal Petain, resigned after appointing plenipotentiaries and that M. Laval was charged with forming a new cabinet. M. Laval was Prime Minister of France during the Abyssinian crisis.

According to the latest reports reaching Madrid from Bordeaux, however, Marshal Petain is remaining Premier.

French Havas agency message from Tunis states that the elected representatives of the French population in Tunisia have sent the following message to Marshal Petain: "Tunisia cannot be dissociated from France. We desire to help to defend France and the French Empire by all possible means."

Leading members of the French colony at Cairo passed a resolution protesting against the negotiations with Germany and demanding a fight to the finish.

The French community in Yugoslavia has telegraphed President Lebrun beseeching that he should immediately break off negotiations with France's tradition of honour.

Enemy Pushes Onward

SOUTH AND WEST

French Success Near Tours

ADVANCE STOPPED

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 10.5 p.m.) BORDEAUX, June 21.

The French night communique states that there is no special change in the general situation. The enemy pushed reconnaissance detachments southward to Nantes and westward to Bourges; also towards Mont Luc and Vichy. Other detachments advanced southward of Lyons.

Military circles at Bordeaux emphasize that the French Army in the region of Tours is holding up the German advance towards Pontiers.

The French military spokesman said that the Germans in Western France were progressing feebly. The enemy's main effort was concentrated in the east, where the French army in Alsace and Lorraine was trying to escape from the trap. German mechanised units cut across country north-eastward of Lyons to Bellegarde, 15 miles from Geneva. These units were presumably trying to make contact with the Italians, who had not yet advanced.

Along the main line of the Loire, the French army had withdrawn a few miles southward of Tours to the Cher River.

A German High Command communique states: "We have captured Brest and reached the Lower Loire from Nantes to Tours, and have crossed the river at various places. Pursuit continues in the Middle Loire over the Cher sector and towards Bourges. Our fighters continuously attacked the retreating enemy south of the Loire."

"Remnants Hard Pressed" "The remnants of the beaten French eastern army in northern Lorraine are being pressed more and more in the Moselle region between Epinal and Toul, and also on the middle and part of the Upper Vosges. Epinal, Toul and Lunéville have fallen into our hands. "The struggle continues on both sides of Diedenhofen, in the Maginot Line, which has again been breached

Gallant Defence Of Position

CAPTAIN RECEIVES M.C.

Attacked By Tanks And Motor-Cyclists

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT

British Official Wireless. (Received June 21, 7.30 p.m.) RUGBY, June 20.

A further list is issued to-night of immediate awards for gallantry made by the Commander-in-Chief of the British Expeditionary Force (Lord Gort), and among the deeds of heroism recorded is that of Captain D. C. Baynes, who received the M.C.

The official account says that Captain Baynes was commanding a company with a strength of three officers and 122 other ranks, which was guarding a depot and petrol dump at Saleux. At about 11.30 a.m. the position was attacked by enemy tanks, led by motor cyclists. At 4 p.m. Baynes, being entirely isolated and unsupported, decided to withdraw owing to increased enemy pressure. The enemy were then well round the flanks of his position. The withdrawal was carried out, and after a march of 50 miles across country Baynes and 52 other ranks arrived at Fermeur three days later with two wounded who had been conveyed in hand carts most of the way.

SUGAR SUPPLIES TO BE REDUCED

Conserving Shipping

HIGH CONSUMPTION IN DOMINION

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.

The need for economy in the consumption of sugar with a view to conserve shipping for more essential purposes was stressed by the Minister of Supply (the Hon. D. G. Sullivan) this evening. "Apart from the absorption of sterling exchange, there is a drain on shipping which can ill be spared for other than really essential needs, which is the reason for this appeal," said Mr Sullivan in reviewing the new arrangements for the Dominion's sugar supply for the ensuing year.

He could not help being struck by the enormous quantity of sugar consumed by New Zealanders, which was approximately 60,000 tons annually, an equivalent of 115lbs a person. It would seem with the exception of America that New Zealand had the highest per capita consumption of sugar in the world.

DOMINION PREPARES TO GIVE REFUGE TO BRITISH EVACUEES

Temporary Homes For Children Aged To Sixteen Years

REGIONAL ZONING PLAN

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.

The willingness of the New Zealand Government to arrange to accept in the first instance 2500 children evacuated from the United Kingdom, ranging from the lowest age capable of travelling to 16 years, has been reported to the United Kingdom authorities through the High Commissioner for the Dominion in Britain (Mr W. J. Jordan).

The Prime Minister (the Hon. P. Fraser) said in an interview to-night that the maximum limit would be the capacity of the country to provide for them. He mentioned that Auckland was ready to look after a minimum of 500 children.

"I expect that some of the children will be leaving England next month," said the Prime Minister, "so we must prepare fully now for their reception. I know that New Zealanders will respond fully to this appeal to assist the people of Britain by taking care temporarily of some of their children."

"The Government proposes to ask local authorities to assist in the initial task of finding suitable homes for the children as they arrive. The Minister of Internal Affairs (the Hon. W. E. Parry) has been giving attention to this phase. He is advising the appropriate local authorities that the Government desires them to do."

"The Dominion has been zoned into certain groups of local authorities, as the Government feels that the matter could be more appropriately handled on a regional rather than on an individual district basis. The Mayor of the principal town in each zone will shortly be asked by the Minister of Internal Affairs to call on all local authorities in his zone to make a collective effort. The object is to obtain from each locality all the information necessary for the proper reception and placing of these children throughout the whole of the Dominion and to have this information fully sifted out locally before submission to the Government."

Church's Help. "I know that the Church authorities, who are eminently suitable for such a task, will assist the local authorities to the fullest extent possible. Already the Government has received large offers from individuals from all parts of the Dominion and a large number of inquiries have been received from other people for further information. I would ask these people to place themselves at the disposal of the local authorities as soon as the appeal is made in each district."

"When the children arrive in the Dominion the child welfare branch of the Education Department will enter actively into the scheme. The branch is now working out the necessary details."

"Until the children are placed in private homes they will be suitably accommodated together. After the children are placed with their foster parents the child welfare branch, together with the Church and other organisations which are concerned with that particular type of work, will maintain that contact which is so essential to ensure complete understanding between the foster parents and the children in immediate need."

By Telegraph—Press Association. AUCKLAND, June 21.

In view of the fact that offers of homes for 1033 children from Britain have been registered at the Town Hall, the Mayor (Sir Ernest Davis) has forwarded to the Prime Minister an undertaking that Auckland would provide as a first instalment for the placing of 500 British orphan children in selected homes.

An offer on behalf of the women of Auckland to support 50 British war widows with children for 12 months or for the duration of the war if the Government will allow them to be accommodated in buildings on Motuhi Island, has also been made by the Mayor.

Joe Louis beat Artur Godoy by a technical knockout in the eighth round. The referee stopped the fight after Godoy, who was bleeding from the nose and left eye, had been twice floored in the eighth round, once for a count of eight.

After the decision Godoy ran to Louis's corner and begged for a chance to continue. He seemed about to throw a punch when the police escorted him back to his corner.

According to the United Press of America Godoy won only two rounds and Louis five.

RUSH TO REGISTER FOR OVERSEAS

CHILDREN OF "WISE PARENTS" WILL BE FAVOURED

America Willing To Take Evacuees

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 9.10 p.m.) LONDON, June 21.

Thousands of parents to-day besieged Government offices seeking to register their children for evacuation to the Dominions.

The Under-Secretary of the Dominions (Mr G. H. Shakespeare) said that preference would be given to children of "wise parents" who had already evacuated their children in accordance with the Government scheme.

There was, he said, every indication that the response from the United States would be remarkable. In addition, the Dominions and Southern Rhodesia had promised to take children.

A vessel has arrived at a south coast port carrying over 1300 refugees from France, including Count Robert de Rothschild and other notable personages.

"HOLIDAY" IN THE COUNTRY CHILDREN EVACUATED FROM LONDON SIX-DAY TASK

—Tubes, Trains And Buses Used

British Official Wireless. (Received June 21, 7.10 p.m.) RUGBY, June 21.

After the completion of six days of evacuating London school children it is now revealed that 180 steam trains, 180 electric and tube trains, 1300 omnibuses and 200 tramcars and trolley buses were used for transporting 111,000 children and those looking after them.

On the Great Western line 96 trains carried 687 each and on the Southern line 84 trains carried 423 each.

The children were taken from assembly points all over London by tramcar, omnibus and tube to the railway stations, where they boarded the train for a prearranged destination. An elaborate timetable was punctually adhered to and at the same time the regular passenger and goods services were maintained.

No scheme has yet been finally fixed for the evacuation of British children to the Dominions and other overseas countries, and it is unlikely that the first movement of children can be started before two or three weeks have passed.

INDUSTRIES CAN HELP REDUCE PETROL WASTAGE

Co-operation In Deliveries To Houses Would Eliminate Overlapping

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.

"Petrol wastage must stop. Overlapping of deliveries of basic commodities such as bread, meat, milk and coal must be reorganised by the industries concerned to provide wartime economy and efficiency," said the Minister of Supply (the Hon. D. G. Sullivan).

The Government was doing everything possible to eliminate waste and it was expected that the distributive side of industry would co-operate, he added. Two or three deliveries in one street were not only wasteful in fuel and vehicles; they also uselessly occupied manpower that was urgently required to fulfil the demands of the war.

The excessive overhead caused by the duplication of deliveries had to be cut out, he added, and he desired that the industries involved should take the initiative. Persons operating deliveries in basic commodities in each district were asked to get together immediately and evolve a scheme for the elimination of overlapping. They were to appoint a representative who would act in conjunction with the local petrol advisory committee when the

ARMS PRODUCTION IN NEW ZEALAND

Preparations Made And Orders Placed

WAR COUNCIL MEETS

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.

Special committees to deal with particular phases of New Zealand's war effort were appointed at the first meeting of the War Council held to-day at the Executive Council rooms, Parliament Buildings. One of the committees is directly concerned with the details connected with the national register for the purpose of the ballot for men for home and overseas service.

Morning, afternoon, and evening meetings were held by the Council, over which the Hon. P. Fraser presided.

Every member invited to join the Council was present and the chiefs of the armed forces also.

Mr Fraser thanked members of the Council for coming to the assistance of the nation in its hour of need. He also expressed the Government's satisfaction and that of the people of New Zealand at the safe arrival of the Second Echelon, including the Maori Battalion, at a British port.

After detailing the Dominion's progressive achievements in its war efforts, Mr Fraser stated that he could rely on members of the council who had such wide experience in various activities, and he could not imagine a body which could be more helpful to the Government.

The chiefs of the three fighting services addressed the council on their respective activities.

One of the immediate matters for decision by the council will be the most effective utilisation of the manpower of the Dominion in relation to every phase of the war effort.

After the setting up of the Munitions Advisory Committee on Monday, there had followed a series of meetings with officers of the Navy, Army and Air Force Departments, the discussions mainly relating to the position in New Zealand of supplies urgently required and those for future requirements, said the Minister of Supply (the Hon. D. G. Sullivan) this evening. Consideration had been given to the machinery available in New Zealand and orders had been placed for such work as could be proceeded with from the materials available now in New Zealand.

Material Awaited. Apart from a number of smaller unit parts in respect of which large quantities might be eventually required, such as grenades and mess items, such as armoured tanks, even gun carriers, machine-sweeping trawlers and other miscellaneous mobile units had been investigated so that, as material became available, production in New Zealand could be begun without delay.

"A point of interest as indicating the possibilities of the salvage of waste is the action already taken in making immediate arrangements for the salvage of the material on the Port Bowen," said Mr Sullivan. "Several thousand tons of sound material have, on inspection, been found useful for munitions production."

"A suggestion by the Hon. R. Semple to convert caterpillar tractors in New Zealand into armoured tanks is under investigation. Other experiments in regard to the conversion of trucks are now under way."

Important Targets Machine-Gunned

LOW-FLYING ATTACK

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 8.45 p.m.) LONDON, June 21.

Squadron Leader Cyril Eytton Kay, of the New Zealand Air Force, has been awarded the D.F.C. The official citation says that Squadron Leader Kay was the captain of an aircraft ordered to attack important targets in the German forests during a night in June. Under extremely difficult conditions and in the face of severe opposition, he successfully bombed his objective, starting several fires which accurately guided other aircraft engaged in this sortie.

He then descended to a low altitude and attacked the woods with all his machine-guns.

Kay has conducted a number of operations in recent weeks and has shown daring, determination and outstanding ability.

Territorial Army Training

OFFICERS AND N.C.O.'S

Instruction Course To Begin On July 1

RIGHT OF APPEAL

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.

Officers and non-commissioned officers of most units of the New Zealand Territorial Forces will begin a course of instruction on July 1, according to a statement made last night by the Minister of Defence (the Hon. F. Jones) in an interview. The men concerned belong to the artillery, engineers, corps of signals and infantry, other than the Fortress Battalion.

The officers and non-commissioned officers of the Fortress Battalion were already in camp undergoing instruction, Mr Jones added. Other ranks of this unit would commence three months' training from July 1. The men of the other units would be trained at the conclusion of the course for officers and non-commissioned officers, which would last a month or two months.

"We wanted to get officers and non-commissioned officers trained promptly," the Minister continued. "Without that being done, it is impossible to have an efficient Territorial Force."

Mr Jones explained that in cases of hardship, either the men or their employers had the right of appeal. This right was being reserved to them.

It is not a fact that he has already returned to this country, but all possible steps are being taken for his safety and convenience.

A later message from the Barcelona correspondent of the British United Press reports that the Duke and Duchess have arrived at Barcelona by car from France.

Ten Per Cent. For The Year

BANK OF NEW ZEALAND
Chairman's Annual Review
HELP IN WAR EFFORT
By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.
The annual meeting of the Bank of New Zealand was well attended and was presided over by Mr R. W. Gibbs in the absence of the chairman, Mr A. T. Donnelly, through illness.
Mr Gibbs read an address prepared by Mr Donnelly in which it was stated that long-term mortgage debenture stock of £500,000 showed a reduction of £107,050. Stock for this amount fell due in New Zealand on August 1 and was repaid. The balance of £500,000 was repayable in London on November 15 and would be repaid. Deposits fixed and free amounting to £36,422,293 showed a net increase of £3,093,815. Fixed deposits, however, were lower and the increase in free deposits was therefore greater than the net amount shown.
Coin, Reserve Bank notes and deposits with bankers totalling £10,825,108 showed an increase of £3,147,190 due principally to heavier balances at the Reserve Bank, which at March 31 amounted to £7,438,000. Among the factors contributing to the larger Reserve Bank balances might be mentioned the earlier receipt of the proceeds of Dominion produce owing to its sale to the British Government, and also the additional use of Reserve Bank credit by the Government for housing and other purposes. These factors also had a bearing on the increase in free deposits referred to above.
Securities
Money at call and short-notice Government securities and other securities in London amounted to £6,066,263, an increase of £1,675,000. Although an increase was shown, it should be understood that the bank had substantial commitments and liabilities against these funds.
British Government securities, in which the bank's reserve fund of £3,375,000 was invested, were included in the above item. New Zealand Government securities amounting to £8,530,195 showed an increase of nearly £3,000,000 of which £1,000,000 represented an interest-free loan to the Government for the period of the war and six months thereafter, and the balance was mainly short-dated stock purchased to employ some of the bank's surplus funds. It was reasonable to assume that as time went on the bank's investments in Government securities would increase considerably. It always was and was still the policy of the bank to support industry and agriculture to as large an extent as possible, and to assist the Government in the task of financing the war effort.
Altered Conditions
Advances and bills discounted amounting to £22,959,595 were lower by £4,243,144. This substantial decrease reflected the altered conditions. Applications for new advances had not kept pace with the reductions effected by customers in overdrafts. The difficulty in obtaining overseas stocks due to import control and the war had resulted in heavy reductions of traders' stocks with the consequent decreases in overdrafts; also, owing to uncertainty as to the future, there was a general tendency among customers not to borrow to take up new investments for fresh enterprise.
Mr Donnelly's statement mentioned that a further 5 per cent. dividend was being paid out on ordinary shares, making 10 per cent. for the year. He explained that the actual trading profits for the year were insufficient to pay the usual outgoings and maintain a dividend of 10 per cent. on receipt of advice from the House of Lords in the long-standing action with the British Inland Revenue Department resulted in a substantial sum previously set aside to provide for British income tax being released and taken back into the profits.
The dividend on all classes of shares would be payable at Wellington to-morrow and at the branches on receipt of advice.
The motion for the adoption of the report and balance sheet was carried without discussion.

BANK OF NEW ZEALAND
Chairman's Annual Review
HELP IN WAR EFFORT
By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.
The annual meeting of the Bank of New Zealand was well attended and was presided over by Mr R. W. Gibbs in the absence of the chairman, Mr A. T. Donnelly, through illness.
Mr Gibbs read an address prepared by Mr Donnelly in which it was stated that long-term mortgage debenture stock of £500,000 showed a reduction of £107,050. Stock for this amount fell due in New Zealand on August 1 and was repaid. The balance of £500,000 was repayable in London on November 15 and would be repaid. Deposits fixed and free amounting to £36,422,293 showed a net increase of £3,093,815. Fixed deposits, however, were lower and the increase in free deposits was therefore greater than the net amount shown.
Coin, Reserve Bank notes and deposits with bankers totalling £10,825,108 showed an increase of £3,147,190 due principally to heavier balances at the Reserve Bank, which at March 31 amounted to £7,438,000. Among the factors contributing to the larger Reserve Bank balances might be mentioned the earlier receipt of the proceeds of Dominion produce owing to its sale to the British Government, and also the additional use of Reserve Bank credit by the Government for housing and other purposes. These factors also had a bearing on the increase in free deposits referred to above.
Securities
Money at call and short-notice Government securities and other securities in London amounted to £6,066,263, an increase of £1,675,000. Although an increase was shown, it should be understood that the bank had substantial commitments and liabilities against these funds.
British Government securities, in which the bank's reserve fund of £3,375,000 was invested, were included in the above item. New Zealand Government securities amounting to £8,530,195 showed an increase of nearly £3,000,000 of which £1,000,000 represented an interest-free loan to the Government for the period of the war and six months thereafter, and the balance was mainly short-dated stock purchased to employ some of the bank's surplus funds. It was reasonable to assume that as time went on the bank's investments in Government securities would increase considerably. It always was and was still the policy of the bank to support industry and agriculture to as large an extent as possible, and to assist the Government in the task of financing the war effort.
Altered Conditions
Advances and bills discounted amounting to £22,959,595 were lower by £4,243,144. This substantial decrease reflected the altered conditions. Applications for new advances had not kept pace with the reductions effected by customers in overdrafts. The difficulty in obtaining overseas stocks due to import control and the war had resulted in heavy reductions of traders' stocks with the consequent decreases in overdrafts; also, owing to uncertainty as to the future, there was a general tendency among customers not to borrow to take up new investments for fresh enterprise.
Mr Donnelly's statement mentioned that a further 5 per cent. dividend was being paid out on ordinary shares, making 10 per cent. for the year. He explained that the actual trading profits for the year were insufficient to pay the usual outgoings and maintain a dividend of 10 per cent. on receipt of advice from the House of Lords in the long-standing action with the British Inland Revenue Department resulted in a substantial sum previously set aside to provide for British income tax being released and taken back into the

INTERESTING TALK ON PRUNING

Hydrangeas And Roses

MR J. G. MACKENZIE

THE SPEAKER

Townswomen's Guild

Members of the gardening circle of the Hastings Townswomen's Guild spent an interesting afternoon at their meeting on Wednesday when Mrs H. M. Buck, the circle leader, presided.

After the general business had been discussed members took part in a vegetable competition arranged by Mrs Dyer who donated a small prize, which was won by Miss Sowersby.

After tea Mrs Buck introduced to those present, Mr J. C. Mackenzie, superintendent of borough reserves, who gave a splendid talk on the pruning of roses and hydrangeas. Mr Mackenzie demonstrated the main points on several plants which he had brought, and at the conclusion was heartily thanked by an appreciative audience.

The competition results were: Best bloom: Mrs Robins 1, Mrs Neilson 2, Shoulder spray: Mrs R. Campbell 1, Mrs Graham 2.

Presentation In Hastings

TO MISS F. NUTTER

The Post Office Staff Meet

The staff of the Hastings Post Office met in the clerical room last evening to bid farewell to one of their members, Miss Frances Nutter, who is shortly to be married.

The postmaster, Mr L. A. Burns, spoke of Miss Nutter's sterling service for several years past and of her efficiency at all times. He wished her every future happiness and asked her to accept a very fine afternoon tea service and coffee set.

The gathering was a fully representative one and the Postmaster's remarks were endorsed by Mr J. Cody, accountant in the money-order department, Mr J. W. Graham, supervisor of the postal department, and Mr J. C. Taylor supervisor of the clerical department.

Mr C. S. Samuelson responded for Miss Nutter and everyone joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

HOME LAUNDRY PROBLEMS

Never have woollies been so lovely as they now are. Jumpers, cardigans, sports sweaters and lingerie are soft and cosy in the most attractive colourings.

Women have become adept at washing them to perfection, often insisting that these dainty garments receive their personal care. After the careful washing in lukewarm, soapy water, and three rinsings in waters of equal temperature, comes the problem of drying. They must not be hung up, or they will stretch; too often the lawn is damp, and even if it is possible to lay them out outdoors or indoors, the underside always holds the moisture.

A useful gadget is a colourless net drying cradle made with two wooden ends in about three or four foot widths. They can be hung hammock-wise, indoors or out, by the two wooden ends. These allow the woollen or other garment to be laid quite flat and the air can circulate underneath as well as above.

HASTINGS BRANCH

BY MRS JOHN JOLL

Members of the Hastings branch of the Women's Division of the Farmers' Union met in the division room for their monthly meeting on Wednesday, at which Mrs F. Dunn presided over a good attendance.

After the business and correspondence Mrs John Joll gave an interesting talk on the rules and objects of the division, describing the small beginning of the movement and its wonderful growth to the present splendid organisation. Competition results were as follows: Apple shortcake, Mrs Marshall 1, Mrs Crossin 2; best bloom, Mrs Steele (maroon) 1, Miss Ebbett (rose) 2, and Miss Elliott (iris) 3.

Afternoon tea was served by the hostesses, Mesdames McKinley and Begley and Miss Ebbett.

Y.W.C.A. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Monthly Meeting Held In Napier

The Napier Y.W.C.A. Board of Directors held its monthly meeting in the board room, Women's Rest, Clive Square this week. Mrs Lewis, president of the association, was in the chair.

The programme committee's report was received with interest, satisfaction being expressed at the increased membership, the total girl membership now being 115. The Saturday "Adventurers" for girls from 10 to 14 years is a very popular group and 30 girls now attend. The other three clubs are increasing in activities, the "Old Collegians" planning a charming course for July, because the "Good Companions" have now grown to a membership of 50 it has been necessary to divide the club into smaller groups, the four groups representing different countries, and working in competitive programmes each week. This method will introduce the international aspect of the work and should prove educational. The two public functions, "Girls' Open Night" and Members "Get Together Night" were most successful and showed the growing interest and enthusiasm of all members. The Membership Recognition Service to be held on Monday, June 24, promises to be most worthwhile.

The association gladly accepted the offer of the Napier Civic Gymnasium for full control of the women's night. Consequently a table of suggested fees which will be presented to the physical committee was drawn up. This should give the Y.W.C.A. valuable contact with girls in the city.

Final arrangements were made for the intended visit of Miss Bennell and Miss Law re the finance campaign.

MAKE YOURSELF A GAY TURBAN

New Fashion Is Easily Copied At Home

In a recent film Ginger Rogers chose an unusual turban headgear which has since gained much popularity. It was a wrapping turban which you and I can make and wear exactly to suit ourselves.

Here's how:—

Get one and a half yards of gay coloured chiffon, thirty-six to thirty-eight inches wide. Cut it down the centre, making two one and a half yard strips of about eighteen inches wide.

Gather together the end of one edge to make the top head cover. Measure from the gathered point for between twelve and fourteen inches, depending on the depth of your head from the front to the back hair-line. Now cut down the centre of the chiffon from that point. This gives you a cap with tails.

Next, cut your remaining material into two nine-inch strips and sew them to your turban tails. Roll-sew all the edges and your turban is ready to be wrapped round your head.

Wrap and fold the strips and, finally, tuck in the ends.

If you want to wrap eighteen-inch pieces instead of nine, make your turban from a double fifteen or sixteen inch piece of chiffon and gather eighteen-inch strips to the back, then wrap.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEMBERS

Several June Meetings

PUKETAPU AND GREENMEADOWS

Takapau Afternoon

A full muster of members of the Puketapu Women's Institute met at Mrs J. Alexander's residence and Mrs Anderson presided. The meeting opened with the oast and aspirations followed by the usual two minute silence of prayer for our overseas fighting forces and peace.

Mrs Perry read the editorial and Miss Kane's letter from "Form and Country" and Miss Codd read one of the pioneer tales from the Institute book. Miss Ida Stevens' singing of two songs, "I Wonder If Love is a Dream," and "A May Morning," was greatly enjoyed.

Two competitions were held, the winner being Mrs Perry 1, Mrs Boyd 2. The winner of the second competition was Mrs Sherratt. The monthly competitions were for apple jam, the best flavoured, Mesdames Reid and Patullo judged the flowers, Mrs Cato being awarded 1st, Mrs Sherratt 2, and Mrs McKinley 3rd. Mesdames Perry and Alexander judged the jam, Mrs G. Steele, jun., was 1st, Mrs Fatu'ou 2nd, and Mrs Marshall 3rd.

Mrs Anderson on behalf of the members thanked Mrs Alexander and the Misses Stevens for a very pleasant afternoon.

TAKAPAU.

The Takapau Women's Institute held a meeting on the occasion of the visit of Miss Hazel Johnson, of Massey College. Mrs J. Hames presided and extended a welcome to all present and especially members of the Otawhao Institute.

The president then introduced Miss Johnson, who gave a most interesting and informative address on the conservation, production, nutrition and value of food, showing charts to illustrate her talk.

The speaker also gave some tuition in the making of bandages, swabs and gauze dressings.

Miss A. Gamble proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Miss Johnson, and hoped that all present would benefit very much from her visit to Takapau.

GREENMEADOWS

The attendance of members at the June meeting of the Greenmeadows Women's Institute was good and several visitors were welcomed, including Mrs West, V.O.

An invitation was received from the Taradale Institute to attend its birthday afternoon, and members were advised of a group meeting to be held at Awatoto.

Mrs Evans read a very interesting letter from the English link at Welford.

The remainder of the afternoon was conducted by members and several songs and competitions were enjoyed. The competitions resulted as follows: Flowers (large bloom); Mrs Algie 1, Mrs Armstrong 2, Mrs Farquhar 3; cluster of flowers, Mrs Kane 1, Mrs Rispin 2, Mrs Ormond 3; embroidered handkerchief, Mrs Martin 1, Mrs Ormond 2, Mrs Rispin 3.

MARAEOTARA—WAIMARAMA

The June meeting of the Maraetotara-Waimarama Women's Institute was held at Mrs King's home, when Mrs Elliott presided over a large attendance of members. One new member was enrolled.

The golden thread subject for the month was given by Miss I. Chambers, her subject being the history of the spinning wheel. The annual "bring and buy" stall in aid of the S.P.C.A. funds was held.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent with a debate, "Coal vs. Electric Ranges." Both sides brought forth very good arguments, but the former was announced the winner.

The monthly competitions resulted as follows: Best knitted balacava (which were afterwards handed in for the Navy); Mrs D. J. Higgin 1, Mrs Stewart 2; best bloom in the garden, Mrs Davis 1, Miss Gillies 2.

Tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs F. Field and Mrs Stewart.

White is a winner—day or night. By day it is inordinately smart accented with black or red.

Newest protection from the sun instead of dark glasses is a Venetian mask of coloured cellophane tied on with coloured ribbons to accent your costume.

Chanel's modestly covered, short-sleeved dinner gown of lame damask—black, gold, and turquoise blue—has its own bib necklace sewn on.

Balenciaga makes a suit entirely of black cotton velvet, excepting for the seams and binding around the coat, which are of wool.

"Behold, Now is the Day of Salvation." Why Hesitate?

Deep down in your heart you have a longing to be saved. You know you should take the step, but have hesitated to do so. Why? The reason is best known to yourself. Perhaps these simple directions will help you: The first thing to do is to acknowledge your need of Salvation to God, recognising that you have sinned against Him in thought, word and deed. You have broken His laws, and are now determined to quit all that is evil.

The next step after confession is to ask forgiveness for Christ's sake. Then childlike faith is necessary for you to claim the promised Salvation. You have followed so far? Thank God, He does save you NOW!

A Great Task Accomplished

A veritable book could be written about the work involved in the production of Max Fleischer's studios for Paramount of the new full-length cartoon, "GULLIVER'S TRAVELS."

A DRAMATIC ROLE IN "REBECCA"

Judith Anderson, whom the New York drama critics ranked last season as the finest actress of the year for her performance in "Family Portrait," recently went to Hollywood for the role of the macabre Mrs Danvers in "REBECCA," which was filmed from the best-selling novel by Daphne du Maurier.

A FILM TO BE REMEMBERED

Predictions are abundant that for many years to come, moviegoers will remember Maurice Maeterlinck's "THE BLUE BIRD" as the most beautiful picture ever made, and the most human story ever told.

King Little of Lilliput and King Bombo of Blefuscu are the disputing monarchs in this scene from the Technicolour cartoon, "Gulliver's Travels," soon to be seen at the Regent Theatres, Hastings and Napier.

Baby Sandy is so enamoured of the bracelet, locket and ring her mother gave her on her second birthday, she insists on wearing them to bed.

COMMENT ON THE FILMS

Beautiful outdoor photography, fast action and thrilling adventure combine to make "HERITAGE OF THE DESERT" a worthy film version of Zane Grey's story.

With J. Carrol Naish in the title role, "UNDERCOVER DOCTOR" relates a suspenseful story of those doctors who risk their reputations for the sake of the illegal fees paid by gangsters in need of medical care.

The "Dead End Kids" are on the side of law and order for once in their latest comedy-drama, "ANGELS WASH THEIR FACES," in which they set out to expose crime and corruption of the leading citizens of a big city.

A timely story of international spies at work on America's big military projects, "ESPIONAGE AGENT" features a promising newcomer, Brenda Marshall, in a leading role.

Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell are an admirable co-starring team as the "young marrieds" in the bright comedy-drama "DAYTIME WIFE," which relates amusing marital mishaps.

A cast of favourites, including Thomas Mitchell, Edna Best and Freddie Bartholomew, has been assembled for the picturisation of "SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON," famous story of a family forced to fend for itself when shipwrecked on an unknown island.

The "Jones Family" meets its funniest adventures yet in "TOO BUSY TO WORK," which recounts the trouble which follows when "Dad Jones" begins to neglect his shop while managing his duties as Mayor of the township.

Cesar Romero plays that smiling Mexican bandit in the gay adventure, "THE CISCO KID AND THE LADY," and lovely Lynn Bari appears opposite him in this, the second of an exciting series.

In her first comedy role on the screen Greta Garbo proves herself

Linda Darnell, who in her second screen appearance is starred with Tyrone Power in "Daytime Wife," which is now in its Hastings season at the State Theatre.

CHOIR FEATURED

The famous Hall Johnson Choir is featured in 20th Century-Fox's "SWANEE RIVER," the story of Stephen C. Foster, the great American troubadour, starting Don Ameche, Andrea Leeds and Al Jolson.

The choir sings many of Foster's most famous songs, including "Old Black Joe" in this Technicolour film. Hall Johnson himself wrote the arrangements for the songs sung by the choir.

Alfred Hitchcock, who has finished directing "REBECCA," David O. Selznick's film version of Daphne du Maurier's famous novel, has moved over to the Walter Wanger studios to prepare for filming "PERSONAL HISTORY," Vincent Sheean's best-seller.

Linda Ware, the new 14-year-old singing star, with Bing Crosby and Louise Campbell, with whom she appears in the "Starmaker," now shooting at the Regent Theatre, Napier.

as much at home as in more serious parts. "NINOTCHKA," the gay story of a Russian commissar who visits Paris, is the title of her comedy debut.

Robert Taylor and glamorous Hedy Lamarr play the leading roles in "LADY OF THE TROPICS," a gripping story of the romance between a handsome young American and a lovely half-caste girl.

Bing Crosby, Louise Campbell and a cast of 99 talented young children are in the gay musical, "THE STARMAKER," which is replete with countless tuneful songs, both old and new, rendered in imitable style.

The realities of the Paris blackout are brought to the screen in "CITY OF DARKNESS" in which Charlie Chan solves a plot threatening the lives of innocent thousands.

Miriam Hopkins and Ray Milland have the leading roles in the romantic comedy drama "WISE GIRL," a story of young lovers and their tribulations.

A drama of family life, and a simple courageous woman's fight against circumstances is presented in "MY BILL," in which Kay Francis is starred with Bonita Granville and a cast of promising juniors.

"THE HONEYCOMB'S OVER" presents a gay comedy of the difficulties that beset a newly-wed couple when the household bills begin to pour in.

When Pat O'Brien, a tough police officer out of Erin, meets Humphrey Bogart, a killer of the "Black Gang," the sparks begin to fly. The two are co-starred in "THE GREAT O'MALLEY."

Her Husband gets £3,000 a year.... BUT....

MONEY is no object with her. She dresses extremely well, her home is widely known for its beauty and lavish furnishing... She has all the help she needs and more... but every Winter she always mixes her own cough mixture with "Heenzo" Essence.

Almost every chemist and store now sells "Heenzo Ready Mixed" (double strength) as well as "Heenzo Essence." Both are 2/6 a bottle. If you have any difficulty obtaining supplies write the Wholesale Distributors, W. & R. Smallbone, Ltd, Wellington.

A NEW LINK WITH HOME

"There's a road to a far off land, and the land is yonder, Where a' our hopes are set; We dinna ken how lang we maun ha'e to wander, But we'll a' win to it yet; And gin there's woods o' fir wi' the licht aween them, I winna speir its name, But I'll lay me doon by the puddock-stools when I've seen them And I'll cry: 'I'm hame! I'm hame!'"

Those who do not understand all these words may get their nearest Scottish neighbour to interpret them. They are remembered because the Anzacs are Home. The boys of the Second Echelon are safe. The sailors from the far ends of the earth are home from the sea and the hunters home from the hill. One day, the epic story of how that magnificent feat was accomplished, in the face of desperate dangers and a quickly changing war situation, will be told by our lads when they return, and the likelihood is that we will be given still greater reason to be proud of the ceaseless vigilance of the British Navy. It is, in fact, a victory, and a victory of which we should be proud, over Nazi blustering, that these thousands of miles of sea were crossed by our troops without mishap—men whose cheers and songs must have put new heart into the people of the Old Country. And we may be sure that the enemy knew all about the movement although they were powerless to do anything to prevent it.

The safe arrival of New Zealand's Second Echelon in England has significant features transcending purely military considerations. It means that we are more closely identified than ever with the Mother Country. Everything which happens there will now have a deeper significance for us all. There is now something even closer than a blood-tie, for these boys are bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh. Their fight is ours.

The question of unity of effort is still exercising the minds of many of our talking politicians, and so far there has been nothing but talk. In this news we have an example of unified Imperial effort which should put to shame the scoring of debating points or any other of the cheap-jack victories won on the floor of the House to the accompaniment of the appropriate guffaws or on the hustings in an atmosphere of mob psychology.

Even America has not shied at that deadly word "coalition," which seems to freeze the marrow of the Labour Party. There are signs that New Zealand is by no means leading the world in the way of concerted effort. Possibly by the time some of the stories from Home reach these shores, we may have, as individuals, first-hand knowledge of the world's best example of co-operative endeavour.

When one of our Parliamentary members said the other day that Mr Chamberlain was ignominiously defeated and hinted that he had had to get out, he was not within a hundred miles of understanding the conduct of a gentleman who stepped aside for the sake of assisting his country in the best way he could. The sickly party germ has so impregnated our politicians that they have little individual initiative left. They arise in their places, one by one, on both sides of the House, to play their battledore and shuttlecock game of cross-talk, one man told off to answer the other whether there is an answer or not, while all the time the menace of the greatest evil known in the world is threatening our very existence.

The Imprest Supply Bill debate was a tragic farce. Nothing emerged from it of which the people are not already aware. Precious time was frittered away in talk. If we really desire to step up alongside the Old Country, it will require the jettisoning of many of our pet ideas.

Breakfast Table

"How's the wife, Ball?" "Haven't spoken to her for two years." "Sorry to hear that. What's the matter?" "She's dead."

Hippel wandered into the anatomical museum. Hippel: I want to sell my body. What would you pay for it? Secretary: £10. "Could I have the money immediately?" "What do you want to do with it?" "Emigrate."

A middle-aged man, forgetting the slippery pavement, dashed out of the station to board a waiting bus. He was halfway across the pavement when he slipped and slid to the bus, his legs going under the step and his hands and arms above it, just as he might have sat at a table.

The conductor looked down at him and said: "Turned out nice again, ain't it? Tea or coffee, sir?" Two young students couldn't quite decide how to spend their evening. Conscience told them they should stay at home and work; inclination disagreed.

"I know," said one. "Let's toss for it. Here's a penny. If it comes down heads we'll go to the club; if it's tails we'll go to the pictures." "Oh, no!" exclaimed the other. "Let's be fair. If it stands on its edge we'll stay home and work."

The big sailor was home on leave and was celebrating in the local inn. After consuming about 10 pints he suddenly glared round the bar and shouted: "Anybody here want a fight?" The locals were all busy with their drinks. Again he shouted: "Anybody here want a fight?" But again he received no answer.

He drank his beer, turned round and said: "Well, you're the most unsociable lot of blighters I've ever met." The minister spoke to one of his flock after the service. "Aye," said Mac, "you was a powerful discourse on thrift ye preached."

"I'm glad you were able to profit by it," said the minister, with satisfaction. "Profit! Why, mon, I would have slogged ma saxe into the plate w'oot a thought if it hadna been for your presidential words. They saved me fourpence there and then."

Messrs T. Parker and Co., Ltd., on Monday last commenced a great stock-taking sale, which will continue until the end of this week. Values are wonderful. The public would be well advised to watch their windows during the next few days.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

To School on Horseback

In these days of mechanisation it is interesting to note that 186 children in the Hawke's Bay Education Board's area travel to school daily on horseback. They attend 51 schools, and between them travel on 148 horses. Subsidy amounting to £136/6/- is provided by the department.

Fell Off Bus

Admitted to the Napier Public Hospital last night at about 11.30 o'clock, a youth, believed to be Joseph Governor, aged 17, was stated to be in a satisfactory condition. He had received slight concussion, and it is understood that he fell while alighting from a Bayview bus, striking his head on the ground.

Weak Power Supply

Some trouble with the supply of electric power was experienced by residents in the Havelock North area last night, when there was available a low voltage only. Lights were dim, and heating appliances became of little use. Over the past few weeks similar trouble has occurred, though for a time the fault was remedied.

The Shortest Day

Yesterday, June 21, was officially recognised as the shortest day in New Zealand, the sun rising at 7.3 a.m. and setting at 4.41 p.m. To-day it will rise at 7.4 a.m. and set at 4.42 p.m., and thereafter the days will gradually increase in length until by July 21 the sun will rise at 6.58 a.m. and set at 4.57 p.m. On the shortest day there are 9 hours 38 minutes of daylight.

Theatre Interlude

The gentle nores of a soul in slumber drew amused glances from patrons at a Hastings theatre last night. Interval came, and interval went, and people streamed from the seats leaving the man who slept the only occupant of a seat. As the last few people left they glanced behind them and wondered what the dreamer's reactions would be when he was awakened in the deserted theatre.

Safety Measure

As a safety measure concrete sections of an ornamental balustrade which surmounts the coping of the Hastings Municipal Buildings are being removed and replaced in durable wood. It was found that pieces of the concrete were breaking away and falling down the sloping verandah and on to the roadway, possibly endangering pedestrians and cyclists. The work is being done by contract.

Large Size in Rats

A story has reached New Zealand concerning the arrival of the Dominion's First Echelon in Egypt. While passing through Australia, it appears, the men, by some means brought to themselves, acquired a large stuffed kangaroo, which accompanied them for the rest of the journey. To astonished natives, when they finally arrived, the New Zealanders proudly pointed out the kangaroo as a variety of New Zealand rat!

Fire in Shop

Had it not been for the prompt formation of a bucket brigade and quick action in suppressing the flames, a small fire, which broke out in the premises of Mr R. Tacon, tobacconist and hairdresser, Russell Street, Hastings, last night, would have probably developed to far greater proportions. Mr Tacon was standing on the pavement in front of his shop, when he noticed smoke issuing from inside. On investigation, he found a large box containing paper and rubbish, ablaze under the counter. With the assistance of several hands from adjoining premises, the fire was quickly stemmed before damage of any consequence was done.

Opening of Schools

The date of commencement of school terms was the subject of a communication received by the Hawke's Bay Education Board from the department yesterday. It was stated that "in November last boards were asked for their comments on the request of the New Zealand Educational Institute that Tuesday should be made the opening day of each term. The boards were not all in favour of the proposal. In view of this difference of opinion, and of the fact that the present time does not seem appropriate to reduce the length of the working year for teachers when other sections of the community are being urged to increase production, it has been decided to make no change in the regulations. The board therefore still retains discretionary power within the limits of the regulations."

In view of the overseas tourist traffic being impeded on account of the war, the New Zealand Government Tourist Department has arranged for special tours to various parts of the North Island, embracing all the noted resorts. This advice was given the "Daily Mail" yesterday by the Tourist Department at Hastings. The department has had great co-operation in the project from the Railways Department and the hotels concerned, and the fares will be considerably less than usual rates.

The New Anzacs Land In Britain

TIMELY ARRIVAL

First Batch Now Happily Encamped

TRAINING STARTS SOON

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 0.45 p.m.)

LONDON, June 20.

A contingent of New Zealanders, commanded by Brigadier H. J. Hargest, and Australians, commanded by Brigadier D. D. Wynter, arrived safely in Britain to-day after a voyage round the Cape, says a special correspondent of the Australian Associated Press. The troops were in great heart and were given a spontaneous and heartfelt welcome for their timely arrival in very needy hours for the Allied cause.

They were the first of the New Anzacs to land on British soil. They are now encamped somewhere in England for final training.

As the armada of ships in which they had crossed the world to the war steamed into port, an official launch bearing messages from his Majesty the King, from the War Minister (Mr Anthony Eden), and from the Dominions Office, slipped out and received a thunderous welcome from the thousands of Anzacs lining the rails and strung up the rigging to the mastsheads.

They were all there—Diggers with their familiar slouch hats and badge of the Rising Sun, New Zealanders in their own distinctive uniforms, Maoris smiling broadly, and here and there, the splash of red and white of Dominion nurses. It was good to see them.

The cry "The Anzacs are here!" swept quickly round the port. Cheers and the British thumbs-up sign greeted the ships as they rounded the headland.

The tired troops were glad to reach camp five miles away after marching in full kit after a 16-hour train journey. They had under their pines, they found roast beef, boiled and baked potatoes, and beans waiting for them.

A medical officer from Wanganui said: "They are all in the best possible health and extremely fit for their voyage. They have got a camp with floor-boarding and palisades—much better than the B.E.F. had."

An Auckland man, commenting on the voyage, said: "We had a grand trip. It was just like being home. The ship hardly rocked. We had a fine time. It is grand to see England; it looks a great country."

Swarthy Maoris
The Maoris caused the greatest interest among the swarthy faces attracting much attention.

Throughout the voyage, the members of the Maori concert party established a great reputation. Several New Zealanders brought instruments with them and proceeded to camp carrying a concertina, but another, more cunning, sent his in the baggage van.

It will be several days before all the New Zealanders arrive. The first to be established in camp in the last war is still remembered, and this assures the New Zealanders of a welcome on all sides.

The Under-Secretary for the Dominions (Mr G. H. Shakespeare) in addressing the men on behalf of the Dominions Office, said: "I am proud to be the first Government representative to welcome you in the name of all the people of Britain.

There will be a thrill in every heart and every home in this country when it is learned that you have arrived safely. I am grateful to the Royal Navy for delivering its precious cargo from the ends of the earth safely home.

"You have come to our aid at a most momentous time for civilisation," Mr Shakespeare added. "Our priceless heritage of freedom is at stake. France is sorely wounded, but the fight for freedom will go on."

Followed Their Fathers
"Twenty-five years ago your fathers and some of you stood with us in the field in France and clung to the heights of Anzac. Those names will be remembered wherever the story of brave deeds is told.

"Some months ago there came the welcome call: 'The Navy's here!' So men imprisoned in a Nazi ship, men in freedom, an hour of grief, the cry will go up: 'The Australians and New Zealanders are here!' I wish you all god-speed."

Brigadier N. S. Falla, speaking on behalf of Mr W. J. Jordan, New Zealand High Commissioner in London, said: "To all we extend a hearty welcome. The New Zealanders made their name in the last war. I am confident that you will make a still better name this time. Your job is a big one, but we are all confident in you. The situation is bad, but I know that New Zealanders fight best when tries are sored against them. I send the best wishes of all New Zealanders here."

Freyberg's Greetings
Brigadier R. Miles, Officer Commanding New Zealand Troops in Britain, speaking on behalf of Major-General B. C. Freyberg, Commander-in-Chief of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force, said: "General Freyberg is still in Egypt. He sends greetings and hopes that he will soon be here. You must get down to hard work, because the test may come soon. The situation will not dawn us. We must stick it out. The Hun fights the same way, but with new tactics. It requires back-bone, initiative, and resource to meet him. I know you have got that."

Brigadier J. Hargest briefly replied: "We are glad to be here. We would rather be here than anywhere else in the world. We will enter this fight boots and all."

The Polish Government, which had been established at Angers, France, for several months, is reported to have been transferred to England.

BRITAIN WILL NOT STARVE

GRAIN IN PLENTY IN CANADA

BIG CARRY-OVER

Cruel Plight Of Those Under Nazism

British Official Wireless. (Received June 20, 12 a.m.)
RUGBY, June 20.

While the brutal German invasion of their countries now faces many formerly free peoples of Europe with the threat of starvation as they helplessly under Nazi domination, the people of Canada in their cruel plight from the fact that the forces still battling for their freedom have the prospect of plentiful food supplies in the bitter struggle which they have vowed to carry on to victory.

Canadian Grain
News from Ottawa says that Canada is likely to break all records in grain production. Of wheat, she has nearly 1,500,000 more acres this year—28,245,900 acres compared with 26,756,500 in 1939. In Eastern Canada, moreover, ample rainfall for crop growth has fallen during the past two weeks and in the maritime provinces the rains resulted in excellent growth of pastures and forage crops.

Satisfactory reports have also been received of crops in British Columbia, where fine warm weather has been experienced.

In addition, Canada will have a record carry-over of 302,000,000 bushels of wheat on July 31, compared with last year's carry-over of 102,000,000 bushels and the previous record of 209,000,000 bushels in 1933. Supplies this year will be 391,500,000 bushels, leaving 431,500,000, 000 bushels available for export.

MAORIS LAND FIRST

EVERYBODY FINE AND WELL

CHEERY "AUSSIES"

New Zealanders In Serious Mood

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 12.45 p.m.)
LONDON, June 20.

The New Zealand and Australian troops came in one of the largest single convoys ever to enter port, accompanied by a naval escort. The first ship was one of the New Zealand transports, and the shouts of "Haere mai!" rolled across the water.

Then came a tall ship with the inscription chalked on the side: "A.I.F. Aussies. Beware Hitler!" The Australians were shouting: "Hitler Here we come!" There were other ships astern, all with the same exuberant spirit.

The official party, headed by Mr G. H. Shakespeare, Under-Secretary for the Dominions, a group of Australian officers from Palestine, and a New Zealand brigadier, went aboard each transport in turn. The troops besieged them for news from home and from France. Then they assembled for the official welcome.

The speeches on the New Zealanders' ships were given through microphones and loudspeakers donated by the citizens of Dunedin.

Cape Welcome
The troops said that the voyage was calm throughout. They had regular sports and athletic contests and produced a ship's paper. They had shore leave at Cape Town where they received a tumultuous welcome. They also called at Freetown. Thanks to the Navy, they were not molested. They said: "Tell the folks we are fine and well. We'll be home some day."

Tender after tender later brought the Anzacs ashore to waiting trains. The debarkation was carried out smoothly. There was no official announcement of their presence until they were safely encamped, but the Anzacs exuberantly announced their own arrival as they sang their way through Britain and waved their familiar "ate."

The Maori Battalion were the first of the New Zealanders ashore. Their appearance and bearing made a profound impression. The Maoris were singing their own battalion song, composed by a member of their company, as they sang their way through Britain and waved their familiar "ate."

The New Zealanders were more serious than the Australians, and debarked in most orderly fashion. The Australians were singing "Roll Out the Barrel," "Kiss Me Goodnight Sergeant-Major," and then, to the delight of the onlookers, "Waltzing Matilda."

As the troop trains passed through the populated areas, they were welcomed and cheered by civilians.

The troops are now encamped. Hour after hour, they poured into the camp. The New Zealanders and the Australians but at a place where the peaked hats of the New Zealand Anti-Tank Battalion were familiar throughout the day, the men marching to camp to the strains of the Royal Artillery and other bands. They were greeted en route by the cheers and smiles of women and children.

A British sergeant-major said: "They are as good as our Guardsmen, the way they slope arms and march off."

The Australian Associated Press representative with the troops says: "This message I would send to their relatives in Australia and New Zealand—the boys are in splendid shape. They are eager and ready to get their training done and get into battle. They like this country. They are well quartered. They are determined not to let down you or their comrades."

Merchant Navy Thanked

WORK AT DUNKIRK

Courage And Endurance Displayed

MINISTER'S TRIBUTE

British Official Wireless. (Received June 21, 2.45 p.m.)
RUGBY, June 20.

The Minister of Shipping has sent the following letter to the masters of 91 ships of the Merchant Navy which took part in the evacuation from Dunkirk:—

"I write on behalf of the Government to convey to you and the members of your ship's company gratitude and admiration for the help freely given and the courage and endurance displayed by you all in the evacuation from Dunkirk.

This operation, in which the Merchant Navy joined as a partner of the fighting services, was carried to a successful conclusion in the face of difficulties never before experienced in war.

I am proud to pay a tribute to your share and that of your ship's company in a great and humane adventure which is destined to occupy a place of honour in the pages of history.

Of the 91 ships, 57 were passenger and store ships and 34 H.M.S. In addition to these, the Ministry of Shipping has the names of over 600 smaller craft which went to take part in the operation, and the list is not yet complete.

AMERICAN MOVE TO FORM COALITION

Republicans Nominated

COLONEL KNOX AND MR STIMSON

Cabinet Replacements

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 10.45 a.m.)
WASHINGTON, June 20.

President Roosevelt to-day acted to form a coalition cabinet, submitting to the Senate the nominations of the Republicans, Colonel Frank Knox as Secretary of the Navy and Mr Henry L. Stimson as Secretary for War. Mr Stimson is a former Secretary of State.

At the same time, the White House announced that Mr Henry Woodring had resigned as Secretary for War, his resignation to become effective on the Senate's confirmation of his successor's nomination. The White House added that Mr Woodring's letter of resignation was so personal that it could not be published.

Mr Edison's resignation as Secretary of the Navy is to be effective as from June 24.

Mr Roosevelt's letter accepting Mr Woodring's resignation stated: "It is, of course, a defensive programme and not aimed at intervention in world affairs which are no concern of the American Hemisphere."

President Roosevelt, in a statement, said: "The Cabinet appointments are in line with the overwhelming sentiment of the nation for national solidarity in this time of world crisis, and on behalf of our national defence—and nothing else."

THE MEDITERRANEAN FRONT

Allied Successes

OPERATION BY SEA AND AIR

(Received June 21, 1.30 p.m.)
CAIRO, June 20.

A communique states that R.A.F. bombers and fighters off the Egyptian coast destroyed three Italian planes and probably two others. One of the R.A.F. fighters is missing. The communique adds that the South African Air Force bombed and machine-gunned nine enemy planes dispersed around the Lavella aerodrome, Italian East Africa, destroying two and damaging three. They also shot down two others. Six enemy planes were set on fire in Eritrea, making 15 Italian aircraft lost in the last 24 hours.

It is officially announced in Algiers that French patrol boats destroyed an Italian submarine.

A message from Djibuti, on the border of French and British Somaliland, says that revolts against the Italians are reported to be beginning in each province in Abyssinia. The R.A.F. damage to Italian air bases has convinced the Abyssinians of Britain's superiority.

Italian planes visit Djibuti four times daily without dropping bombs. The Havas News Agency reports from Algiers that French troops in North Africa contacted enemy troops on the Tunisian-Libyan border. The French Air Force in Africa is very active, successfully bombing Tripoli, the main town of Libya, and Cagliari, a southern town in Sardinia. Italian raids on French territory met with little success.

The ninth war communique issued in Rome states: "An Italian submarine torpedoed and sank a 2500-ton French destroyer.

FATAL CRASH OF BOMBER

SQUADRON-LEADER KILLED

TWO INJURED

Plane Immediately Bursts Into Flames

By Telegraph—Press Association. DUNEDIN, June 21.

An Airtspeed Oxford bomber flying Dunedin from Christchurch under the command of Squadron-Leader Kitson, crashed when taking off from the Taieri aerodrome at 7.25 o'clock this morning, immediately bursting into flames.

The casualties were:—
Dead
Squadron-Leader John Hugh Kitson, the pilot, killed outright.

Injured
Pilot-Officer P. R. McNab, navigator, of Auckland; slightly injured.
Aircraftsman R. E. Kilpatrick, of Oamaru, seriously burned.

Squadron-Leader Kitson was promoted yesterday to the rank of flight-lieutenant. He joined the Royal Air Force in 1934 and arrived in New Zealand on loan to the Royal New Zealand Air Force in March of this year. He was a married man. His wife and two children live in England.

The official report of the tragedy gives little more information.

Squadron-Leader Kitson's birthplace was Hill Vicarage, Fairfield, Gloucestershire. Pilot-Officer Peter Robert McNab, who suffered slight injuries is of Remuera, Auckland. He is married. Aircraftsman Ronald Edward Kilpatrick, of Hull Street, Oamaru, is single. He suffered a fracture to the hands and face.

An inquest on the death of Squadron-Leader Kitson was opened to-day. A court of inquiry will be held to-morrow.

THEFTS FROM CARS AT HASTINGS

WARNING GIVEN TO OWNERS

HANDBAG STOLEN

Hastings motorists who attend any theatres or dances to-night would be well advised to ensure that they remove ignition keys and any articles of value and securely lock their cars before parking them. The series of thefts which have occurred from motor-cars in Hastings during the past week was continued last night, when a woman's hand-bag was stolen while the owner was at the pictures.

In this instance the loser was somewhat fortunate, in that she took the precaution of removing £20 in notes from the bag before leaving it in the car. All the thief had to reward him was the bag and a few contents which included a bank book.

Hand Wrenched Off

The first sign of this kind of trouble occurred during the Hunt Club Ball at Hastings a week ago last night. A number of articles were stolen from one car, and others were tampered with, one having a door handle wrenched off.

On Tuesday night a number of cars in Hastings Street were interfered with, flat batteries in two cases indicating unsuccessful efforts by the culprits to start the vehicles. A rug and a hat were stolen from one of these cars.

The theft of a coat took place from a car left in Heretaunga Street on Thursday night, and several instances of cars being interfered with were reported. A hand-bag reported last night's "haul."

Good Opportunity

With large numbers of people attending dances and theatres, to-night will represent a good opportunity for the thieves to pursue their activities. It is pointed out that if motorists take all precautions before leaving their cars, the thieves may be foiled.

Although no cases of car conversion have been reported this week at Hastings, this does not mean that a vehicle may not be stolen if the owner leaves it so that it may be started easily. Some older models of cars are not equipped with locking devices, but it was pointed out to a "Daily Mail" reporter by a garage owner last night that an owner would have no difficulty in "fixing" his car so that it might not be started without the use of such devices as turning off the benzine, disconnecting the ignition system, and removing a fuse.

VITAL IMPORTANCE OF PETROL

Minister's Appeal To All Users

By Telegraph—Press Association. PARLIAMENT BLDGS, June 20.

In a brief statement to-night the Minister of Supply (the Hon. D. G. Sullivan) stressed the importance of conserving petrol and oil fuel. He said that they were so vital to our defence and national production that the Government would be failing in its duty if it did not protect the existing reserves. This could only be done if all the private car owners and commercial users restricted their consumption to the barest minimum.

He did not wish to reduce the present rations, but consumption must be definitely restricted further and at once.

"I make an earnest appeal to all petrol users to make it their patriotic duty not to use a drop more petrol than is absolutely essential," said Mr Sullivan, "otherwise there will be further rationing."

ANDANIA SUNK

Former Cunard And White Star Liner

TRAWLER OVERDUE

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 0.45 p.m.)
LONDON, June 20.

It is officially announced that the armed merchant cruiser Andania, a former Cunard-White Star liner of 13,950 tons, was sunk by a U-boat.

Two members of the crew were injured. There were no other casualties. The crew were landed at a British port.

His Majesty's trawler Juniper is overdue and must be considered lost. The Juniper operated in northern Norwegian waters, and it is possible that some members of the crew were taken prisoner.

The Greek steamer Makis (3546 tons) was mined off Sicily. The crew were saved.

The Max Wolf, also a Greek ship, was sunk by a bomb in a French harbour.

WAIROA CRITICISM

Strong criticism of the assertion of a section of the people of Wairoa that a proposal was afoot to bring foreign children to New Zealand as refugees during the war, was made by the Mayor (Mr H. L. Harker), at the monthly meeting of the Borough Council.

The Mayor read a telegram received by him from the Mayor of Napier, asking for Wairoa's support to the petition presented to the Government with the object of offering hospitality for 25,000 British refugee children and asking for an immediate reply.

It was stated by the Mayor that it was late in the afternoon that he received the telegram and as a reply was required immediately he did not have an opportunity of consulting the council. However, he replied to the effect that he was quite sure the people of Wairoa would stand behind the suggestion and give it their support.

The Mayor added that he would like to emphasise that it was 25,000 British children it was proposed should be brought to New Zealand, his reason for emphasising this being the remarks made by some busy-bodies in Wairoa.

What some of them had been saying was, "Oh, are you going to take these refugees? I suppose you know they are foreigners?"

Such remarks, as those, said the Mayor, were made by people who should know a lot better, and they ought to be thoroughly ashamed of themselves.

The action of the Mayor was heartily endorsed by the council.

ORIGINAL "MARAMA" RECALLED

Nineteen Years Ago

RECEPTION AT AUCKLAND

It is exactly 19 years ago since "Marama" went on his New Zealand tour, and when this Hastings-written musical comedy appeared in Auckland last night, the "Star" critic wrote: "The curtain had not been lifted for three minutes on 'Marama' when it was plainly apparent that there was no ordinary show; and from the rousing opening chorus until the closing scene the applause came with enthusiasm from an audience which had not recovered from its delighted astonishment at the finale of a continuously sparkling performance. Let this be said at once: 'Marama' is not only a vindication of Colonial genius; it is a production of which any country could be proud."

In the succeeding score of years Mr Leon Fall, who originally produced "Marama," and the performers generally, have gained much in experience, and "Marama" of 1940 is a grand improvement on that of 1920. The chorus is remarkably strong; several of the principals are of the original cast; the scenery is brighter and better; its songs are still catchy and pleasing, even for a fast-moving musical world such as to-day, and the production has been modernised sufficiently to make it fit the times, and at the same time retain its delightful original charm.

"Marama" is to be played in aid of patriotic funds, and opens its Hastings season of five nights on July 2, in the Municipal Theatre. The box plan opens at Fall's on Friday, June 28.

A STRENUOUS DEFENCE OF BELGIUM

Pro-German Allegations Firmly Repudiated

STATEMENT BY CONSUL

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 21.

The statement by Mr R. F. Conrad cabled from London (which appears below) that at the time of the invasion of the Low Countries at least 80 per cent. of the population was openly pro-German, was challenged by the Belgian Consul (M. Armand Nihotte) in an interview to-night.

"When I read that statement, my blood boiled," he said. "In the last war the Germans destroyed our country and machine-gunned our people. If you had had experience of that treatment 25 years ago, do you think that you would be pro-German?"

"I know Brussels. I have a collection of all the Brussels newspapers since the beginning of the war last September. If anyone can find anything in them to support the statement that our people are openly pro-German, I shall be very much surprised."

"Goering himself said that it was because the Belgian Press and the Belgian people were too openly pro-Ally that Belgium was invaded.

"Such statements as Mr Conrad's which tend to cause disunion, are most distressing. They savour of Fifth Column work."

Commenting on the report, Mr C. W. Mach, Wellington, whose son (Flying-Officer A. W. Mach) was interned for some time in Belgium before making his escape, said that from what his son had written to him he could not believe Mr Conrad's story.

"My son received very many kindnesses from the Belgian people," said Mr Mach. "I could not agree with Mr Conrad's statements, particularly about Brussels, because I have always understood that the Brussels people were particularly pro-Ally, and I cannot imagine the Belgian people as a whole, after their experience of the last war, being pro-German."

"A certain man whose name it would not be wise to mention helped my son to escape. He refused a reward.

"With 200 others in the last war he was put up against a wall, sprayed with machine-gun bullets and left for dead. He recovered consciousness after 11 hours with two bullets in his chest.

"My son has nothing but praise for the courtesy and kindness shown him during the whole of his captivity, particularly in Brussels."

German Sympathisers

PROPAGANDA COST £1100 A DAY

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 12.45 p.m.)
LONDON, June 20.

Mr Reg. F. Conrad, formerly of Adelaide, and his New Zealand wife have arrived in London after spending five weeks under aerial bombardment in Belgium and France.

They were in Paris when the Germans entered the outskirts. Mr Conrad lived in Brussels and saw German propaganda which cost about £100 a day slowly turn the minds of the Belgians until the invasion of the Low Countries, when, Mr Conrad estimated, at least 80 per cent. of the population were openly pro-German.

Mr and Mrs Conrad were bombed and machine-gunned between Brussels and Paris.

TWO ANTI-BRITISH NATIONS

Opposition In Spain And Bulgaria

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 21, 2.15 p.m.)
LONDON, June 20.

Spanish newspapers have given up all pretence at neutrality and have launched a strong attack against Britain. Many British nationals are keeping their bags packed in the event of an emergency.

Three thousand participated in revisionist demonstrations in Bulgaria, distributing pamphlets and cheering outside the Italian and German legations. Police guarded the British and French Legations.

The Bulgarian Prime Minister, Dr Phloff, and the German Minister at Sofia have signed an agreement on the railway crossing, and Dr Phloff has awarded Dr Phloff the Grand Cross of the Order of the German Eagle.

GISBORNE'S NEW SCHOOL IN FINANCIAL TROUBLE

Education Board Sympathises But Is Unable To Assist

The financial plight of the new Gisborne Intermediate School was the subject of discussion at yesterday's meeting of the Hawke's Bay Education Board.

In a letter to the board the committee stated that its accounts totalled more than it had in credit, so that payment of some would have to be held over.

It is obvious, therefore, that some further financial assistance is necessary for such expenses as stationery, sanitary requisites, gas and electric light, and the other numerous expenses incidental to the running of a school of this size and character.

The initial expenses have been heavy, for instance, at the last meeting the headmaster requisitioned for six heavy iron rubbish tins. As these are a necessity the committee authorised that they be purchased, but as they more or less comprise part of the school furniture and equipment, they have asked the board to pay for them.

The committee also is faced with the cost of a piano and will have to meet this out of the funds it has, and what it can raise for the purpose.

In reply to the board's representations, the department stated that it was unable to recommend an increase in the annual grant to education boards.

Schools Closed. "Although a certain number of new schools are opened each year, the board will agree that others are closed from time to time," said the letter.

With regard to the board's statement that it is well known that the present grant is inadequate, the department points out that during recent years the amount granted has been increased by 50 per cent.

Mr J. Wauchou said that unless some immediate relief was granted, the only thing the school could do would be to call its creditors together and pay them off.

Country Penalised. Mr W. Cuthbertson expressed himself as strongly opposed to any scheme whereby the country schools had to suffer because other schools could not run their affairs on business lines.

The school could not carry on during the winter on only £35 a month, said Mr Coleman. The school building was new and very fine, but unless some of the necessary adjustments could be provided the public would be asking what difference there was between primary and intermediate schools.

The chairman (Mr G. A. Maddison) said the board was doing its best, and it had done a great deal for Gisborne. The school was one of the finest buildings of its kind in the Dominion. He did not see how a greater allowance could be granted without cutting into other schools, and they were already receiving an allowance at the same rate as other intermediate schools throughout the country.

So far as the engineering and similar departments were concerned,

PUKETAPU SCHOOL Farmers' Union Lodges Objection

BOARD'S REPLY

At the last meeting of the Puketapu branch of the Farmers' Union strong objection was taken by members to the ground improvements being carried out at the Puketapu School.

At yesterday's meeting of the Hawke's Bay Education Board a letter was received from the branch inquiring why a seemingly unnecessary work involving the expenditure of a large sum of money should be carried out when a call is being made for all available financial resources to further the country's war effort.

An Explanation. The chairman (Mr G. A. Maddison) explained that the work was not being carried out by the board, but by the Public Works Department. It had been approved before the outbreak of war, but begun only recently.

The board had at that time been asked to recommend jobs to be carried out by unemployed labour, and this was one of them. The work consisted mainly of stumping, clearing and general improvement on the area.

It was decided to inform the Puketapu Farmers' Union of the position.

By MOTUROA

Sire of winners of nearly £100,000 in New Zealand and over £50,000 in Australia, Lord Quex has been one of the most successful horses used in the Dominion in recent years. From the offset of his Stud career he has every year been among the leading sires in the land and to-day this remarkable horse is leaving winners of all classes of races.

Indeed, the fact is being forced upon breeders to-day that his value is incalculable; it looks as if he will be the leading brood-mare sire in the Dominion this season and the daughters of this versatile horse, being all young mares, should keep his name prominent in the bloodstock world for many years to come.

Lord Quex is a horse of remarkable vitality. He was given few real opportunities when first used and he was given no special care, but he has forced breeders to recognize his value and in the past decade he has been freely patronised. It says volumes for his vigour that to-day he strips like a young horse; full of the dash and liveliness of a young sire. His record as a foal-getter is a noteworthy one and his well has he wintered it looks as if there are several more successful seasons ahead of him.

China Clipper is speedy, while Cherry Hunter has been working well. He ran fourth when he made his debut here last month and looks a better horse now. Loyal Queen ran Batsham to a head here last month, while several good races have gone down to the credit of Sir Musket. Of the two-year-olds engaged Silver Shekel is the only one with form. He ran a good third at Awapuni and will appreciate the shorter distance here. It looks as if the issue lies between Du Maurier failed at Awapuni, but he was a winner on this track last month and has been working well. Francis Drake does not appear and Mittie would be all the better for a race.

Tidewater was unlucky here last month, and also at Awapuni, Liane and Aurora's Star beating him a head at those respective meetings. Winsome Lu won the Foxton Cup here last month at Awapuni, while Aurora's Star will appreciate the easy going to-day.

Royal Star II would not be out of it here, but he will find it hard to concede 2lb. to Colonel Bogey, who was unlucky to lose the Connolly Handicap. Liane is not without a chance and there will also be some support for Mataroa, who won this race last year. However, it looks as if the bulk of the money will be forthcoming for Gay Chou has been jumping well at Awapuni and is a likely sort for the game. War Lap looks rather faded, but Grand Sport is improving fast. Segra won well at Foxton, while First Chapter was a winner at Hawera in the summer.

(By Moturoa)

Big fields are carded for the Otaki Racing Club's second winter meeting to-day and local interest in the fixture will be provided by Gold Ballad (who is making his debut as a hurdler), Cherry Hunter, and the locally-owned Royal Star II.

Indications are that the track will be heavy, and win-and-place betting will be used at the meeting. The programme opens with the AUCKLAND, June 21.

Keen interest is being taken in the Waipa Racing Club's winter meeting, to be held to-morrow, not only because of the good fields engaged, but because it will be the forerunner of a patriotic race meeting at Te Rapa and possibly on other courses in the next few weeks. The going should be good—much better than was the case at Ellerslie this month, as the past few days have been fine and sunny, with a certain warmth in the daytime, but heavy dews at night.

As the safety number at the six and a-half furlong post is 22 and the number of acceptors for the Waipuni

WELLINGTON ENTRIES ON MONDAY

ALWAYS a popular meeting with Hawke's Bay owners and trainers the winter meeting of the Wellington Racing Club on July 9, 11 and 13, promises to again attract the best horses in the province. Splendid prize-money is offered for this meeting and the fixture should see the usual strong representation from this province. The attention of owners and trainers is directed to the fact that nominations for all events close with the secretary, Miss D. E. Bray, Wellington, at 5 p.m. on Monday, June 24.

Derby-Winner's Son

A Lord Quex is unquestionably the most successful son of the Derby winner Lemberg at the Stud and he has left winners of almost the stakes value of his famous sire.

Lord Quex is a horse of remarkable vitality. He was given few real opportunities when first used and he was given no special care, but he has forced breeders to recognize his value and in the past decade he has been freely patronised. It says volumes for his vigour that to-day he strips like a young horse; full of the dash and liveliness of a young sire. His record as a foal-getter is a noteworthy one and his well has he wintered it looks as if there are several more successful seasons ahead of him.

H.B. HUNT ENTRIES ON MONDAY

ATTENTION is drawn to the fact that nominations for all events at the Hawke's Bay Hunt Club's meeting at Hastings on Saturday, July 6, close with the secretary, Mr. A. E. Wikart, Hastings, at 5 p.m. on Monday night. Provincial owners should exert every endeavour to assure the success of this meeting for it not only provides a final outing for the Wellington meeting, but all profits are to be devoted to the patriotic funds.

Agnes Lowenberg, My Own, La Modere, Movie Star, Lady Quex, Sweet Acres, Prince Quex, Paganini and Gay Ballerina. Motere credited him with an Auckland Cup. Catalogue, probably the greatest horse sired in Hawke's Bay since Sasanof, not only won a Melbourne Cup, but was lucky to lose another of those great races, but has a record of three Winter Cups and is likely to win his fourth next August.

This season Lord Quex's best daughter, Amiable, downed the High Caste and ran a new mile record for the Colonies, while Round Up, Lady Montana and others are keeping his name well to the forefront.

High Class Jumpers

But it is not only flat performers that have attracted attention to this versatile horse. All his stock seem to have a natural ability for jumping. Charlie, winner of the Great Northern Hurdles, is one of the best and light mares of modern times. Lord Hereford is a successful though little tried steeplechaser, and others of the stock of the Lemberg horse have been winning all along the line. As a brood-mare sire Lord Quex has shot to the top of the tree in a few seasons. Liaison set the ball rolling by crediting her sire with those successful performers Quadreron, Florence Mills and Old Bill, the last-named being one of the biggest winners in New Zealand this season. My Own's son Yours Truly won the last New Zealand Cup and is already making a name for himself in Australia. My Own's foal offered at the 1939 National Yearling Sales made the top price of 1450gns., her yearling last January being sold at 850gns.

Other very successful Lord Quex mares are Lady Moderna (dam of Sun and Gayest Son); Vigilance (Lady Furst); Gay Salute (Lady Siegfried and The Ring); Asterism

Answer To Correspondents

"A.C.B." Napier: (1) The horse you mention appears to be Soho. The rider is I. Rohlf. (2) Wairoa Belle, owned and trained by L. F. Berkett, won the Wakefield Handicap at the Nelson Trotting Club's annual meeting on March 5, 1920. She was 12th favourite in a field of 12.

"Interested," Gisborne: (1) 154/8/-, (2) Soho is a seven-year-old gelding by Defoe from St. Amers by St. Quixote (a son of St. Simon) from Conciat, by Boniform from Lady Wayward II, by Ladas.

Malacca's form at Hastings was a long way below that he showed at Greenmeadows and the short-bred Arausio gelding may have trained off. He usually shows his best form when fresh up.

Improving

Versatile effort to finish on for fifth at Hastings on Saturday was her best this season. This next Lord Quex filly should not be hard to place in the spring.

Did Not Last Long

Tigretter's display in the June Steeplechase was a long way below his effort in the Napier Steeplechase, where he had the services of Con Kerr. The Dannevirke gelding was never jumping right and was well beaten when he fell at the end of a round.
