MARKET SALE AT HASTINGS DESTINY OF NATIONS REVEALED

Messrs Gordon Walker Ltd. reports conducting a successful market sale at Hastings on Saturday. Poultry was in strong demand and a good yarding was cleared readily. All lines of pigs showed a definite increase over last week's rates, with weaner or pigs finishing in strong demand. There was a good demand for porkers and wintons.

The destiny of nations as revealed by the prophet Daniel formed the theme of the address given in the United Hall, Hastings, last evening. The speaker (Mr E. J. R. Milne) drew attention to the "sure word of prophecy," which Christ endorsed and which outlined the history of the Kingdoms of men from the time of Babylon to the Divine overthrow of all human governments.

SPEED COURING AT NAPIER

The second speed couring meeting of the Northern Greyhound Association was held at League Park, Napier, last Saturday, and once again provided thrilling sport.
