Blitz Tactics Used As Germans Try To Advance In Greece

United Press Association—Copyright.) (Received April 13, 10.5 p.m.) LONDON, April 12.

Some Macedonian frontier forts are still holding out, but they are subjected to day-long pitiless attacks by dive-bombers, while loudspeakers attempted to cajole them to surrender, flattering their bravery and declaring that the Germans have no quarrel with the Greeks. One Greek garrison counterattacked and recaptured a height from the Germans.

The Germans to the westward appear to be developing a pincer movement towards Florina (the original objective of the Italians when first attacking Greece), using blitz tactics with dive-bombers blasting a path for the army and numerous attacks by tanks and fast mechanised units to find out the weakest points, on which the whole fury of the attack is

The British United Press Athens correspondent, describing the concentration of British forces in Greece, says: "I have never seen men so eager to get to grips with the enemy. The British are anxious to settle accounts with the Germans for the bombing of their homes and families in England."

An Athens communique states that six successive waves of German raiders bombed the Piraeus region last night. The raid lasted for four hours. A few small fires were quickly extinguished. A small ship was bombed but the crew were vaved.

capitulated eastwards of the Vardar river are most exaggerated and are given for tendentious reasons. The Greek forces in the area are much smaller than this and thousands were able to withdraw and reach free Greek territory. The Greeks capitulated only because they were suddenly isolated through the withdrawal of the Yugoslavs.

The Greek Press Ministry announced to-day that the German column had reached the Vardas Valley and a light German force had penetrated to the west without approaching the Greek lines, says a British Official Wireless message. German aircraft yesterday bombed the town of Kotzani on four occasions, causing damage in the centre of the town.

"NAZI COLLAPSE IS Serbs Reported To Be At Durazzo In Rear Of Italians

(United Press Association-Copyright.) (Received April 14, 0.15 a.m.)

LONDON, April 13.

The Battle of the Balkans has developed new ferocity, with both sides using fast-moving columns supported by divebombers and fighters.

The German and Allied forces are reported to have made contact south-west and west of Salonika but the most violent action centres in the Monastir area, southern Yugoslavia, Anglo-Greek armoured units are here seeking contact with the the Germans in the Florina-Banitza sector, while cutting in on the flank of the German columns seeking to consolidate contact with the Italians at Ochrida. There is still no evidence that they are linked up in force.

Simultaneously, the Serbs continue to hammer the Germans from the north in this area, and desperate battles continue at Prelip and north-west of Skoplje. The Serbs are also attempting to take the Italians in the rear by driving down the Albanian coast. They are reported to have occupied Durazzo.

The German Radio claimed that the Germans had wiped out 14 Yugoslav divisions, but parts of the Yugoslav Army is also reported to be continuing the resistance north from Zagreb and south from Nish. A successful stand at Krusevac is reported to have resulted in the taking prisoner of numerous Germans, including a general.

The Hungarians claim to have completely broken the Yugoslav reduced to the support of the taking prisoner of the t sistance between the Danube and the Tisza and to have occupied Sombor and Darda, and that the Germans have reached Osijek.

Tanks Destroyed

The Associated Press correspondent attached to the new headquarters of the Yugoslav Government says that the Yugoslavs are reported to have destroyed 170 German tanks in a flerce attempt to prevent the Reichswehr linking up with the Italians. King Peter's soldiers are striving to maintain the Allied corridor at Monastir, in the south, despite incessant German bombing.

The Yugoslav night communique states: "In the northern sector a superior enemy force, after reaching the river Sava, occupied Jagodina and progressed toward Kagujevac, which was also occupied. It adds that the Germans entered Zagreb without resistance.

Stranded with three others in the Libyan Desert, a New Zealander, Trooper Ronald Moore, Taihape, who led the party, preferred to walk 290 miles to the base rather than 80 miles to the nearest Italian outpost.

Moore's companions were: Guardsmen Easton, who had a bullet wound in the throat, Private Tighe, and Guardsman Winchester. The party was returning from a 700-mile patrol when the enemy attacked. In addition, it is believed that the number of new shipways planned will be still further increased. ### Mr Churchill Praises Those Who Answered Call Of Homeland THREE DAYS' WORK

In spite of a raid last night a great crowd assembled to greet the Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, who in a speech at greet the Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, who in a speech at Bristol University, said: "It is indeed marvellous that Australia and New Zealand, who are separated from us by vast ocean spaces, should send their manhood and scatter their wealth under no law or constitution, bond or treaty, with thoroughness and efficiency which could not be gained by the harsh and rigid methods upon which other empires have been constructed.

"The Australian and New Zealand troops may be in contact with the enemy to-day in the classic land of Greece, fighting with the sons of Britain and playing an important part in the universal drama."

In Bristol to-day, Mr Churchill continued, were the scars of a new attack on the city. Many of those present had been all night at their posts and under the fire of the enemy in a heavy and protracted bombardment, yet they had assembled with fortitude and detachment worthy of the pages of classical history.

Mr Churchill had toured the bombed areas before proceeding to men in prison camp near the capital.

The Italians were using cavalrymen during recent weeks to protect civilians in outlying districts. The Patriots attacked one regiment, of whom 400 out of 450 were killed. There was a tragic incident when political prisoners released from Addis Ababa penetentiary, overjoyed at their freedom, demonstrated in the neighbourhood of the prison, shouting to their unreleased comrades: "The British are here" and singing patriotic sor.gs.

Eight hundred men still shut in the prison rushed to the gates, whereupon, apparently unnerved, the Italian guards fired tommyguns, killing 41 and wounding many.

Fugitives who have been living in exile are now coming home and telling amazing stories of their five years as hunted men.

Mr Churchill had toured the bombed areas before proceeding to the ceremony at the University, where the American Ambassador (Mr John G. Winant) and the Australian Prime Minister (the Rt. Hon. R. G. Menzies) were invested with honorary degrees of Doctors of Law. A similar degree was conferred in his absence on Dr Conant, of Harvard University.

Regent ADVENTURE WITH THE LIGHT HORSE

Generally and rightfully acclaimed the best film yet made in Australia, "Forty Thousand Horsemen," which is now showing at the which is now showing at the Regent Theatre, Hastings. It con-Regent Theatre, Hastings. It contains action, romance, national sentiment—all the best elements of box-office success. Measured even from the standards of overseas production, it is a wonderful piece of entertainment. The film, which tenses the nerves to the utmost, is a magnificent tribute to the memory of the grand men of the first Light Horse, who made that charge of deathless memory, the famous Beersheba Charge, said not to be surpassed by any such charge in history. It was made for the film by members of the present Light Horse, who ride as their fathers rode with all the dash and deviltry of inspired courage.

Light Horse, who ride as their fathers rode with all the dash and deviltry of inspired courage. "Chips" Rafferty, Pat 'Twohill, Grant Taylor and Betty Bryant share the action and comedy.

There is a very natural and charming love romance between Betty Bryant, newcomer to the screen, and Grant Taylor, seen before in "Dad Rudd, M.P." Pat Twohill and Eric Reimer are two of the leading cast, Twohill as one of the Horsemen, Reimer giving an exceedingly realistic performance. And sung as the Light Horsemen sing it, "Waltzing Matilda" has never sounded so grand before.

Chips Rafferty is the chief comedian and gets his laughs in every scene. He is a typical Australian and his little fast-smoking bit, creates a roar. He is also responsible for most of the wisecracks. Joe Valli stands out in a small part. Eastern atmosphere is astonishingly real, and there is no doubt but that much of what is implicated in the factual portion of the film will come as surprise history to many.

A NEW DOUBLE BILL

A complete change of programme is announced for the Cosy Theatre, Hastings, where an attractive double-feature bill is presented to-

The principal film is "Sandy Gets Her Man," a comedy of fire-fighting, with Baby Sandy in the starring role, supported by a notable cast which includes Stuart Erwin, Una Merkel, William Frawley, Edgar Kennedy, Jack Carson, Wally Vernon and William Davidson.

The second feature is a musical Western, "Rangers' Round-up," in which the popular Fred Scott is starred. This notable baritone sings both new and well-known songs in the course of the story, which has all the movement and excitement that go to make up a good outdoor romance. The latest overseas news completes the programme.

"TIN PAN ALLEY" A GREAT MUSICAL

A spectacular musical, "Tin Pan Alley," which stars Alice Faye and Betty Grable, is the Easter attrac-tion at the State Theatre, Hastings. Jack Oakie and John Payne head great featured cast of top-notch tertainment-makers in "Tin Pan lley," which includes Allen Jen-Rins, Esther Ralston, the Nicholas Brothers dusky dancing stars, and Ben (Shadrach) Carter. With some of America's greatest popular song of America's greatest popular song writers of yesterday and to-day contributing their best and biggest hits, "Tin Pan Alley" surpasses by far any musical since "Alexander's Ragtime Band," which swept the nation. It tells how song hits are made in human terms of composers and song pluggers. Briefly, "Tin Pan Alley" narrates the experiences of two shoestring song publishers, Jack Oakie and John Payne, whose songs achieve prominence after Alice Faye sings them. Alice and John fall madly in love but a split John fall madly in love but a split comes when he pays more attention to his songs than to lovely Alice. They are rejoined in London, however, when war is declared. Paced at a rapid tempo and set in a background of those stirring years of strife, "Tin Pan Alley" smashes into a thrill-packed finale which climaxes its sweeping drama. Marked by many outstanding high-lights, the spectacle of Alice Faye and Betty Grable doing a torrid hula nula dance is really a sight to be-hold. Glamorous and torchy, these two beauties top anything they've ever done on the screen.

"THE PRISONER OF ZENDA"

Ronald Colman is seen in what beyond doubt must be considered one of his best roles in "The Pri-soner of Zenda," which, filmed from the famous novel of the same name, is now screening at the Municipal is now screening at the Municipal Theatre, Hastings. A magnificent cast in support, including Madeleine Carroll and Douglas Fairbanks, jun., contribute performances which made this production outstanding.

The story gives Colman a dual role as an English adventurer whose striking resemblance to the heir to striking resemblance to the heir to the throne of Zenda sets in train a remarkable series of episodes. Induced by friends of the Crown to act the part of king at the Corona-tion ceremonies, following the kid-napping of the real ruler, the Eng-lishman finds himself the central figure in an amazing network of plot and counter-plot which culminates in a desperate attempt to free from his prison the rightful ruler.

In the meantime romance blossoms as the imitation king meets beautiful Princess Flaria, played by Miss Carroll, who is to be the new monarch's bride. Among the fore most of the enemies of the throne is the dashing Rupert of Hertzan, a part which affords Douglas Fair-banks, jun., a splendid opportunity for vivid characterisation, and other important roles are well filled by a more than capable cast. LETTER FROM THE BOYS! The election of officers resulted:

Admisory president, Mr E S. Bibby; chairman, Mr F. Schaw; secretary, Mr S. T. Carter; treasurer, Mr C. Masters. In addition five committee members and officers were elected, as well as three delegates to the Central Hawke's Bay District Committee,

It is the highly dramatic story of a little French governess, seemingly destined for a life of spinster hood, who became the storm centre of a Parisian made candol of a Parisian murder scandal which shook Europe nearly a century ago, but who survived the ordeal to find peace and happiness in America. ### 'MEET THE WILDCAT" IS FINE STORY

"Meet the Wildcat," now showing at the Mayfair Theatre, Napier, follows the efforts of Miss Lindsay, a girl photographer for a large picture magazine, to capture the art thieves and score a scoop for her publication. The manner in which she tangles things up for Ralph Bellamy, a famous New York detective, and finally falls in love with the man after knocking him out, adds to the excitement and enjoyment of the mirthful drama.

'MARYLAND" IS FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Darryl F. Zanuck again has cap-tured a great tradition with his Technicolour production of "Maryland," now showing at the State Theatre, Napier. An outstanding featured cast includes Fay Bainter, Brenda Joyce, John Payne, Charlie Ruggles, Hattie McDaniel and Marorie Weaver.

The absorbing story centres on a mother's aversion to horses after her husband has been thrown and killed during a fox hunt. Despite her inhibitions, her son becomes an expert horseman and, to further complicate the situation, he falls in love with the granddaughter of a horse trainer. All the glory, romance and traditions of the South are captured in the development of the intensely human story.

RELIGIOUS ADDRESS AT HASTINGS

"The Kingdom of God a Divine "The Kingdom of God a Divine Political Institution to be established upon the earth," was the subject considered in the United Hall, Lyndon Road, Hastings, last evening. The speaker, Mr A. F. Milne, submitted that the one great hope for mankind was the return of Christ to the earth. Evidence from the Scriptures showed that a world the Scriptures showed that a world empire would be founded by Him which would break in pieces all human authorities and stand for

A QUESTION OF TEMPERAMENT

The "Daily Mail" the other day contained an article in which an Australian journalist cleverly, if somewhat onesidedly, poked fun at what he alleged to be the intense solemnity of New Zealanders and their preoccupation with the war. This sort of thing goes down very well in Australia, where the Dominion is widely regarded as a group of chilly islands inhabited by a grimly dour race, and perhaps there is a good deal in the contention from the Australian viewpoint.

It is as well to point out, however, that the temperament of New Zealanders has nothing to do with the war. At the best of times we give the impression of being an entirely unemotional people whose enthusiasms are kept securely bottled down and are permitted to escape only in strictly limited quantities and on fixed occasions.

According to the mercurial peoples of the Continent, the British are an essentially sedate, orderly and unemotional race. But New Zealanders have carried the tradition a good deal further. An average London crowd, compared with an average New Zealand crowd, is uproarious in the extreme. When British people feel that an occasion calls for emotionalism, such as a Royal appearance or a military or naval parade, they are capable of enormous enthusiasm, whereas New Zealanders are too self-conscious to do anything which everyone else is not doing.

Australians, on the other hand, have developed something of the Continental temperament. The climate may have something to do with it or possibly the fact that there has been a good deal more Americanisation in Australia than in the Dominion. Again, New Zealand is remote, and an insular people is usually a reserved people.

But after all, if New Zealanders are inclined to take their pleasures sadly, it is a question whether they are conscious of missing anything in life through their lack of Australian

LEND-AND-LEASE—AT A PRICE

A report from Washington says that the United States Government is said to be considering the extension of lendand-lease aid to Ireland if the Government of Eire should agree to grant Great Britain the use of the long-disputed

This is a very fair bargain, but it is likely to put the implacable Mr De Valera in a difficult corner. Eire has had a free ride throughout the course of the war and while her right to preserve neutrality cannot be questioned, she has certainly no claim to concessions from America or any other source of supply if those concessions are made at the expense of Great Britain.

And that is just what would happen if Ireland's claim were conceded without any sacrifice on her part. Presumably any supplies sent from the United States would come from the exportable surplus which, in the ordinary course of events, would be sent to Britain, and Ireland would then be in the happy position of having the cake and eating it without any noticeable diminution in the supply.

Both in Great Britain and the United States there has been a rising tide of resentment at the Irish attitude over the British claim for the use of naval bases. Ireland under British protection, has clung to neutrality with a great many threats about what would happen if either Britain or Germany attempted an "invasion." This would be all very well if there had not been a dozen examples between Norway and Yugoslavia of the value of neutrality in such a way as the pre-Yugoslavia of the value of neutrality in such a war as the present. The point of the whole matter is that Germany would walk into Ireland to-day if the British Navy were out of the

In the circumstaneces there are no grounds whatever for the Irish appeal to America. The country has suffered heav-ily, but that has been the misfortune of neutrals in every part of Europe, and the United States would be justified in withholding assistance unless Ireland is prepared to face realities.

OPENING THE RED SEA

President Roosevelt's decision to open the Gulf of Aden and the Red Sea to American shipping is the most significant move made in the United States since the passing of the Lend-and-Lease Bill. The decision is a direct result of the British victories in Abyssinia and Eritrea which, culminating in the fall of Massawa, have effectively removed the Italian in the fall of Massawa, have effectively removed the Italian threat to the trade route from the Indian Ocean to Suez. Its most immediate effect will be to provide a short cut for American supplies directed to the British forces in Africa and the Balkans, and to the hard-pressed States of Greece and Yugo-

The decision further illustrates the fact that America is prepared to implement to the full her policy of virtually unlimited assistance to the Allies.

Special Easter services were held at churches in Hawke's Bay yesterday, and in each case the respective clergymen report that there were large congregations. Special music was a feature of the services at A police constable on beat duty who looked into a motor-car in the early hours of yesterday morning was surprised to see a boy of about 12 asleep on the front seat. Turning his torch into the back of the car, the constable saw a man whom he took to be the boy's father, also asleep. They were two of the many who, unable to secure accommodation, slept in cars at Napier and Hastings during the week-end.

Swelling the hundreds of Easter holiday-makers who came to Hawke's Bay during the week-end were many visitors for the bowling tournament being played at Hastings and the Competitions Festival at Napier. Camping grounds in both towns held a fair quota of visitors with tent and caravan.

Heavy Bookings A number of young men and yomen, members of Methodist Bible Classes in many centres, are at present in camp at Hastings. The women are accommodated at the Hastings West School, while the men's camp is at the Tomoana Showgrounds.

Although there was an unusual volume of traffic on the roads in the Napier-Hastings district during the week-end, no serious accidents were reported. The main rush of Heavy Bookings Heavy bookings at all hotels last week indicated that the influx of visitors would be large, but few reckoned on the unprecedented demand for accommodation that developed on Saturday night. Despairing of finding a place to sleep, several women called for advice at the Napier police station. Many resorted to sleeping in their cars when they holiday-makers may be expected to set in to-day, and especially this evening, since most businesses reopen to-morrow morning. N.Z. Gift To T.U.C. People who could not find accommodation at Napier or Hastings telephoned Waipawa and Waipukurau hotels, but with little success. In one instance the chef of a large Napier hotel gave visitors beds at Napier hotel gave visitors beds at his own home.

The British National "Safety First" Association has changed its name to the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents. In wartime, the motto "Safety First" is thought to be contrary to the spirit of the nation, so the watchword has become: "Live Dangerously, but Don't Die Foolishly."

A German officer at Flushing (Holland) asked a boy whose was the statue near the mole of the harbour. The boy, a stutterer, replied: "It is m-m-meant for Admiral De Ruyter, who d-d-defeated the English." The German officer, suspecting an unfavourable allusion, mimicked him sarcastically: "S-s-so, is that Ad-m-miral d-d-d-de Ruyter?" Whereupon the boy replied: "You'd b-b-b-better imitate him and n-n-n-not me."

"You know, I'm very absentminded," said a hitherto silent man in the clubroom. "I often find names and telephone numbers written in my notebook, but can't remember what persons they represent. ### Offer Of Foodstuffs And Arms If Sites For Bases Are Granted

(United Press Association-Copyright.) (Received April 13, 11.45 p.m.) WASHINGTON, April 12.

The Administration is said to be considering the extension of the Lend-and-Lease Act aid to Ireland conditional on Eire giving Britain the use of a number of base sites. It is understood that the proposal is connected with Eire's efforts to purchase foodstuffs and arms in the United States, for which purpose the Irish Minister of Defence Co-ordination (the Hon. Frank Aiken) is at present in Washington.

Hitherto Mr Aiken is reported to have rejected conditional aid, but the latest information is more optimistic concerning the possibilities.

Maori Scholar: Keen Sportsman

The body of Mr Arthur Edward Stanton, 80 years of age, who was missed from his home at Hastings on April 3, was found in a backwash in the Ngaruroro River yesterday morning. An inquest for identification was opened last night before the district coroner (Mr George Ebbett, J.P.) and adjourned sine die.

WAIROA

The 1941 demonstration of the United District Fire Brigades Association began at the Lambton Square grounds, Wairoa, on Saturday with 100 visiting and local firemen taking part.

The men came from a wide district and the teams registered good times.

As a Maori scholar and one taking a keen interest in the affairs of the people, Mr Stanton was held in high esteem by the Maoris of Hawke's Bay. Coming originally from Nelson, he joined Cotterill and Humphreys, a firm of solicitors practising in Napier. He was subsequently associated as a Maori agent with the late Mr J. T. Blake, Hastings, before he entered the employ of Carlile, McLean, and Wood. Mr Stanton later went into partnership with the late Mr Thomas Roulston, land agent and sharebroker.

He is remembered as a top-rank Rugby player in past years, and he represented this province on several occasions. He was also an athlete, rower, gymnast and all-round sportsman who devoted much time and interest to any sport to which he gave his attention.

In later years he became a keen dog fancier, his collies winning prizes at many North Island shows.

He leaves his wife, four daughters, Mesdames W. T. Hayes (Auckland), H. L. Ratcliffe (Wairoa) and Misses Ethel and Evelyn Stanton (Hastings), and a son, Mr W. E. Stanton (Hastings).

A painful accident befell a young man when a .303 calibre rifle he was carrying discharged as he was crossing a gate at Kereru at 6.20 last evening, the bullet striking him in the foot. He was:

WASHINGTON, April 11.

President Roosevelt has opened the Red Sea to American ships.

It was indicated recently that the capture of Massawa, principal Italian naval base in the Red Sea, and the mopping-up of the Italian colonies of Eritrea and Somaliland had removed the Red Sea from the list of combat zones into which American ships were forbidden to sail.

The President's new order will enable United States ships to travel through the Gulf of Aden and up the Red Sea as far as Suez. It should help considerably to bring into effect the promise of the United States Government to assist Greece and Yugoslavia to resist German aggression.

Welcome Decision

President Roosevelt's action is warmly welcomed in London (says a British Official Wireless message). The shipping position will be considerably alleviated when American ships travel directly to ports from which the armies of Egypt and the Balkans can be supplied.

Plea For Strong Association

Annual Presentation Of Trophies

NAPIER GATHERING

Advocating the maintenance of a strong body to administer cricket in Hawke's Bay, the president of the Hawke's Bay Cricket Association (Mr H. B. Lusk) urged those who attended the annual presentation of trophies in Napier on Saturday night to give the association all possible support.

Mr Lusk said that a "rafferty" association would result in "raffer-ty" cricket. He knew that the as-sociation had done much to improve the standard of cricket in Hawke's Bay. Only with a strong association could the game be managed and controlled efficiently.

In extending a welcome to the visiting teams from South Taranaki and Wairarapa, Mr Lusk said that the occasion brought back memories of the hospitality given Hawke's Bay teams when on tour.

The annual Tikokino Sports and Axemen's Carnival was held on the Mathews Memorial Park, Tikokino on Saturday. The day was ideal and a large attendance resulted. It was announced by the secretary (Mr J. V. McMahon) that the amount received at the gate was only a few pounds short of that received in 1939, which was a record for the club. After expenses have been deducted, the Patriotic Council's funds will benefit considerably.

riotic Council's funds will benefit considerably.

The first event began promptly at 11 o'clock, and from then on the programme went without a hitch, due to the splendid organisation of the committee. There were large entries in all sections, though the number in the athletic section was smaller than last year. This, however, in the present circumstances, was only to be expected.

RANDWICK RACING CARNIVAL OPENS

Yaralla's Stakes MILDURA'S SECOND

DONCASTER

United Press Association—Copyright.
(Received April 13, 8,30 p.m.)

SYDNEY, April 12.

The attendance on the opening day of the A.J.C. autumn meeting at Randwick on Saturday was 60,000 approximately 6000 more than the corresponding day last year.

Mildura's second Doncaster win, which was acclaimed by the mighty crowd, was gained only after a neck-and-neck finish with Rimveil. Trainer Geo, Price has now won three Doncasters, thus completing the hat trick. Similarly, Mr E. J. Watt is the owner of three successive Doncaster winners.

High Caste fell heavily from grace as he was never in the hunt, although he looked as fit as a fiddle. Reading, too, failed to fulfil expectations. Mildura's time, 1,354, was a course record by a quarter of a second.

Records were also established in the First Hurdle race and in the St. Leger, Jockey E. McMenamin distinguished himself by having four mounts and four wins.

Beau Vite, at cramped odds, won the Inhield by having wins.

Beau Vite, at cramped odds, won the Autumn Plate narrowly from Dashing Davalier in a ding-dong finish, but the New Zealander was not at any stage in danger.

Railways' Left Luggage System

For their convenience and protection, the Railways have a left luggage system that provides for the safe storage of parcels, baggage, bicycles, etc., at the very moderate fee of 5d per month for each
